OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE STUDENT BODY OF KANSAS STATE COLLEGE
• • • • • AT MANHATTAN • • • • •

Dedication

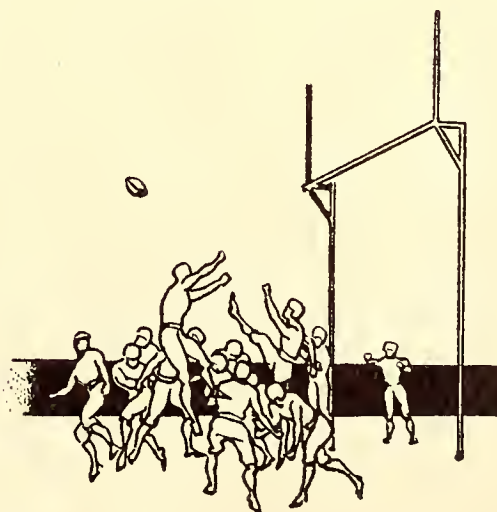

Kansas State College, the first state school of higher education established in Kansas, has lived and grown for "three score and ten" years. The seventieth year of the existence of the college marks the fiftieth year of service that one man has given to this institution.

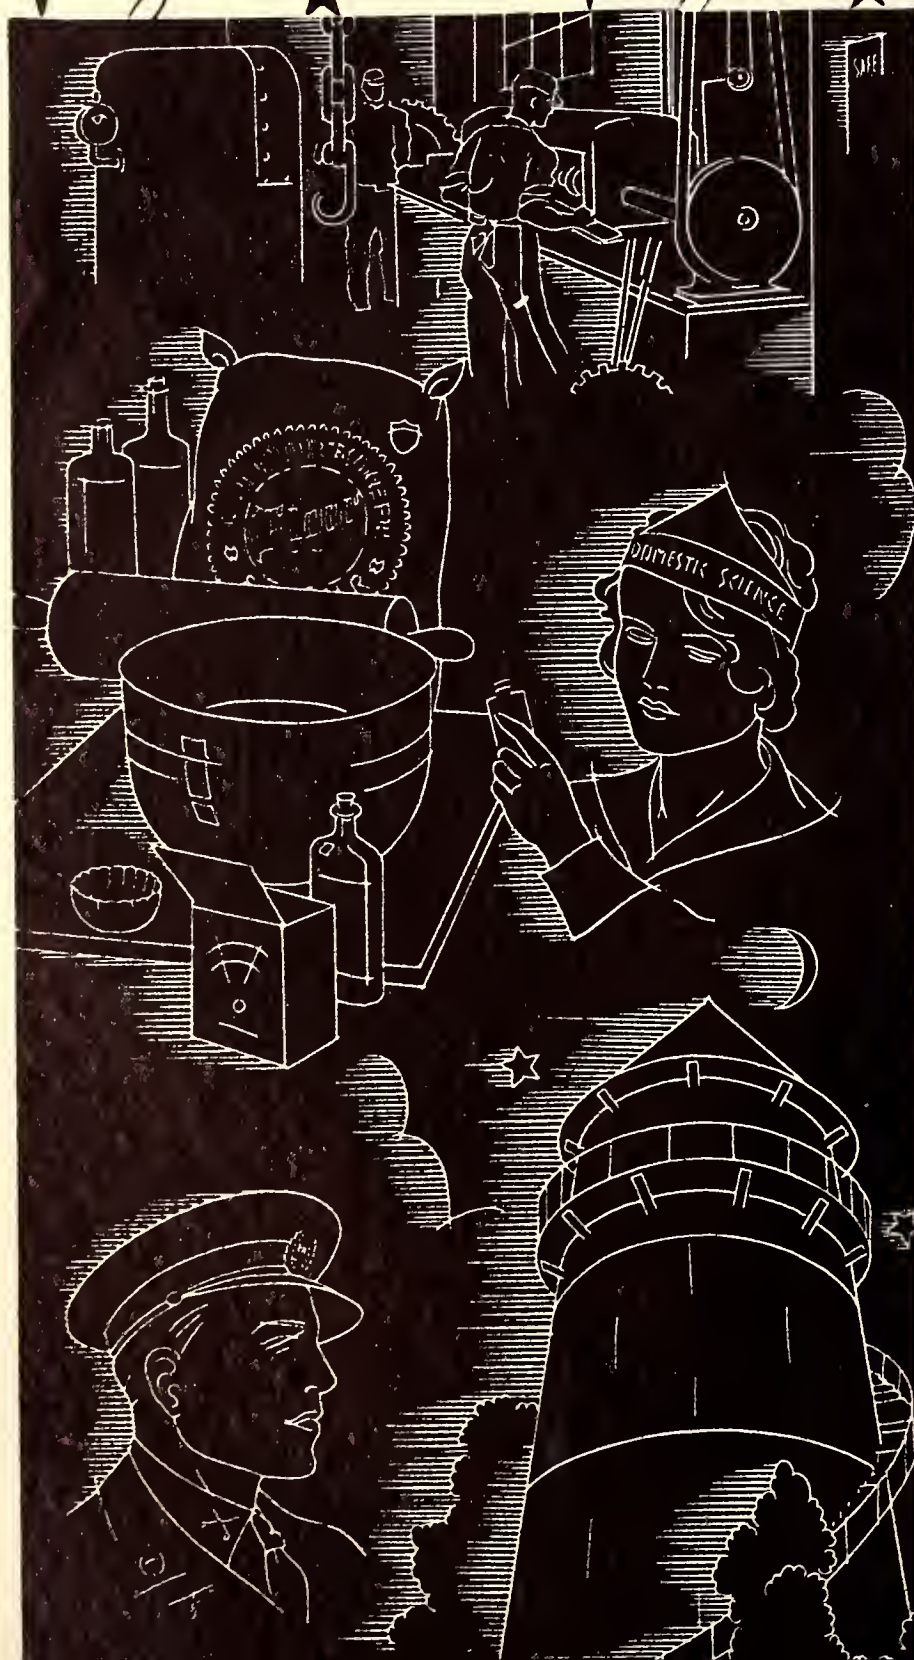

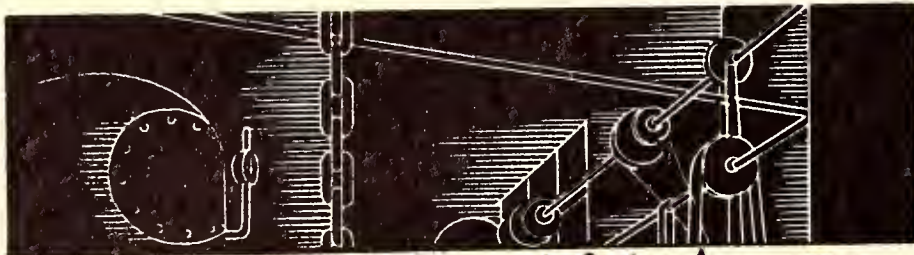

Julius Terrass Willard received his bachelor's degree from Kansas State in 1883, and became a faculty member in his alma mater the same year. At the end of a half century of work in different instructional and administrative offices, Doctor Willard is vice-president of the college.

Because he has fused his personality with that of Kansas State since he was a young student in a college near his own age; and because he has given his life to the education of students of Kansas, it is appropriate that we dedicate this, the twenty-fifth volume of the Royal Purple, to Dr. J. T. Willard.

Foreword

College life is a part of real life, and a preparation for the remainder.

May each page of this annual bring you a memory, caught in word or picture.

May you recall romance and heartaches; bewildered freshman days; the thrill of pledge pins and jewelled pins; the first football game; nights of drudgery; election to honor societies; formal parties; relief and regrets of commencement.

May you remember, too, the world that struggled to rebuild society. May this book suggest realistically and for all time, college days that were yours . . . experiences that made unique the year 1932-33.

GOVERNOR ALF. M. LANDON

THE GOVERNOR

GOVERNOR LANDON assumes his office in one of the most difficult periods in the history of the state. The sympathy of the entire state is with him as he tries to cut the expenses of government without forever crippling the efficiency of Kansas educational institutions.

THE BOARD OF REGENTS

THE State Board of Regents is composed of men who are willing to take time from their private interests to help guide the progress of the state's educational institutions. It shares with the Governor the perplexing problems of today.

The present personnel of the Board of Regents is as follows:

C. M. HARGER, Abilene, Chairman
DREW McLAUGHLIN, Paola
FRED M. HARRIS, Ottawa
LESLIE WALLACE, Larned
OSCAR STAUFFER, Arkansas City

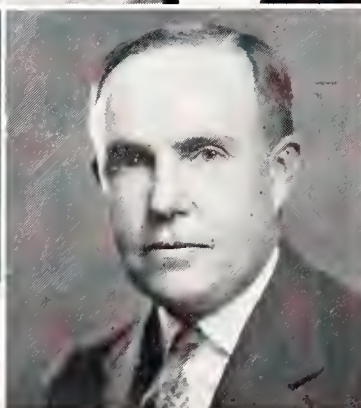

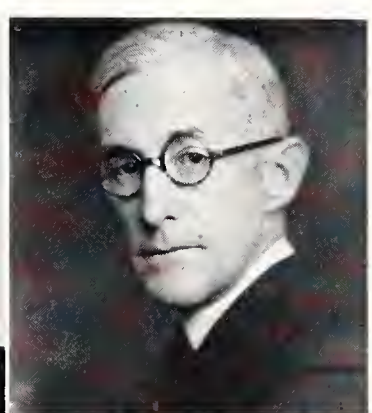

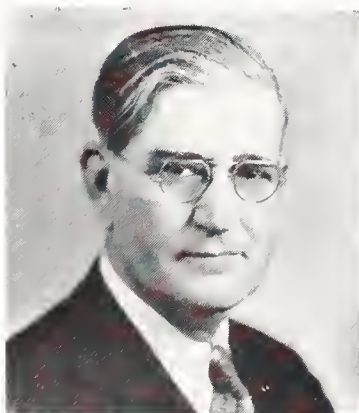

C. C. WILSON, Meade
DUDLEY DOOLITTLE, Strong City
BAILEY P. W. WAGGENER, Atchison
RALPH T. O'NEILL, Topeka

DR. FRANCIS DAVID FARRELL

THE PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT FARRELL was born in Smithfield, Utah, on March 13, 1883. His alma mater is the Utah State Agricultural college, from which he was graduated in 1907 with the degree Bachelor of Science.

"Who's Who" records the President's first job as being a scientific assistant in cereal investigations of the United States Department of Agriculture. In 1910 he accepted an associate professorship in irrigation and drainage at the University of Idaho. After a year there he resumed his work with the U. S. D. A., and until 1918 he was concerned in the government's irrigation investigations and reclamation projects.

In 1918 President Farrell came to Manhattan as Dean of the Division of Agriculture and director of the agricultural experiment station, a position he held until 1925, when he became President of the college.

President Farrell's broad knowledge of student problems as well as his ability as an educator have made him a popular and worthy President.

J. T. WILLARD

VICE-PRESIDENT

DOCTOR WILLARD has been Vice-President of the College since 1918, and was Dean of the Division of General Science from 1909 until 1930. He has served the college in various capacities from assistant instructor to his present position since 1883.

REGISTRAR

IN SEPTEMBER, 1913, after serving for three years as assistant to George O. Foster, Registrar of the University of Kansas, Miss Machir came to Manhattan to assume the duties of Registrar at Kansas State College

JESSIE McDOWELL MACHIR

DEAN OF AGRICULTURE

IN 1873, a "farmer's course," forerunner of what is now the division of agriculture, was established. About 1897, the "farmer's course" was changed to the agricultural course and as a result the graduates in agriculture are numbered from 1900.

Dean Call has been with the College since 1907 when he accepted a position as assistant in agronomy. He became Dean of the Division of Agriculture and Director of the Agricultural Experiment Station in 1925.

Assistant Dean Hugh Durham ably assists Dean Call in his work.

L. E. CALL

R. A. SEATON

DEAN OF ENGINEERING

ALTHOUGH the Division of Engineering under that name dates back only to 1917, engineering has been one of the fundamental branches of instruction of this college since it was established.

Mr. Seaton has been at Kansas State College almost continually since he took his Bachelor of Science degree in 1904. He assumed the duties of the Dean of the Division of Engineering and Director of the Engineering Experiment Station in 1920.

R. W. BABCOCK

DEAN OF GENERAL SCIENCE

THE Division of General Science was founded in 1909 during the administration of President H. J. Waters. Dr. J. T. Willard was the first dean, and continued in that capacity until July 1, 1930, when he was succeeded by Rodney W. Babcock, present head of the division. Prof. C. M. Correll, of the Department of History and Government, is Assistant Dean, and Miss Alice M. Melton, Assistant to the Dean. Mrs. W. J. Burtis is the lady whose smile first greets one on entering the office. She, too, assists with the Dean's work.

DEAN OF HOME ECONOMICS

“GENUINE home-making is an exceedingly difficult and supremely important undertaking. It is a business, a science, and an art. It is the greatest of all the professions.”

Dean Margaret M. Justin and the teaching staff of the division find inspiration and responsibility in the professional instruction of the large number of young women, most of whom will be the home-makers of the future.

MARGARET M. JUSTIN

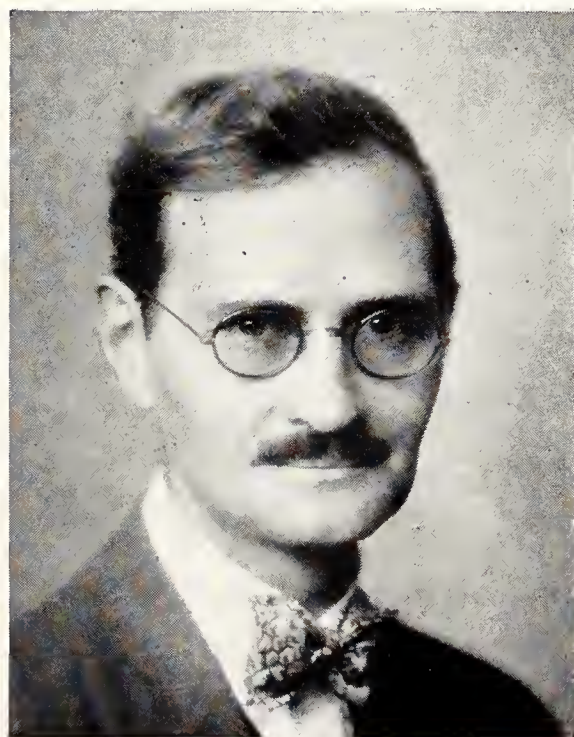

DEAN OF VETERINARY MEDICINE

RALPH R. DYKSTRA came to this country from Croningen, Netherlands, in 1881, when he was two years of age. He now holds one of the most important positions in his adopted profession . . . President of the American Veterinary Medical Association.

Doctor Dykstra became Dean of the Division of Veterinary Medicine in 1919 after having served as head of the department before its organization as a division.

R. R. DYKSTRA

JAMES E. ACKERT

DEAN OF THE DIVISION OF GRADUATE STUDY

WHEN the Division of Graduate Study was organized in the spring of 1932, Doctor Ackert was the logical man for the deanship. He had served for years as director of graduate study and adviser to graduate students.

Since he came to Kansas State in 1913 as assistant professor of zoology and agricultural experiment station parasitologist, Doctor Ackert has brought distinction to the college by his research and his publications. In 1927, and again in 1930 during his sabbatical leave, he was invited to speak at the World's Poultry Conference, and on both occasions made notable addresses. In 1930 he was an official delegate of the American Society of Parasitologists to the Eleventh International Zoology Congress.

DEAN OF THE SUMMER SCHOOL

THE Summer School was organized in 1911. The chief administrative officer was the Director of the Summer School, a title which, in 1918, was changed to Dean of the Summer School. This change gave the Summer School the same rank as other divisions of the College, with a seat in the Council of Deans, and a separate budget. Beginning with the summer of 1927, formal commencement exercises have been held at the end of the summer session.

DEAN OF EXTENSION

FROM January 1, 1910, to June 30 of the same year, Mr. Umberger was Acting Director of Extension and on July 1 he became director of the work, a position which he now holds as Dean of the Extension Division. The Division of Extension carries on far-reaching work in institutes and extension schools, through county agents, home economics, home demonstration agents, boys' and girls' 4-H clubs, rural engineering, and home study courses.

H. J. UMBERGER

DEAN OF WOMEN

IN 1908 Mrs. Van Zile came to the Kansas State Agricultural College as a professor of domestic science. The following year she was made Dean of Home Economics when the college was re-organized into divisions. In connection with this office she was made Dean of Women in 1912 and in 1919 the duties of this office became great enough to require all her time, so that she gave the Home Economics Division into other hands and since has served the college as Dean of Women. She has also obtained a Bachelor of Science degree from this institution, in addition to her other work.

MARY PIERCE VAN ZILE

DR. A. A. HOLTZ

ADVISER TO MEN

DOCTOR HOLTZ has been Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. since 1919, when he left the army. In the spring of 1920 he was given the official title, "Adviser to Men and Secretary of the Y. M. C. A."

MAURICE L. DuMARS
President

STUDENT COUNCIL

THE council, executive group of the Student Governing Association, acts officially upon routine matters of student activity and upon questions of discipline in coordination with the Faculty Council on Student Affairs and the President of the college.

Upon payment of the five dollar activity fee at the beginning of each semester, every student becomes a member of the association and is entitled to a vote in that body.

Members of the council are elected each April for the following year. Nominations for councillors are made by getting twenty-five endorsees for each person desiring nomination. From these nominees a ballot is made and presented for the vote of S. G. A. members. The seven candidates receiving the highest number of votes are declared elected. These seven elect from their own number the officers of the council.

Maurice L. DuMars, Esther Row, Hal McCord, R. J. Alexander, Ruth Stiles, E. S. Sullivan, and Glenn Fox were the council members for 1932-1933.

ENGINEERING HALL

1. Short pants that are Wright's. 2. It'll be a long drag now for Dixon, Phi Sig president. 3. Why I play in the college band. 4. The hot and cold of "K" fraternity initiation. 5. Lois "the swipe" Scripter. 6. The last of the Crocker and the K. S. Sweetheart. 7. Maxine Harding making Gaiety . . . Was you there, Charlie? 8. The chip off the "Bo" block. 9. "Now Bunnie . . . at two this is what you are to do". . . said the senior class president. 10. The best dressed boy and girl at the Co-ed Prom. 11. "Cowboy" Harter. 12. The stair steps of the Chi O house. 13. "Frankie" Jacks. 14. The insides of the Co-ed Prom.

1. The deer Kappa Sigs. 2. Now, now, remember you're in the dorm. 3. Vesecky after driving 48 hours to St. Louis for a drink of beer. 4. Pi K. A.'s looking backward. 5. Creed as a boy scout during "K" initiation. 6. Leora Light and Erma Jean Miller eeee-awing. 7. Alpha Xis ready for a swim in the sand pit icy water. 8. Hold'er Huyck, she's falling. 9. Two vets stop their work for a shot. 10. Tri-Delts in formation. 11. Ag fair exhibit last spring. 12. Paul Stephenson dreaming of his bride back home. 13. An ag taking his medicine. 14. But look what this freshman is getting. 15. A leg show at the "K" initiation.

1. First a freshman cap back. 2. Railsback and Williams, the Lambda Chi Alpha dramatists. 3. Could you believe Winifred Wolf is engaged to a minister-to-be. 4. Zeta Tau girls but not really on the rocks. 5. The girl Barker took home to Kansas City for mother's approval. 6. Sig Alphas making muddy prints on Co-eds' minds. 7. Two vets not before but after. 8. Wiltse and Fockele posing graciously before the camera. 9. Which is the biggest . . . Wertzberger or the push ball? 10. Not a fairy dance, just a catch. 11. "I prefer well water to 3.2 beer," says young Van Tuyl. 12. Murphy from K. C. 13. Dry Kansas made James Wells like this. 14. "Youza," says Reinecke, "I'm floating with a southern breeze" (Munal). 15. Pi K. A.'s the morning before. 16. Al Wilson tries to ride a burro, but the burro decided to ride him all over sunset. 17. Stratford takes it easy.

1. A send-off for Hasler by Garrison and the two famous Paulsons.
 2. Hinshaw and Lawrence in the heat of a good Pi Phi bullfest.
 3. Who could look more proud than Creed when the Lambda Chis won intramural swimming, 32. 4. "I sho hope you all like these Bussie," says Mary Dexter. 5. This is the winning clinch of the greased pig contest at the Ag Fair. 6. "Harpo" Harshaw.

7. Bernice and Grace go picnicking in pajamas. 8. The football fans on a chilly day. 9 "Intelligence" McDougal. 10. Ellen and Bertha try to persuade "Tiny" Large that spring is here. 11. A vet who can't fill his place. 12. The charity six who have donated their vocal cords to the cause of Kansas State.

COACHING STAFF

AHEARN

"MIKE," as Kansas State's athletic director is popularly called, is one of the most widely known men on the campus. Prominent in Kansas State's athletics for 29 years, he has retained an interest in several other fields.

After graduating from Amherst in 1904, Mr. Ahearn came to Kansas State as a professor of horticulture. He assisted in coaching football, basketball, and baseball, and became coach of these sports in 1905.

In 1911, he resigned from this work to turn again to horticulture. In 1920, Mr. Ahearn was placed in charge of athletics and physical education here, upon the resignation of Professor Clevenger, then director of athletics. Director Ahearn was appointed a member of the National football rules committee in 1922.

He served on this committee for nine years. He has served as golf coach, and plans to take over the work of coaching baseball as well, next year.

Kansas State 26 --- Wichita University 0

GETTING into immediate action after the opening kickoff, the Kansas State football team scored two touchdowns before the game was 10 minutes old. The next two scores were not made until the final quarter. The Wildcats outplayed the Wichita University Shockers in every department of the game to win a 26 to 0 victory.

The power of the Wildcats is best shown by the summary of the game which lists 16 first downs for the K-State men to three for Wichita University, and 505 yards gained in scrimmage by Bo's "boys" to 24 won by the invaders.

Kansas State 52 --- Kansas Wesleyan 6

The Kansas State football team overwhelmed the Kansas Wesleyan team 52 to 6. The score was the most impressive ever made by a Kansas State eleven. Second and third string men played most of the time.

The game was played under lights, and was the first night game the Wildcat team had ever played.

FOOTBALL COACHES AND SQUAD

WALTER ZECKER
Captain 1932

RALPH GRAHAM
Captain 1933

FOOTBALL CAPTAINS

ZECKER

Walter Zecker, 165-pound guard, played three years of football on the McMillin machine. Zecker, although lacking size, made up his worth in speed and ability. "Wally" was rated as the hardest hitting man that played in the Wildcat line. He was ranked on the All Big Six team at the end of the 1932 season.

GRAHAM

Ralph "Rammer" Graham will captain the 1933 aggregation. Graham, for two years an All Big Six fullback, was second high scorer of the nation last season and rated first in the scoring of the Big Six conference. He has a good disposition and should make a great leader under Coach McMillin next season.

Purdue 26 --- Kansas State 13

IT WAS a smooth working Purdue football team that downed the fighting McMillin men 26 to 13 in a battle which at half time stood 9 to 7 for Purdue. In the air the Kansas State men outclassed the Purdue Boilermakers.

The two outstanding plays of the game were results of completed passes; one of them Breen's short pass to Dougal Russell who ran 67 yards for a touchdown and the other a 50-yard heave, Breen to Russell, with Breen standing on his own 34 yard line. The summary shows that Purdue gained 299 yards from scrimmage while Kansas State gained 266 yards.

LETTERMEN

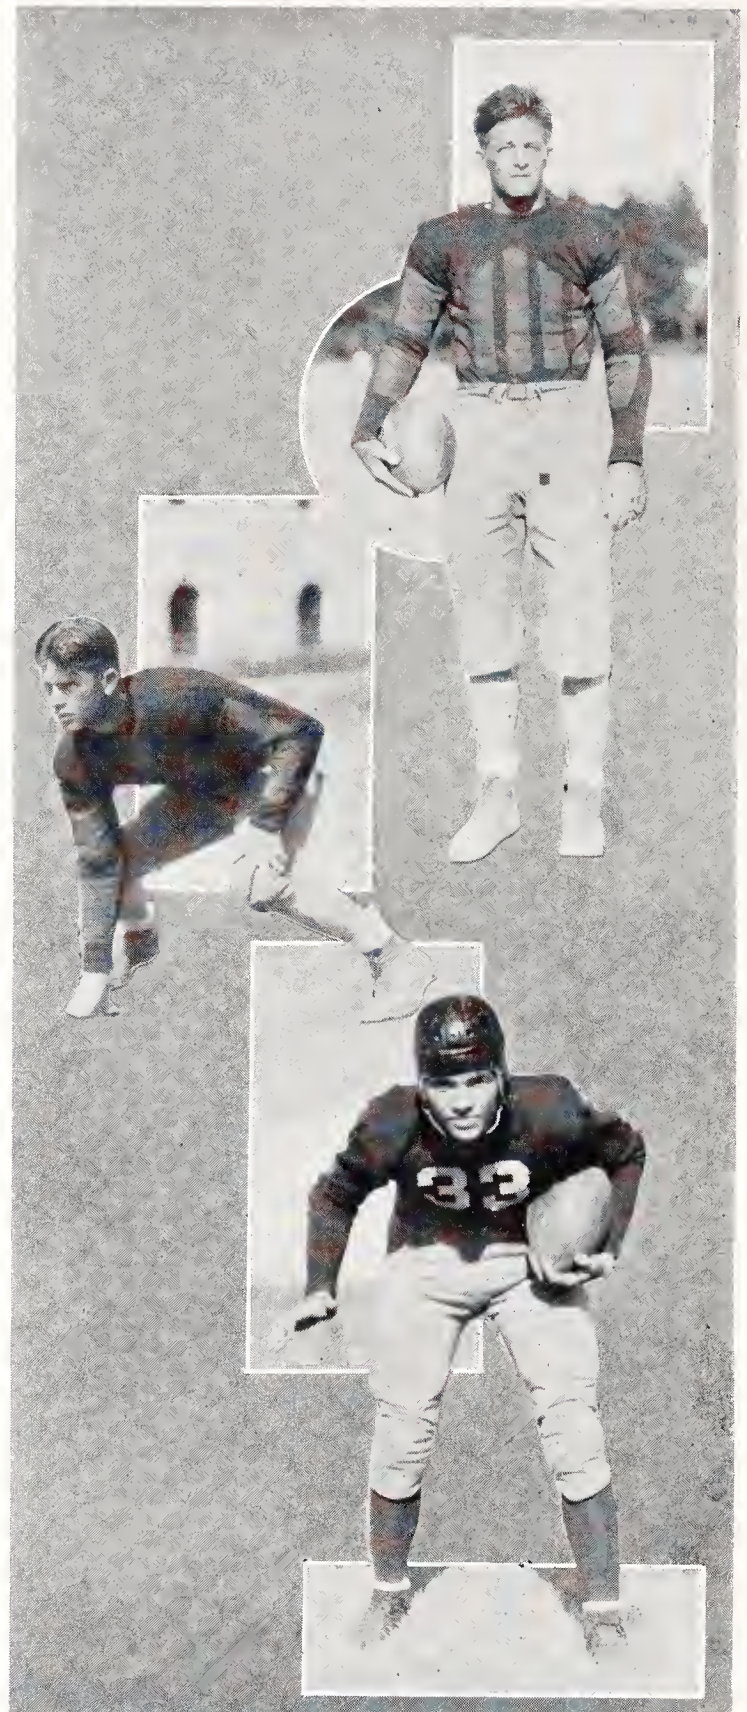

Harry Hasler, end, was Bo McMillin's general utility man. Harry can play in any position in the line and has even worked in the backfield. Harry finished his competition last season.

Dan Blaine is classified by Leslie Edmonds as the hardest driving end in the Missouri valley. Blaine will be back for another season of competition.

Dougal Russell, half back, proved himself as a sophomore to be the speediest man on the K-State team. Russell plays heads up ball and will make a valuable man next season.

Kansas State 25 --- Missouri 0

BO McMILLIN'S men from Kansas State dealt Missouri University its third crushing defeat by drubbing the Tigers 25 to 0. It was Kansas State's Big Six opener. The sprinting gains by Dougal Russell and the driving plunges by Graham were outstanding. Graham scored 18 of his team's 25 points.

LETTERMEN

Tom Bushby, halfback and fullback, played his second year for Kansas State last season. He will be back next year.

Lloyd Michael, center, was rated by Coach McMillin as the most valuable defensive man in the Big Six. "Mike" finished his competition last year.

George Maddox, tackle, was another big man in the K-State line. He saw his first conference competition last season, and will be here for two more great years.

Oklahoma 20 --- Kansas State 13

AN over-anxious football team lost a game to the University of Oklahoma, 20 to 13. It lost, not because it was an inferior eleven, but because the guiding arm had been left at home.

"Bo," who had been burned a week earlier by a furnace explosion, was forced to remain in a hospital and listen to his team lose ground as the Sooners took the wind. The Wildcats led 13 to 7 until the final quarter when a fierce Sooner passing attack ended in two touchdowns.

LETTERMEN

Melvin Wertzberger, tackle, used his 210 pounds to an advantage in the line. "Wertz" has lettered two years and will be back for another great season.

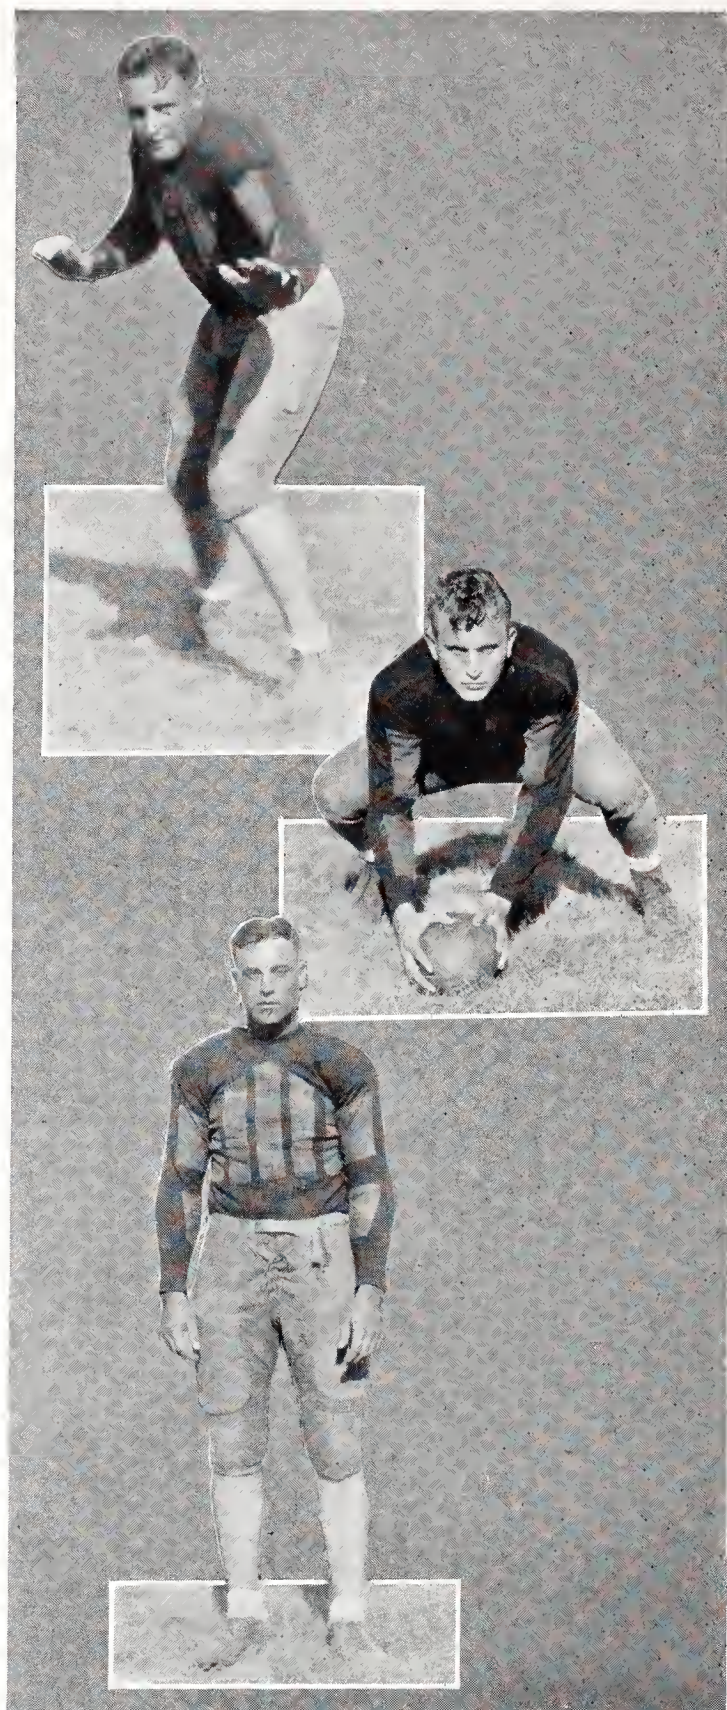

Ken Harter, center, was an understudy of Michaels. Ken will be back for another year.

Homer Hanson, guard, has won two letters at Kansas State and will be back for another year. Hanson is also known as "Burr."

Nebraska 6 --- Kansas State 0

THE Nebraska University Cornhuskers, defending champions of the Big Six, won an uphill fight to defeat the K-State team in the final period of play after having played a defensive game during the entire first half.

Although the Wildcats outplayed the Cornhuskers during the first half, it was a desperate 39-yard march that proved fatal for the McMillin men and gave the Cornhuskers the necessary points to win.

LETTERMEN

Henry "Hank" Dalton was the big, tall end that was down for the K-State passes. Hank was the tallest man on the team. He finished his competition last year.

Shelby Neelly, end, played his first year under Coach Charles Bachman. After being out of school for two years, he returned, to make Coach McMillin a most dependable end. Neelly finished competition last season.

Neil Weybrew, tackle, was the largest man on the Kansas State team. And he was just as good as he was big, too.

Kansas State 31 --- Iowa State 0

KANSAS STATE began with the opening whistle to drive for this winner. Three minutes after the gun sounded the Wildcats had crossed the Iowa goal for the first score. Scores were made by Russell, who scored twice, Breen, Graham, and Bushby. The Cyclones had little chance against the strong K-State attack that day.

LETTERMEN

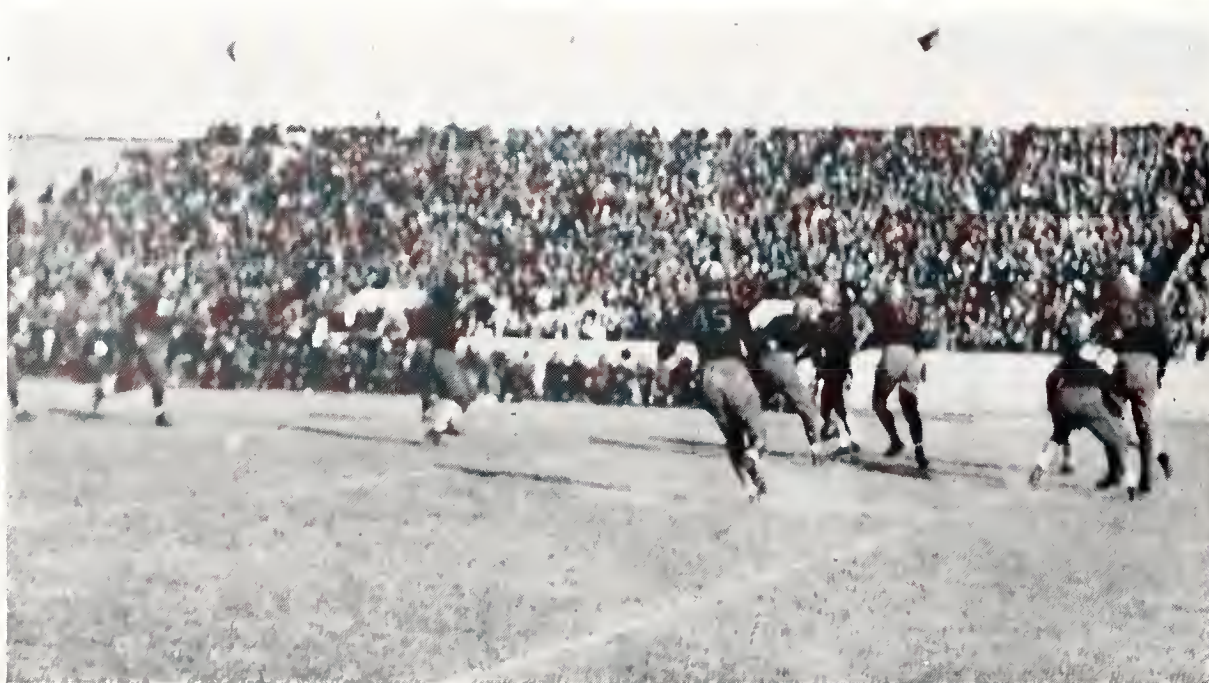

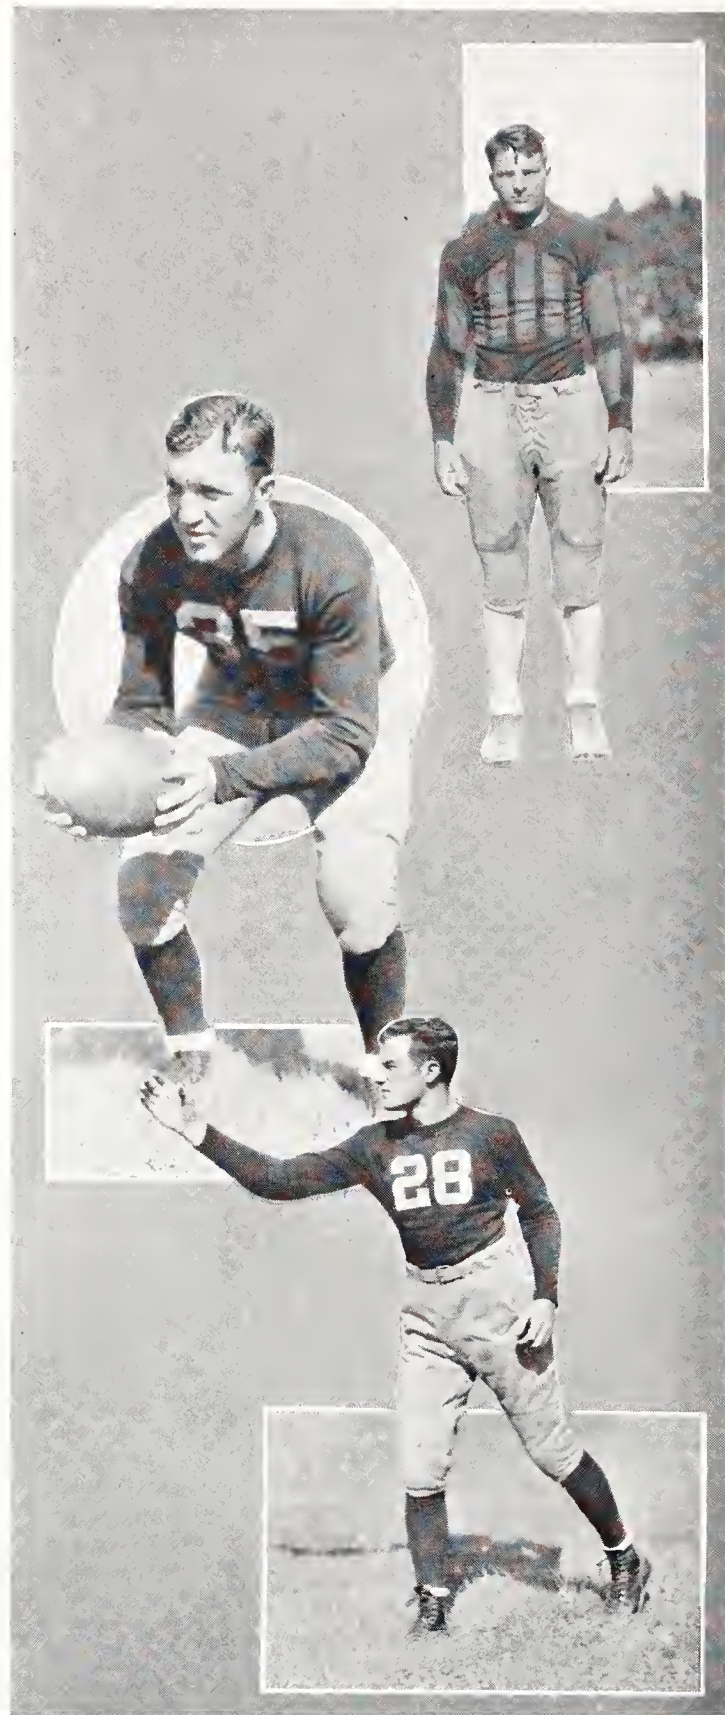

Leland Shafer, halfback, is one of the hardest blocking backs on the K-State machine. "Shay" has another year of competition.

Lee Morgan, half, played his first year last season and proved his ability to work in the K-State backfield. Morgan is one of the hopes for the 1933 K-State eleven.

Emmett Breen, half, played his last year last season for coach McMillin. Breen was the most accurate passer that has worn a purple uniform for several seasons.

Kansas University 19 --- Kansas State 0

SHOWING no offensive power whatsoever, Kansas State lost the annual grid classic to Kansas University 19 to 0. It seemed as though the jinx had trailed the McMillin men for several weeks and due to injuries, the men were not in condition for the final tilt of the season. The day was clear and cold. About 10,000 people saw the game.

Loss Up

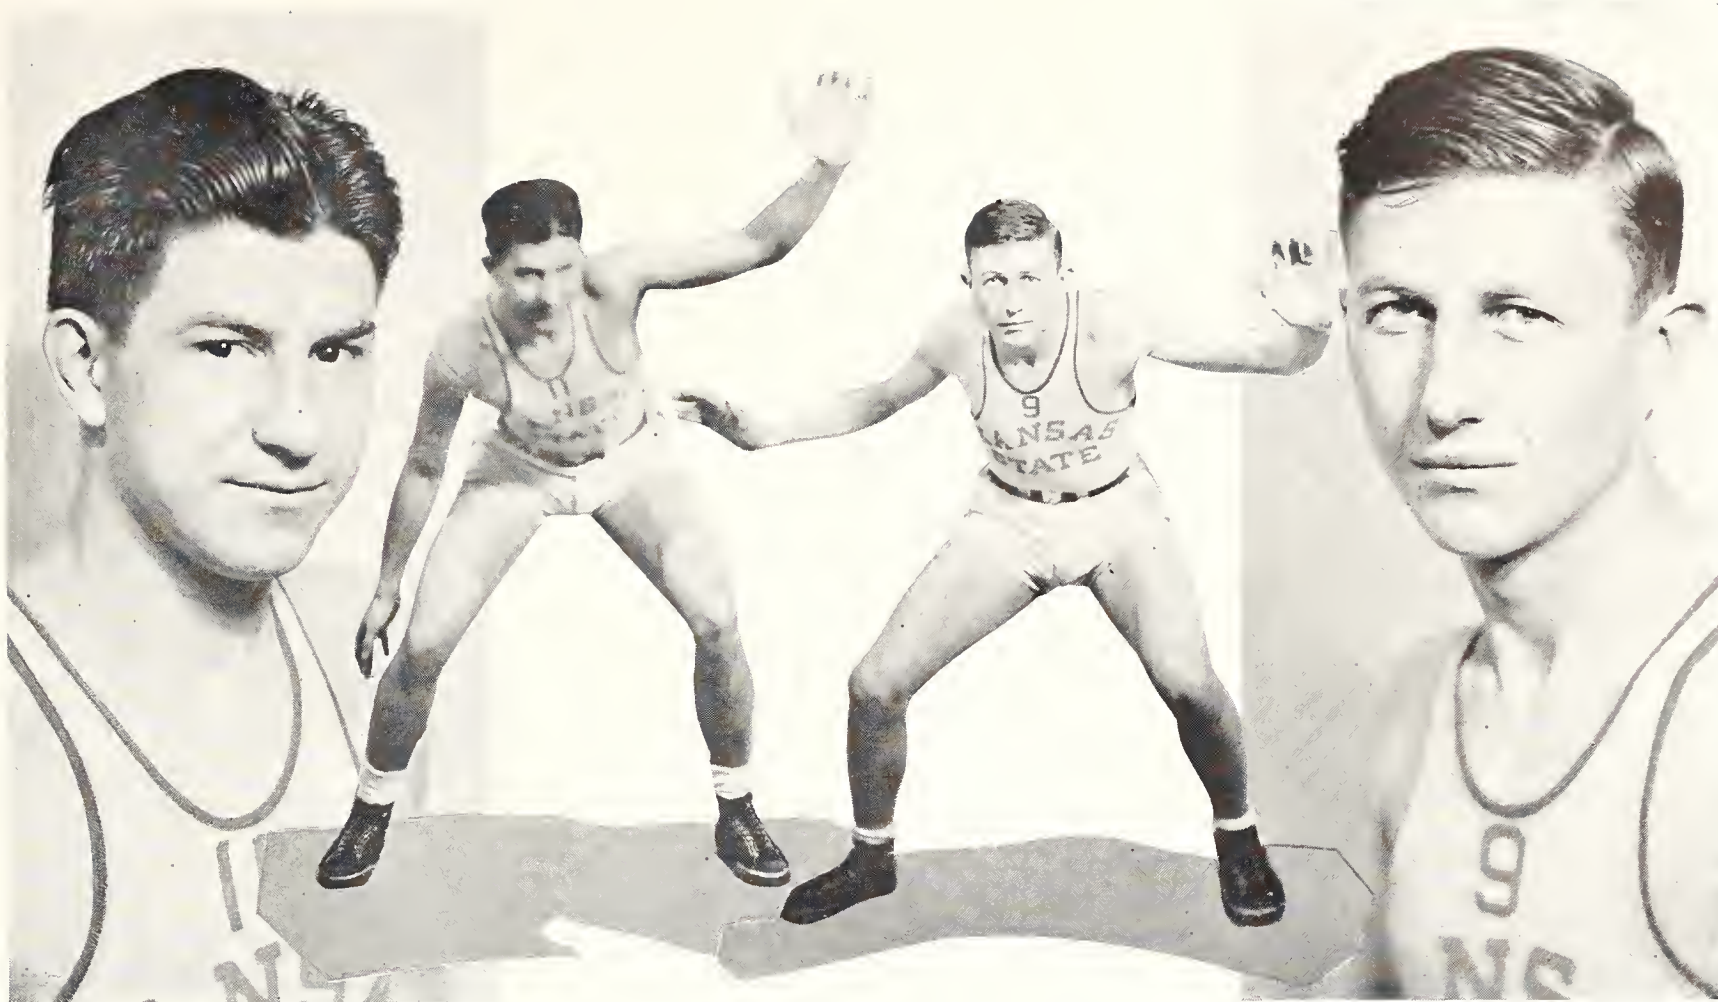

CHARLES W. CORSAUT

COACH CORSAUT

COACH Charles W. Corsaut has been actively interested in athletics for at least thirty years. During those years he coached in Salina high school, Kansas Wesleyan, and in a Chicago college. He was graduated from Y. M. C. A. college in 1917. In 1915-16 he captained the football and the basketball teams.

In the spring of 1917, Mr. Corsaut enlisted for war service. He ended this service in the marine corps, in August, 1919. In that year he went to Kansas City, Kansas where he coached football and basketball for four years. His football teams in that time won 40 out of 44 games. In 1923 his basketball team at Wyandotte high school in Kansas City went to Chicago to win the national championship in a high school tournament there.

In 1923 Coach Corsaut came to Kansas State where he has coached basketball and baseball. In 1925-26 he helped coach the Kansas City Hillyard basketball team that won the National A. A. U. championship in 1926. This brief summary by no means covers all of his athletic activities, but it is written in tribute to the record he has made at Kansas State.

"ANDY" SKRADSKI
Captain 1932-33

"BUS" BOYD
Captain 1933-34

BASKETBALL CAPTAINS

SKRADSKI

Captain "Andy" Skradski headed the Kansas State basketball players through the 1932-33 season. Skradski, a very competent player in any position, was usually sent into the line-up at forward, but many times Coach Corsaut called on him to fill in at center, or even at guard.

Andy had lots of the fight and chatter which it takes to make any man a good captain for his team.

BOYD

Francis "Bus" Boyd will lead the 1933-34 court team. Boyd sprang into the limelight his sophomore year when he produced to become a sensation at his guard position.

Boyd is known for his long shots from far back in the court. He also plays on the K-State baseball team.

LETTERMEN

Oren Stoner, guard, made a letter in his first year of competition. His work was particularly good during the last part of the season. With two years ahead of him, Stoner promises a great deal.

Francis W. "Bus" Boyd, sensational guard, had a good eye for the basket. His long shots were a sensation to the crowd. Boyd will captain the court team next season.

Captain Andy Skradski was a general utility man on the court. He played forward, center, or guard. "Skrad" finished his competition this season.

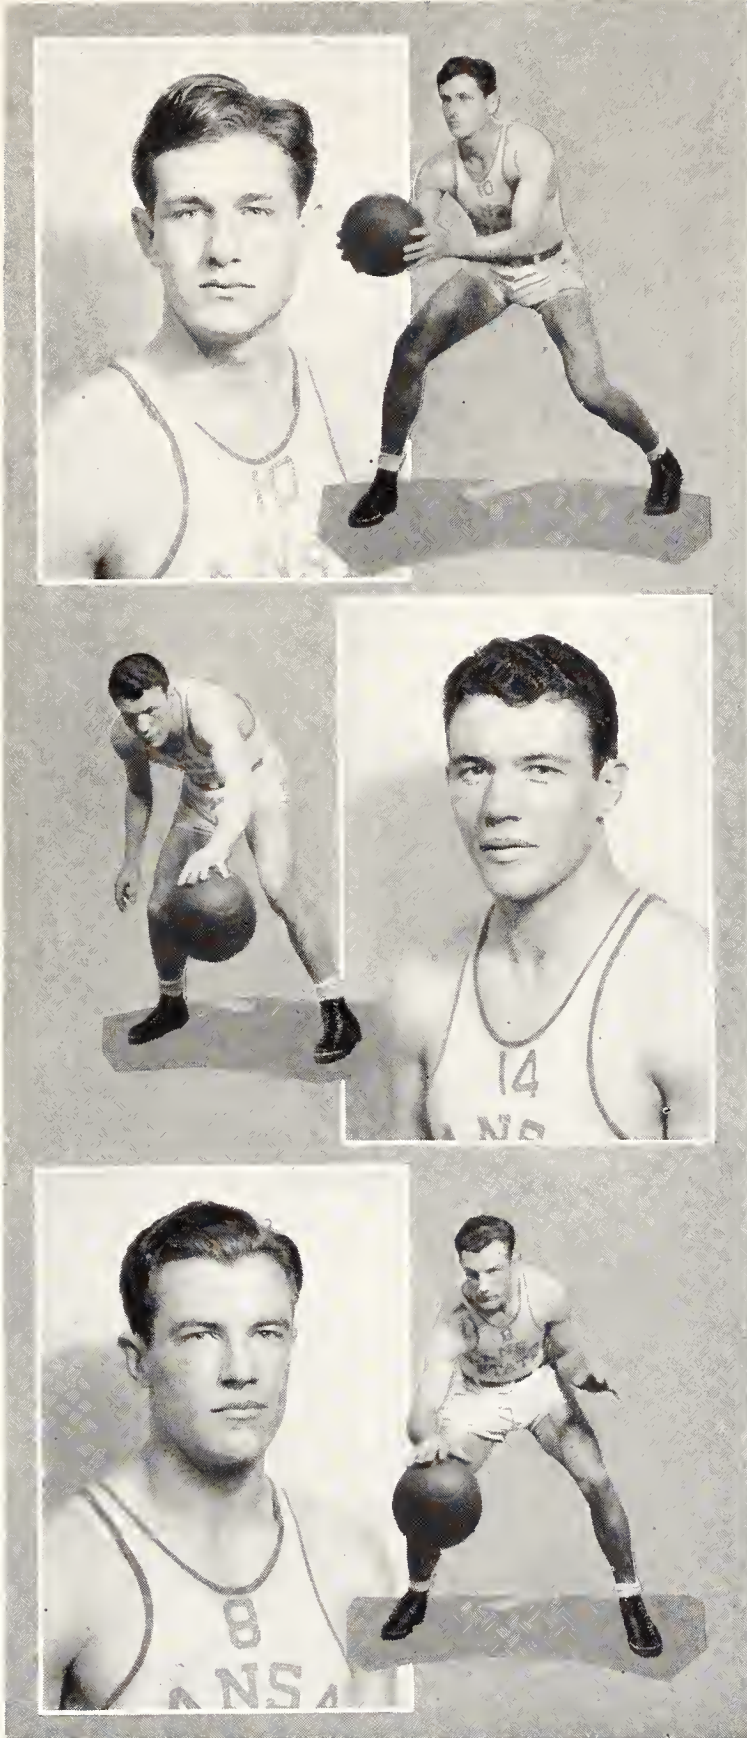

THE SEASON

KANSAS STATE got off to a great start in basketball by defeating Kansas University two straight games in the pre-season tilts. Boyd was the high scorer with nine field goals in the two games. The next game for Kansas State was with the Marysville teachers. The teachers came out on the long end of a 28 to 23 score, but the next game was a winner for the Kansas State men. This time the Corsaut men defeated Davis and Elkins College, 35 to 34. The next night made the victory more decisive, when the Wildcats defeated the same team 30 to 19 in a rather dull game.

Wichita University nosed out a close victory, 29 to 27 when the Purple cage men could not hit the hoop. Setup after setup saw the ball spin toward the basket to roll out with no score. At Oklahoma the university put the hooks into Kansas State, 28 to 16.

LETTERMEN

L. H. "Hank" Dalton, tall football man, did nice work for the Wildcat court men in center position. Dalton has finished his competition.

"Rammer" Ralph Graham is big and fast. He has to be big to make his sensational line plunges, and he has to be fast to get around the tennis court. Ralph is captain-elect in both football and tennis, and a formidable basketball man.

Emmett Breen is just one more all-round athlete from ElDorado. He lettered in football, captained the track team, and dazzled more than one court audience by his lightning movements when guarding an opposing star on the floor.

Then along came the first conference tilt with Kansas University in which the university lads made up for their two previous losses. Big Bill Johnson tossed in nine field goals to give the university a 36 to 24 win over Kansas State. Again with Oklahoma University the K-State men came out on the short end of the score, 36 to 39. This game was played at Manhattan.

Iowa State was the next victim of Kansas State, when it was defeated 33 to 23 by the Corsaut men. This was the first game in which the Wildcats really showed their scoring strength. Missouri fell next before the K-State offense, 35 to 28, and then Iowa State was defeated 28 to 27 at Ames. Nebraska yielded to Kansas State 36 to 30.

Saint Louis fell before the Purple 28 to 24 at Manhattan, and then the Wildcat luck changed again. Kansas University and Missouri both defeated the Manhattan cage men in the last games of the season, 33 to 25, and 37 to 33.

Everyone knows Bo McMillin, but few people know the Bo that had to stay in a hospital bed and send his team against Oklahoma without him. Something vital remained behind. The team was fighting hard, but over-anxious and self conscious without the guiding hand to direct it.

Bo McMillin was in the headlines of every paper when he played with the Center College team that beat Harvard. Again, when he was head coach at Geneva College, another McMillin team sent Harvard to defeat.

Coach McMillin believes football is a good game in itself, but he believes more seriously in his aim to educate young men to be sportsmen.

HAYLETT

Coach Ward Haylett will be remembered as the individual who brought Kansas State's track teams into real competition with the rest of the Big Six schools. In 1932 he sent his two-mile team to a Big Six championship at Lawrence.

"Ward" lettered in football, basketball, track, and baseball at Doane College in Crete, Nebraska, and captained the football team during his senior year. Later, he became head coach and director of athletics there, and received a degree long delayed by the world war, in 1926.

Haylett became head track coach at Kansas State in 1928. He is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon, and of Phi Delta Kappa, educational fraternity. Next year he will add the duties of assistant football coach to his work.

CORSAUT

(A discussion of Coach Corsaut will be found on page 84).

ROOT

Frank P. Root is an assistant football coach, instructor in physical education, and caretaker of athletic equipment. He has been named as basketball coach for the coming year.

WASHBURN

L. P. Washburn is best known for his work as director of intramural athletics, a phase of athletic work which is constantly expanding. Mr. Washburn is also an instructor in physical education, and is particularly interested in swimming.

MOLL

C. S. Moll is coach of tennis and of swimming at Kansas State. He is an instructor in physical education, as well.

PATTERSON

B. R. Patterson, coach of wrestling at Kansas State, has turned out a number of brilliant mat men.

MADDOX

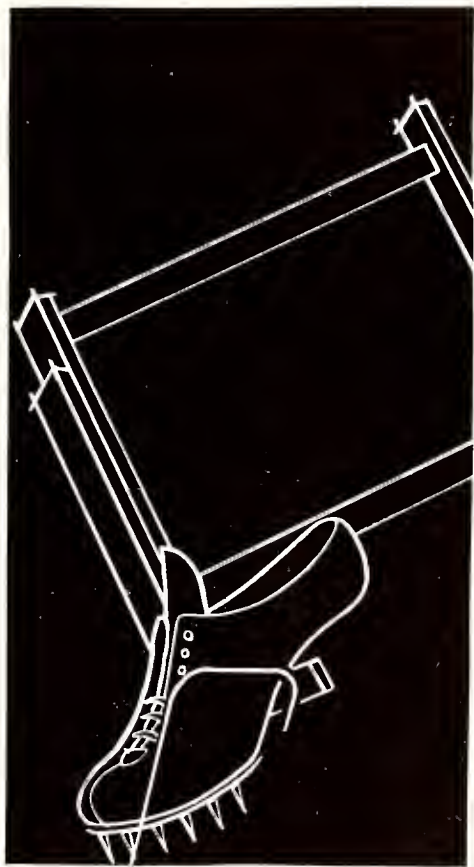

O. W. "Oss" Maddox has assisted Bo McMillin as head line coach. He was one of the men to feel the economy cut.

COCHRANE

O. L. "Chili" Cochrane, red headed grid star under Coach Bachman a few years ago, assists in football part of the year.

ANDERSON

"Swede" Anderson makes the first contact with many Kansas State football men, as freshman coach. He is the target for many of the athletic department's jokes.

Jet Jet

THE 1932 TRACK SEASON

Kansas State 94 --- State Teachers 37

IN THE opening track meet of the season, the Kansas State team put the Kansas State Teachers College Hornets in a rather dizzy state from looking at their heels during the entire afternoon. The Haylett men defeated the Hornets, 94 to 37. The K-State track men scored 11 firsts to four for the Hornets, and made grand slams in the discus, mile, and both hurdle events. Emmett Breen led the Wildcat attack with 15 points.

Breen won the high hurdles and the broad jump, placed second in the low hurdles, and tied for second in the high jump. He was the only man on either team to win two events.

Kansas Relays

Competing against 58 universities and colleges proved rather tough sledding at the Kansas Relays, but in spite of the strong competition, six Kansas State men placed. The Kansas State squad proved stronger in the hurdles than in any other event. The 480-yard shuttle relay team placed second (Breen, Hammel, Hinckley, and Schmutz). They were defeated only by the University of Iowa team.

Other members of the squad to place were Ehrlich in the high jump, and Jordan in the pole vault.

Drake Relays

Kansas State trackmen won places in four events in the finals at the annual Drake Relays at Des Moines. The Wildcat shuttle relay quartet placed third. The lank Milt Ehrlich leaped six feet, two and one-half inches in the air to tie with Newblock of Oklahoma for second place in the high jump.

TRACK SQUAD AND COACH

Darnell, Miller, Smith, and McNeal took fifth place in the medley relay, and the four-mile quartet of Smith, McNeal, Pearce, and Miller won a sixth place.

Indoor Track

During the indoor season, virtually the same men were in the play, with Hinckley winning the 60-yard low hurdles and Ehrlich and Jordan winning in the high jump and pole vault.

The two mile runners (Pearce and McNeal) won their share of honors in this event.

EMMETT BREEN
Captain 1933

TRACK CAPTAINS

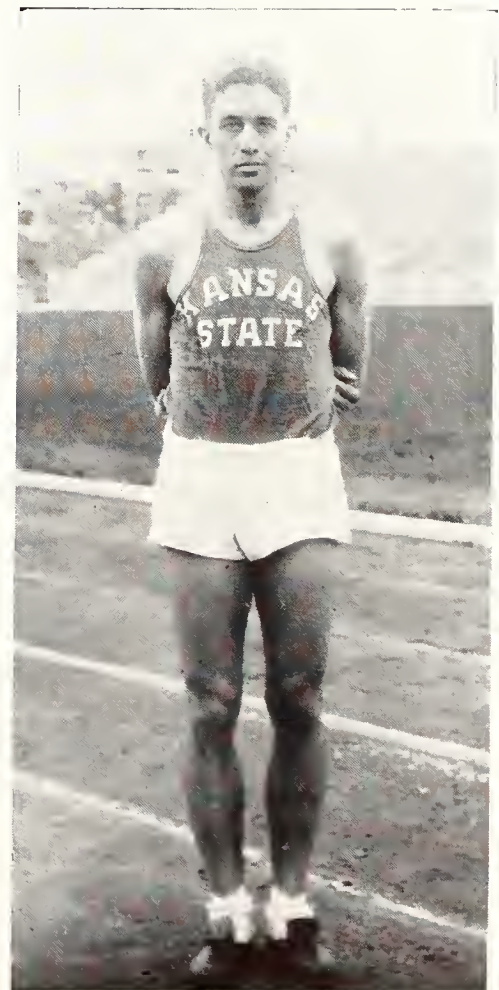

HINCKLEY

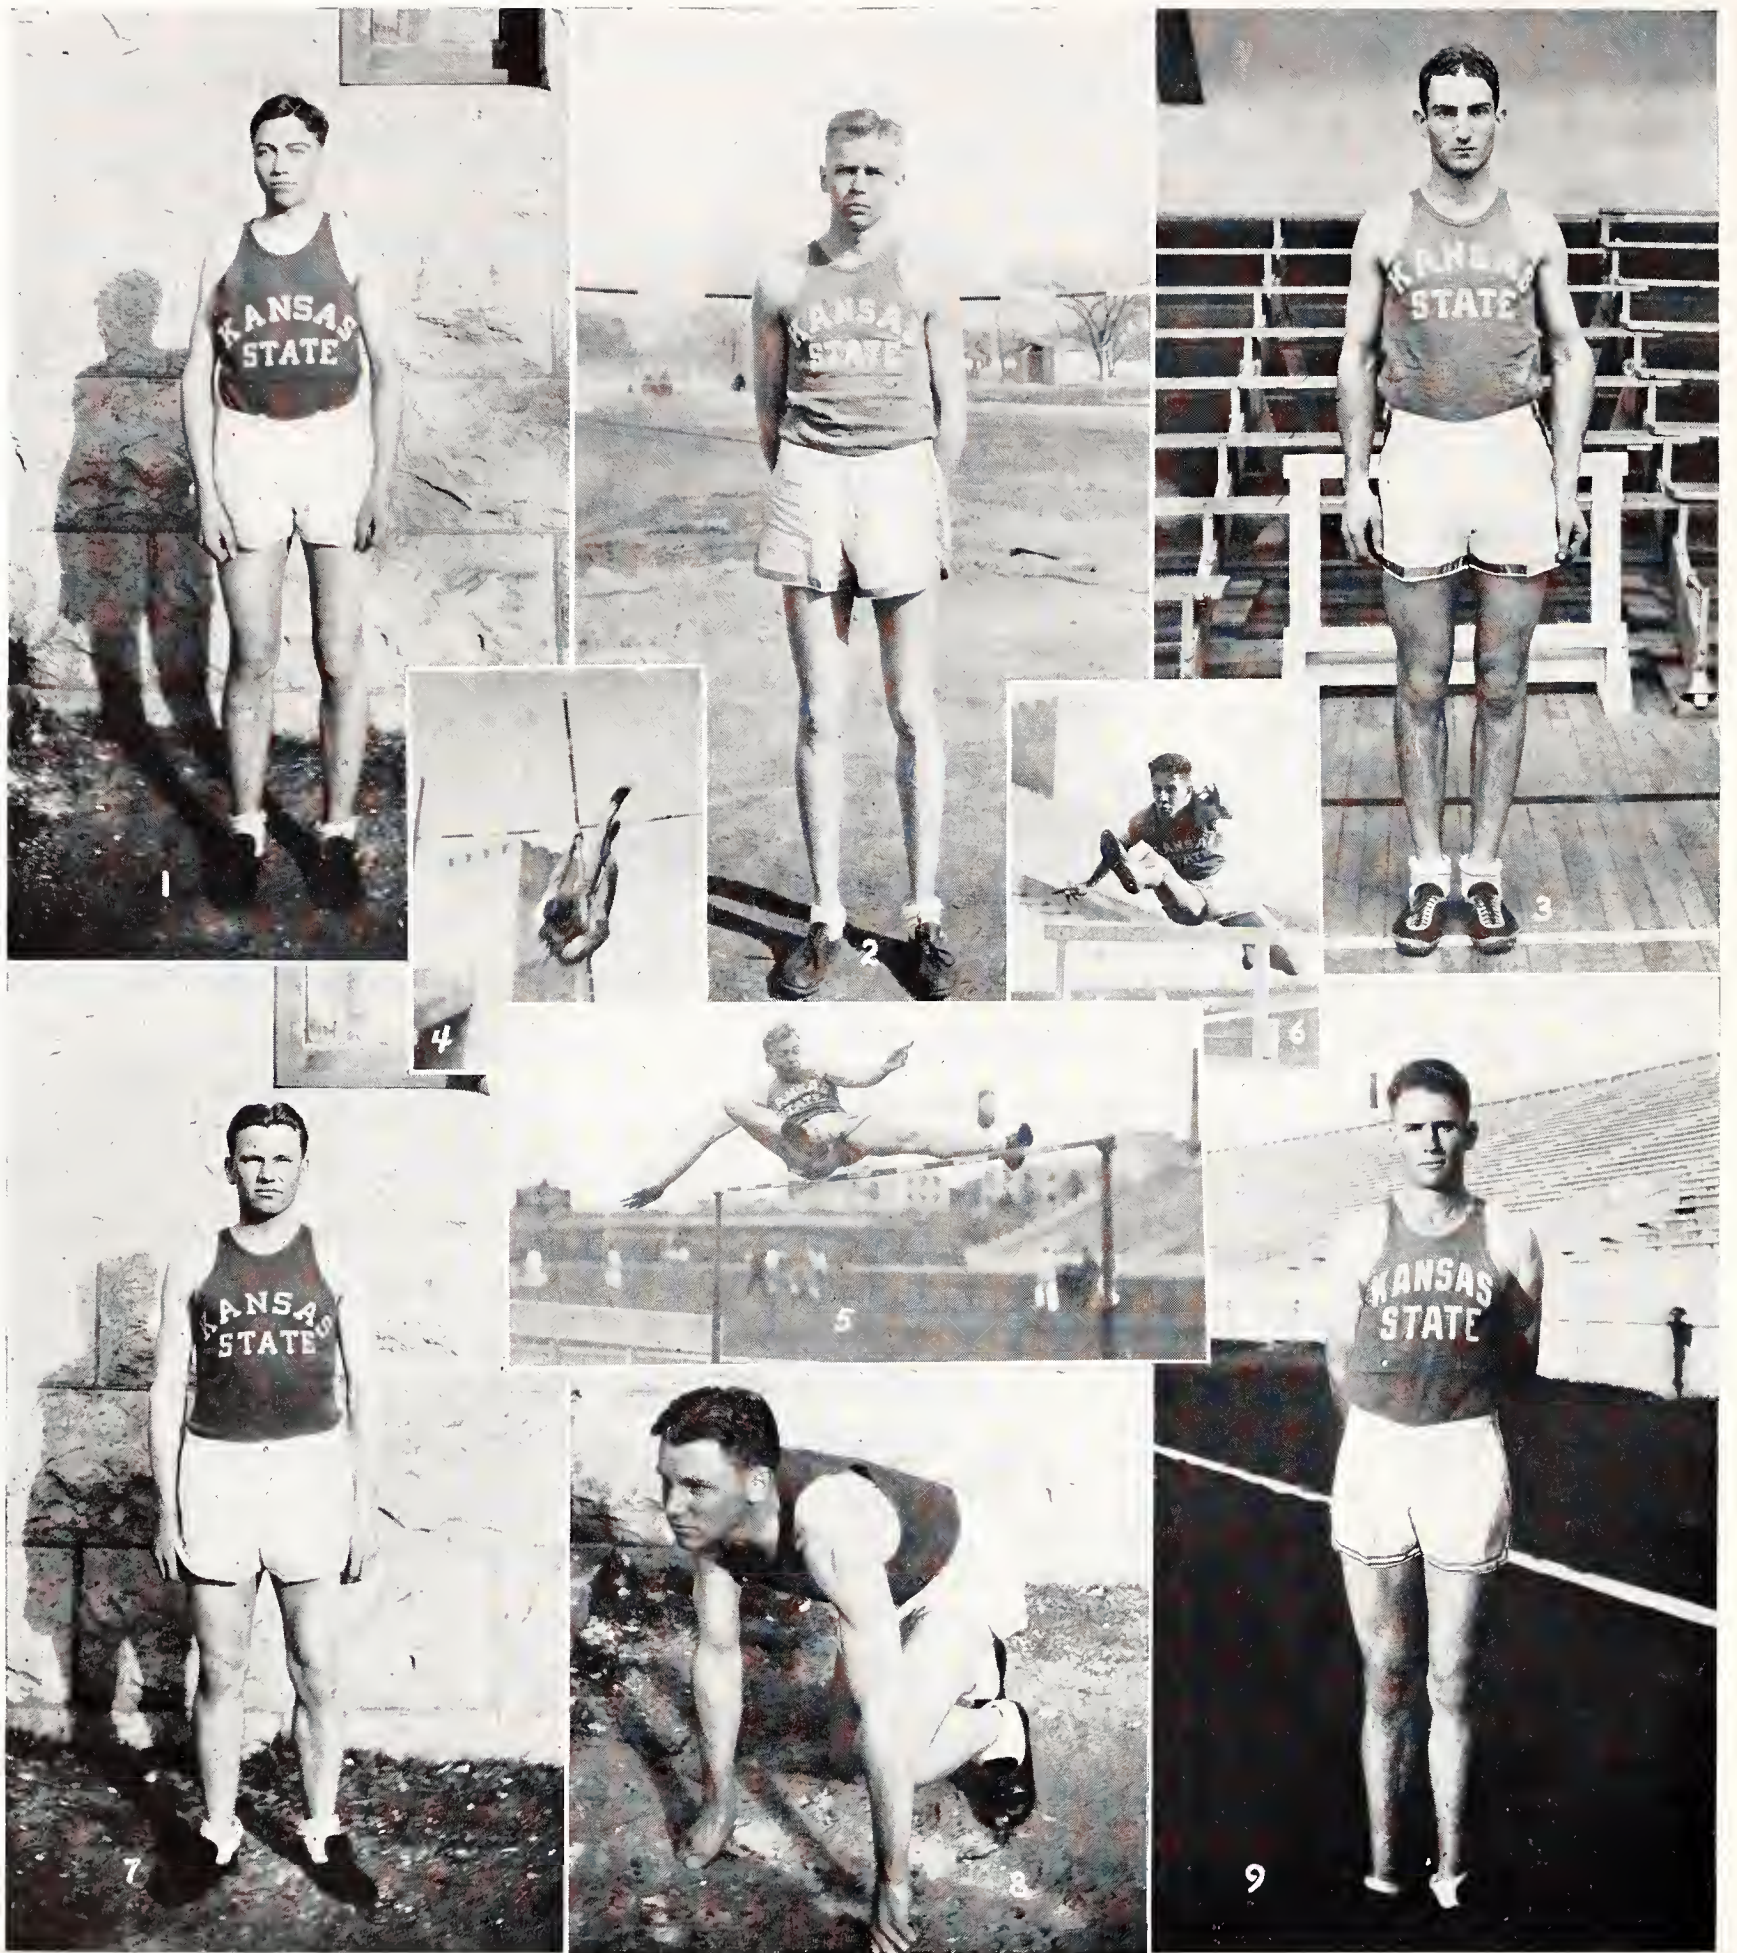

Harry Hinckley, hurdle title holder and dash man, led the 1932 Kansas State track team through a very convincing season. One of the best hurdlers in the Big Six conference for three years, he now holds the world and the Big Six indoor track records in the 60-yard high hurdles with a time of 7.6 seconds.

BREEN

Emmett Breen was chosen to lead the Kansas State track team during the 1933 season. Breen is a broad jumper and hurdler. Emmett is a star in football and basketball, as well as in track.

HARRY HINCKLEY
Captain 1932

The pictures above show a few of the men who figured in last year's track season. They by no means represent the team as a whole, but are shown merely to suggest the sport. No. 1 is Marion Pearce, distance runner. No. 2 is Milton Ehrlich. No. 3, Elmer Black, Captain of the two-mile team. No. 4, Kansas State pole vaulter in action. No. 5, Ehrlich clears the bar. No. 6 shows Harry Hinckley, captain last season, in good form for the high hurdles. No. 7 shows Laurence Daniels. In No. 8 Daniels is all set for a race. No. 9 is M. E. Nixon, another distance runner.

1932 BASEBALL SEASON

BASEBALL at Kansas State ranked well up in the conference this season. Although winning several championships in the past, Coach Corsaut's team of recruits placed third in the Big Six conference this season.

Kansas State started the season off in great style by defeating the College of Emporia, seven to one, in a game that made the Corsaut men look as though they were slated for another championship season.

Then Haskell slipped up and defeated the Corsaut men in a game which might be classed as the wildest of the season.

Kansas University downed the K-State men 12 to three and nine to three in a two game series. Kansas State, the next week, took Oklahoma University to a five to nothing beating in which Auker pitched almost perfect ball.

The next week end, Kansas State shared a two game series with Missouri, winning one game seven to six, and losing one 14 to five. Iowa State shared a two game series with the Wildcats, and then the College of Emporia nine again fell before the Corsaut men, 12 to one.

Kansas State downed Haskell nine to seven, and then turned the tables on Kansas University by defeating the Jayhawkers 12 to one and eight to four in a two game series which will never be forgotten at Manhattan. Auker pitched both games, and the second day was even better than the first.

BASEBALL CAPTAINS

PRENTUP

Frank Prentup led the K-State team through the 1932 season in great style, and his errorless ball at second base cannot be forgotten. He possessed a perpetual line of chatter which made him a wonderful leader for his team.

Prentup will be remembered for his fielding in the two final games of the season in which Auker beat Kansas University two days in a row.

CARTER

"Pee-wee" Carter is the man to lead the Kansas Staters through the 1933 season. Carter is the smallest man on the team, coming almost to the arm pit of any six-footer. He plays shortstop, and the expressive smile he always wears has gained him the admiration and confidence of his team mates.

LETTERMEN

Dan Blaine, catcher and fielder, is another of those red-headed players. He has more fight than any two other players, especially in words.

Paul "Pete" Fairbank, center field, is the crooner of the ball club. Fairbank's job was always to entertain the players, on and off the diamond.

Andy Skradski, catcher, last season, is a player that everyone should notice. He doesn't play well until he gets mad, but he must be mad most of the time.

An easy advance; Carter holds the base down; and the Wildcats score a run against Oklahoma.

LETTERMEN

Frank Prentup, captain and second base, always wears a "chattering face." Prentup and Blaine can take care of the chatter on any ball club.

M. L. Carter is a well known short stop. He plays good ball and has a nice way of getting along with his team mates. He is captain for 1933.

Robert Lang, pitcher, was held back somewhat by paralysis in his pitching arm, but he made a comeback that no coach can overlook.

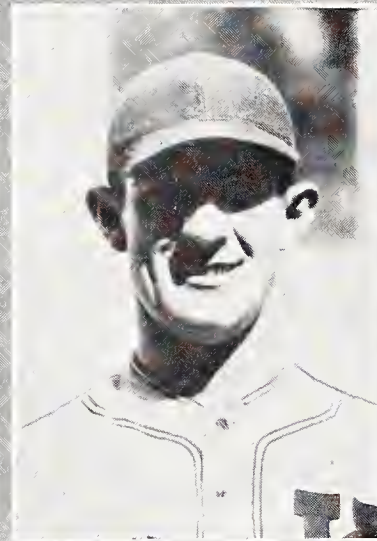

Fairbank is called out at third; Gentz goes to bat; and another K man steals third.

LETTERMEN

C. W. Gentz, third base, was a new find to Coach Corsaut. He plays good ball, and the coach is expecting a lot from him.

Elden Auker, pitcher, was one of the best. Before he was graduated from school he was offered a contract with the Detroit Tigers. He is now pitching in the Texas league.

Harry Hasler, fielder, is another man not to be overlooked. Hasler is one of those men who ranks well in any sport. Harry likes it and takes it.

Prentup on his way around the bases; and two Kansas State men passing third.

COACH Patterson's wrestling team took a short step backward this season from first place to second in the Big Six tourney held at Ames. Only Kansas State and Kansas University shared in the individual honors. The team scores were: Iowa State 48, Kansas State 18, Oklahoma University 15, Kansas University 8, Nebraska University 5, and Missouri University 4.

In the 118-pound class Griffith scored a time advantage over Gibson of Iowa State, to win in that class. Roberts, Kansas State, and Bozarth, Kansas State, were second in the 155 and the 175-pound classes.

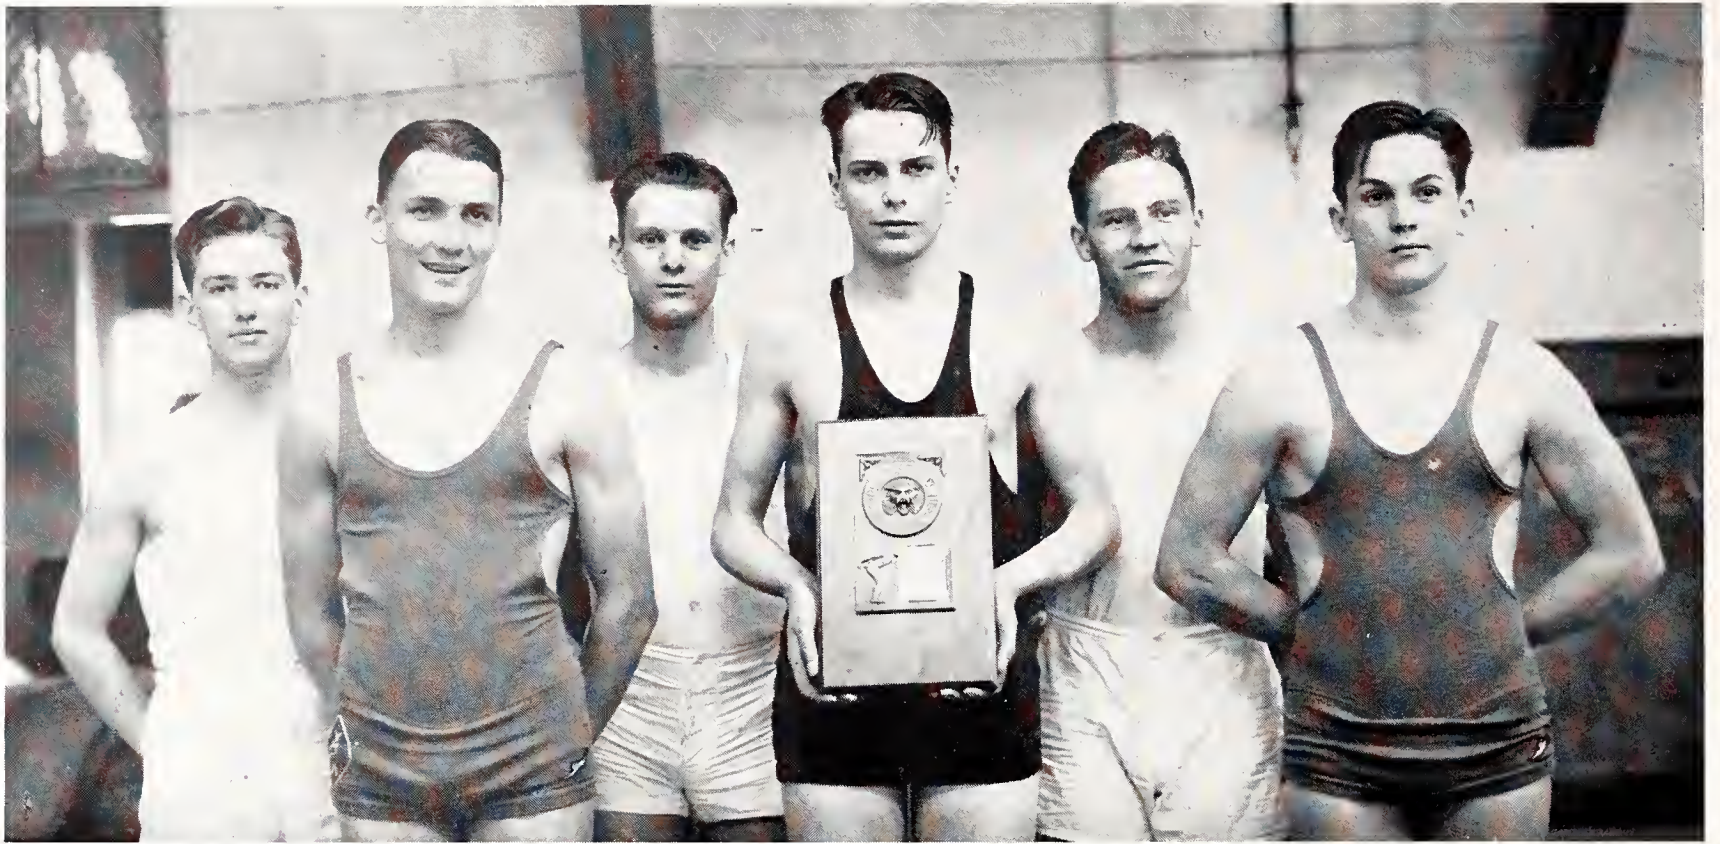

Captain Roberts placed third in his class at the National A. A. U. meet. In this tournament he defeated the National Inter-collegiate Champion.

Captain-elect Griffith also placed third in his weight in the National A. A. U. meet.

1. The two bull's eye Van Zile archery women of the intramurals, Martha Rodda and Juanita Shields. 2. Orchesis on a fling. 3. All ready to smack a home-run; but Eleanor Wright is doing her best to stop it. 4. Wilda McNally guarding first. 5. An "Auker" fling in women's intramurals. 6. The winning Phi Omega Pi posture group. 7. Graceful solo flight for this classical dancer.

1. These girls were picked as the most outstanding tenniquoit players in women's intramural and class tournaments. 2. These are the best non-major basketball players picked from all girls entering the combat. 3. The honorary varsity major basketball players of the women's tournaments. 4. "Batter up," . . . and the women's intramural baseball practice is on for a great season. 5. Here we have Oliphant supplying the action and Gordon all set to stop her on first.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ACTIVITIES

WOMEN'S extra-curricular athletics consist mainly of class and intramural tournaments. Organized and independent teams play for championship in each of the ten major sports sponsored. From these teams the best players of each class are chosen to play a class tournament. The varsity or honorary team is then chosen to represent the most efficient of the sport. Helen G. Saum, head of the department, Bernice Patterson, assistant professor, Lorraine Maytum, and Katherine Geyer, instructors, sponsor these sports with the assistance of physical education majors.

The winners of the intramural tournaments this year are: archery, Van Zile; horseback riding, X team; tenniquoit, Alpha Delta Phi; volleyball, X team; dancing, Pi Beta Phi; basketball, Delta Delta Delta; swimming, X team; and posture, Phi Omega Pi. Tennis and baseball have not been completed. In intramurals the five highest in competition for the cup at the time the annual went to press were respectively: Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Xi Delta, Beta Phi Alpha, Chi Omega and Clovia.

IN APPRECIATION

ANY publication depends on the cooperation of a large number of people, some of whom are intimate friends, and some of whom never see one another.

Some of the people are paid for their work, while the help of others means a personal sacrifice, and deserves especial thanks and recognition.

We wish, therefore, to give particular thanks to Mr. Kingsley Given of the department of public speaking for his repeated sacrifice of time and, we believe, money, to help us obtain pictures which we could not otherwise have afforded for this yearbook.

About half of the pictures in the view sections are from his negatives. Some of them bear credit lines. A large number of pictures in the feature sections were taken by him, as well.

We owe thanks, as well, to Mr. James Machir, who permitted us to use three of his negatives without charge for division pages in the yearbook, and to Mr. John Helm of the Department of Architecture who assisted Mr. Given in determining the correct composition for some pictures.

Mr. H. W. Davis of the department of English and Mr. E. T. Keith of the department of journalism and printing have given their time and advice to assist the staff.

Mr. Hugh Durham of the Division of Agriculture gave us particular cooperation in getting and preparing copy from his division.

The 1933 Royal Purple is particularly indebted to fraternities and sororities at Kansas State, all of which gave unexpected support both in editorial and in financial work.

We are indebted, as well, to the Burger-Baird engraving company and especially to Mr. C. J. Medlin of that company; to Arthur O. Browne, photographer, and his assistants; and to the Joseph D. Havens Printing Company.

Mr. Fred Seaton of the Seaton Publishing Company deserves thanks for his time and trouble in assisting us. And we owe thanks to Messrs. Blake and Ralph Wareham.

Mr. Jim Chapman, Editor of the 1932 Royal Purple, sacrificed considerable time and effort in giving us information and help.

A number of other students, faculty members, and employees of the companies mentioned above deserve thanks, and no doubt we have failed to mention others who have done some outstanding service for us.

To all of you we wish, then, to say a sincere thank you.

Steve Vesecky, Manager

Franklin Thackrey, Editor

Ethel Eberhart, Sec'y-Treas.

Wake Up!

Fredric March
Hollywood, California

April 20th,
1933.

Dear Mr. Vesecky:

I am today returning to you the photographs of your lovely ladies, marked as per your instructions, and ready for the 1933 Royal Purple Beauty Section. Along with the others you will find a picture of Professor March, in person, and I only hope that he does not mar the pages.

As far as the selection is concerned, I guess I practically stood upon my head to decide. Each girl may rest assured that at one time or another she was chosen, and even now, if I should take a final look, more changes would be made.

Very best wishes to all of you. May life hold something fine for every one of you, and may your fondest dreams come true, to make life even sweeter.

Sincerely,

Fredric March

FM:m.

*To The 1933 Royal Purple
Greetings and best wishes,
Fredric March*

THE 1933 ROYAL PURPLE

"IN CONCLUSION"

REALIZING that the last two Royal Purples lost money, and that we would have less to spend than they, this staff determined to balance its budget. In order to do this, several organizations, individuals, and activities which ordinarily fail to pay for their space were eliminated.

If we show favor to some groups, it is because they gave the financial support that made this yearbook possible.

There will be some mistakes in this, as in every book; some unintentional omissions; some things we would like changed.

There will be some things you don't like . . . for each yearbook is a compromise of many different tastes.

We have had to change our plans many times, but we have enjoyed our work, learned many things, and feel content to have the job completed. We sincerely hope you like it. If you don't, we invite you, in the best of humor, to try it yourself sometime.

MEN'S MEATS JUDGING TEAM

THE Meats Judging Team, coached by Prof. Lyman J. Bratzler, won the American Royal contest in Kansas City, bringing to K. S. C. for the second consecutive year the National Meat Board trophy. In the contest at the International Live Stock Exposition in Chicago the team placed fourth with eight competitors.

HOME ECONOMICS MEATS JUDGING TEAM

THE 1932 Women's Meats Judging Team was trained by Prof. Lyman J. Bratzler of the Department of Animal Husbandry. Their inter-collegiate contest failed to materialize for no fault of theirs. The purpose of these contests is: (1) To give the contestants practice in judging meats as a basis for choosing meats wisely. (2) To establish a criterion by which teams from this college can be compared with teams from other colleges.

THE Inter-Collegiate Crops Judging Team competed in two contests, at the American Royal, November 12, and the International Live Stock Exposition, November 26, 1932. There were five teams in the former and eight in the latter. The placings were close and the Kansas team made a creditable record.

DEPARTMENT OF MILITARY TRAINING

THE department of military science and tactics was established under the Morrill act, accepted by the state of Kansas in February, 1863.

Military instruction at Kansas State has made consistent and notable progress since the inauguration of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps in the leading educational institutions of our country.

The efforts and team work of the cadets, and those in immediate charge of their instruction, coupled with the hearty support of the head of the institution, finally placed Kansas State in 1927, in that selected class officially recognized and designated in orders by the War Department as "Distinguished." In addition to the training given in the technical and tactical handling of weapons of war, students are instructed in command, leadership, teamwork, respect for constituted authority, and citizenship. This department not only aims to prepare its students to take their proper places in a time of national military emergency, but endeavors also to assist them, in a measure, with information and guidance designated to be valuable in the more usual times of peace.

The regiment this year has maintained the high standard set by its predecessors and has reflected credit upon itself and the institution by its work.

1. The military ball was one of the colorful parties of the year. Cadet officers and honorary colonels stand at attention while station KSAC goes on the air. 2. Every one in step during inspection. 3. And the good soldier gets his medals, even in the R. O. T. C. 4. Another view of the same group. 5. All the boys who go to camp tell lots of stories about what happened after taps, or how they got sun-burned. 6. The "big boys" look the "army" over every spring and give it a rating. 7. The military band keeps time (though perhaps not tune).

Miss Adelaine Reid, Iola, senior in home economics, an honorary major. Miss Reid is a member of Chi Omega.

Miss Ethel Fairbanks, Manhattan, sophomore in commerce, an honorary major. Miss Fairbanks is a member of Alpha Delta Pi.

Miss Colleen Zacharias, Oak Mills, freshman in chemical engineering. Miss Zacharias was chosen as honorary colonel.

Miss Ruth DeBaun, Topeka, freshman in industrial journalism, an honorary major.

SCABBARD AND BLADE

Add Epitaph!

IS THIS THE FOREWORD?

AYE neighbor, and a dedication. In this section are mirrored some of the deeds, wholesome and unwholesome, and some of the extra-curricular activities of the institution's several hundred loyal souls and some of the more prominent heels. If your name appears herein, if you (and you and you) have become entangled in the skein of circumstances which has caused your name to be blasphemed or your face to embellish the following pages we hope that no ill feelings will arise. However, we are compassionate. If what is said causes your grandchildren's children's great grandchildren to change their names to Bildgewater or McCarthy, aye and verily, then will we indeed grieve deeply.

The section has been named "Razzberry" for a singular purpose. The spoken or oral berry (that is, "rasp" berry, meaning a "raspy" sound) is a sound of questionable euphony. It is, in short, a musical salutation made by a low type of person (usually a Kappa Sig), when the said person wishes to punctuate an oral blasphemy. It is made by pressing the tongue firmly between the lips, inflating the cheeks, and blowing a heavy blast. We are using this unique salutation to punctuate our oral blasphemies. Would you care to join us in a merry "rasp" berry, gentle customer? Are you ready? Ein, zwei, drei - - -

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

THE soulfilling cistern in the harvesting of their usual crop of offal...deserted the tonnage tradition...and into their musty scantuary came a few starving sophisticates (the three Janes) Hoseless Headache; Staring Stone; and Whiplish Whyte... with a "y" and the "y's" have it...and they can keep it.

Admittance is given, however, when hard pressed, these Key Koddlers do get around... and in their own car, too. Oh! well! it's resort to the ancient adage... "If you want a thing done well, do it yourself"... and no one so much enjoys a Kappa as does a Kappa... always together, even to the regular Saturday night line parties at the Varsity... and their consolation ceremony of April first... when the Phi Delts held their annual Drummer's Dribble.

Kappa has its problems... eighteen of them... untouchables... hang overs from a new house and a deluge of mass production; when a K. K. G. girl was a date instead of just an ordinary bust. Some famous... some infamous... Cut a Swath Black, the golfer, outstanding and outspoken... never yet outstood and never yet outspoken. Among the other nonentities who drift aimlessly about is Hairbrain Hill... spelled with an "h" instead of a "p" if only for politeness. They are the conscientious objectors of the campus... they object to Pi Kappa Chi; they object to Sig Alphas, they object to men... and well they might!!

After all it's better to be outclassed than outcast... and who wouldn't live and die for good old Gappa Gappa Kamma?

FARM HOUSE

A PAIR of choke-bore pants and a kaleidoscopic vest and a general knowledge of how to swill pigs will get you a bid to Farm House, and try to get rid of it. The organization was conceived by a group who wanted all the comforts of a home without having to give up the idea of being a fraternity man. They wanted outdoor plumbing, companions with which they could talk about the hot winds and why the hogs wouldn't feed, a college education, and possibly space where they could keep a cow. The Kansas State campus, being fertile ground for such an organization, found itself with this unique fraternity. The boys reside in a simple home and manage to get through four years of college without raising too much Ned. No bags of debauchery under their eyes. Tsk! Tsk! No!

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

LAMBDA CHI, thy name is Ward Colwell! This organization is in for a well deserved rest. The late Ward Colwell stripped the chapter of most of its prestige and years, my friends, and years will not wipe out the blight he emplanting in the once fertile soil of Lambda Chi. The rest of the boys have had to stand back out of the way for the last four years while the colorful Colwell (coloring meaning the blue bags under his eyes) got into high gear in campus politics. Like the three wise men who went to sea in a boat, if Ward Colwell had stayed longer the smell would have been stronger.

BETA THETA PI

ABOUT the time the Riley county youngsters start losing their milk teeth, they can start looking forward to bids to Beta affairs. Thanks to Kappa Sigma, only a few of these innocents are sucked off their feet during rush week. Beta Theta Pi has been in the public eye enough to make it sore, thanks to the national chapter which is strong. The local is dominated by the Seaton family and periodically reformed by Ned "Hell-just-call-me-Neddie" Kimball. Requirements for admittance into Beta Theta Pi are (1) thick glasses, (2) an ancient 8-cylinder dray, (3) a monthly bale of frogskins, and (4) an I-smell-tripe expression to be worn on state occasions.

Nobody would want to meet Charley Team in a dark alley but he is one of the few prominent Betas. Others are Billy Guerrant who broods over his baldness, Pete Fairbank who stands six feet three when his corns are bad, and Dick Seaton who should not be mentioned. We almost forgot the most powerful man on the Campus, "Tiny" Pearman; but then there are so many things that are powerful—you take halitosis, or dipsomania, but why go on?

The local worries National Headquarters something fierce, but if we were the National President we wouldn't investigate too closely, because a fallen Beta is a broken woman and a ghastly sight, and most of the local tong have reached bottom.

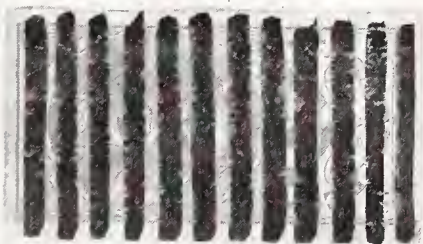

BETA PHI ALPHA

CAME a slack in the Greek's occupation, disinterest among the organized, and the founding of Beta Phi Alpha—a social sorority for the betterment of those who were unable to do better, and couldn't do worse if they wanted to.

Founded for the protection of our feathered friends—and the use of Drano in the home . . . these husky nemisises plough in a slough of despondency and defeat. Each rush week two forlorn leftovers are taken in . . . and one initiated just to perpetuate the tribald race and bring glory to the hearthside. They all go to a party a year . . . their own.

To Whom it may Concern:

I hereby and forthwith swear by the Ten Holy Toe Bones and my faith in Chi Omega that if I am elected Sweetheart of Kansas State for the year of our Lord 1933 I hereby and forthwith declare, announce, and promise to buy beer, pretzels, cheese, crackers, alcoholic beverages and sundries and any other thing or things which might be reasonably requested by Franklin (Jessie Dean) Thackrey, Stephen (himself) Vesecky, Clay (the same) Reppert, and associates.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

WE BELCH ceremoniously as we bring up the name of Alpha Tau Omega. To us it suggests the typical fraternity. That is, the typical fraternity of 1910. It suggests bulldog pipes, bull-necked sweaters, and bull about the greatness of the fraternity. It suggests copper-toed boots and badly tuned banjos, hay wagons and horsey smells. And why, you might ask if you are polite, does Alpha Tau Omega bring thoughts of 1910? Probably because they have motorman's hair cuts and wear tight fitting pants and are rough boys with bulging muscles. If you thought there was any deep hidden meaning to all that introduction you are screwy. Bob Spiker, one of the lesser A. T. O.'s, quit this institution at the end of the first semester and has made his mark, however small, in the town from which he hales, namely Emporia. At Emporia Teacher's College he rated special recognition from the dean of All Women. Says the Dean to our Bob, "You are barred from all dances for the spring of '33 due to INDECENT DANCING with your partner whose name we will not mention here." Nosser, the old school couldn't hold down a stout fellow like our Bob.

ALPHA RHO CHI

ON SEVERAL campi this fraternity, yet in the larva stage, has thriven. Yet it has neither the age old dignity and position of Beta nor the hardness of Kappa Sigma which, verily, grows like dog-fennel. But Alpha Rho Chi has stepped in where even Kappa Sigma feared to tread. It took a snake into its bosom. That viper was none other than Ossmann. Ossmann, stench in the public's nostrils, skunk de luxe, and rat extraordinary. Ossmann the string-halted drum major. Carl Ossmann (tripe I believe doesn't smell worse) is a bit of Concordia debris. In Concordia surely he lived under an assumed name, for we are unwilling to believe that this pious little mid-western metropolis knew that it harbored a viper in its middy. Alpha Rho Chi, we pledge on our honor that we will not expose you in your innocence, but even to our last day we will be giving long and sonorous "birdies" to the memory of your one mistake, to the memory of the bandy-legged drum major, the Cloud county screw-ball, Carl Ossmann.

PHI LAMBDA THETA

IT'S awfully hard getting acquainted with boys in the rest of the houses when you live way off there, so everybody that has a muscle goes down to the track. The boys point with pride to Holm, who, they insist, has known lots and lots of people, but Holm doesn't look like a Phi Lambda Theta and he'd never tell. The purpose is therefore defeated.

The poor bewildered boys never quite understand why there aren't more people in the house. Each year they struggle for what is laughingly called their class, and somehow manage to gather enough to pay house bills. The pledges look around and either become confirmed independents or decide that college wouldn't be worth the agony they'd have to undergo.

The Editor and Business Manager dedicate this space to members of T. N. E. (Taka Nother Emetic) who so intimidated Eggs Sorrells, otherwise fearless columnist and razzler of Carl Ossmann, that Eggs had us remove a d-n good crack about the old order which believes in bigger capacities and in pledging big shots on the hill for protection purpose only.

We guarantee that Mr. Sorrells is in no way responsible for this free advertisement, and give unto you a well sounded RAZZBERRY. Brrrr----.

PHI DELTA THETA

IN THEIR childlike attempts to be the smooth boys of the campus, the Phi Deltas are beginning to look like Pilippino house boys on their night off, with a Taxi-Dance-Hall-Manner, and a trick method of acting as though they were OPEN-FOR-INSPECTION.

There aren't no flies on these boys! Rush week finds the Phi Deltas with half the small town boys in Kansas well in hand. When rush week is over, small town newspapers run the yearly head: "Local Boy Makes Good in a Big Way", and a new pledge is announced. Some of the better known Phi Deltas are Tub Smith, 200-pound meatball from down Stockton way, Beer-eyed Wyatt, Dave Horchem, a blue-blood and a gentleman (yer welcome Dave!), Sunny Luder, to whom the Phi Deltas point with questionable pride, Vic Croskey, and Rex Rankin, who last rushing season was about to go Sigma Nu by choice, so one of the boys wired the hope's family . . . asking for help in rushing. The poor, well-meaning family sent a pleading delegation to their son, who subsequently went Phi Delt. Now the Sigma Nu's laugh. It cost 49 cents to send the telegram. Ah, ha, ha.

Mr. Carl Sartorius, and so on, Brother WHO RATES, is the model for all the uncouth Phi Deltas when they practice trying to be smooth before a mirror every night, but just the same even if he were a Clark Gable he couldn't save the brethren from a wholesale lowering of their social standing when they started to go out with Chi Omegas. He will graduate before any one of them marries a Chi O and so he will not be forced to murder at the very beginning of his career, the lucky fellow.

The house is full of rats and several of the boys have been wounded during a firing spree when it was hard to distinguish between a bro. and a rat; in fact the resemblance has startled some of their best visitors, and so they are bidding the male rats and tactfully suggesting all the other sex go Chi O, except two to Kappa, two to Pi Phi, and one to Alpha Xi.

Now let's get back to where we were. One of the worst known Phi Deltas is "Ironman" Grover. Ironman is the kind of boy who likes to go around bulging his muscles at people. He likes Chi Omegas, bottles of Pale, and his own darling wavy hair. People are suspicious of Ironman. He is the "one" in the phrase, "there is one in every fraternity." Kappa Sigma would have liked to have had that boy!

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

THE average Phi Sig lets his hair grow, walks with a swinging ape-like motion, and lives on herbs and berries. What's more, he smells like a gymnasium. The few gay dogs of the chapter are from the city and represent the fraternity socially on the hill. Mark Kannal, whose cerebral hemispheres are off center, is the chapter pride. He is a guitarist and hence has a natural advantage over the opposite gender. Chi Omega accepts him along with Vesecky, as a sister and some share their innermost secrets with them. They bitterly rue this long afterward, however.

The Phi Sig beer syndicate thrived throughout the year and went un-odored due to the ingenuity of a practical-minded brother by the name of Cavin who diverted the beer fumes up a pipe into the kitchen chimney where the smells mixed.

Brothers visiting in the East are surprised to find that a Phi Sig is looked upon as almost a white man, is allowed most ordinary privileges and isn't sneered at on the street. His inferiority with respect to most fraternities is not so apparent out there, and he can enjoy himself after he gets over the first surprise.

One thing does give a sigh of relief. It was pretty hard to put a bunch of athletes through school on hashing jobs so they sold Auker down the river to Detroit or something and now they point with pride instead of viewing with alarm. This year they tried a stampede on publications and lost yards on every try. Sometimes they call it Play Sleep and Knit, then sheepishly try to laugh it off, but . . . oh, well.

What Will the Future Bring?

EVERY young man or woman of today wonders what tomorrow will mean for him or her. Whether you measure your success in dollars and cents, or in contentment and respect of those in the community in which you live, there is just one answer . . . and that answer is THRIFT.

TO practice this golden virtue is the only assurance that you will reap the reward to which your education entitles you.

IN appreciation of the wonderful work that the Kansas State College and her students are doing for our State, the Associated Banks of Manhattan take pleasure in extending this message on "Better Citizenship" to you through the 1933 ROYAL PURPLE.

ALPHA DELTA PI

THE Paulson Plutocrats . . . just good, clean, healthy, normal girls . . . with nothing to do but their fingernails. The Beta Brutes give them neighborhood hysteria . . . but the brothers haven't enough money to get married anymore . . . so the "women" just go out and hell around the gymnasium and the Rexall.

Girls for any occasion . . . but as long as the hill must be cluttered with lean, lanky, slack, and swanky femininity . . . it's probably just providence to put them all in one house and get it over with. These graduate Girl Reserves find life one haunting horrible hazard . . . what with their hikes, applebobs, and bean bags . . . just a deluge of delightful debauchery, and terribly disintegrating.

Among the few prominent are: Ellen Warren's hips, Paulson's four wheel personality, and Bountiful Bunny, the Colorado Tongue Twister . . . who took a staunch stand for social prominence when she bent the bough for Sugar Plumb Scales . . . but lack a day . . . there was western objection and Concordia competition . . . so back she went into self styled oblivion.

Each sultry season a multitude of frantic freshmen . . . unable to enter the residences of the more reputable Greeks . . . become ladies of the lodge . . . Gawd bless 'em . . . how they do relieve the crowded dormitory situation. And 'twas their gala day when amid the firing of cannons, the tolling of bells, and the blasts of bugles . . . amongst the other fledglings and into the fold . . . came the Hill City Special . . . Peggy Parker, her soul, her paltry purse, and the A. D. Pi financial stability.

ACACIA FRATERNITY

POLISH up your uncle's lodge button and drop around to see these boys. The Acacias are a bunch of Elmers who have never been able to forget the Ku Klux Klan. Once a year the name Acacia is linked with Phi Kappa and the two extremes blow themselves to a rub at the Wareham. At this party Jacques de Molay and the Pope of Rome sit in each other's laps and forget century-old prejudices, which is the best thing we can say for Acacia.

SIGMA NU

THE name sounds familiar, but strange to say, this organization did not receive social recognition until the exit of one "Peanuts" Pratt whose goaty smell smarted the nostrils of many who would have recognized Sigma Nu as having the essentials which constitute a fraternity. With, as has been said, the riddance of "Peanuts" (some called him "smelly") Pratt came social prominence and Bob Wallerstedt who is the chapter flower. Flaxen haired Wallerstedt, Aggieville sweetheart and Wareham joy-boy, has done much to atone for the Pratt blight (some of this is being made up) and now the local chapter is well on the road to social recovery. The local chapter basks in the reflected glory of the national organization which is good.

The pin is a daring thing of a bronze boa constrictor doing a sword-swallowing act with five overgrown razor blades. You can see the poor snake is licked at the start and hasn't his heart in his work. A self-respecting snake wouldn't be forced into such an embarrassing position.

They indulge in a Wild West brawl every year just to try to fool themselves and everyone else that they still have some virility left. No one is fooled about that even though drunk at the brawl. All in all, Sigma Nus are not a big moment in anybody's life but their own. They are just Sigma Nus.

PHI KAPPA

LIKE Acacia, this organization was founded to separate the sheep from the goats. The Phi Kappas believe in fillet of haddock on Friday, dried herring and beer on Saturday, and a mass for their dead uncle Harry on Sunday. The fraternity was founded by a group who did not want to contaminate their religion by the odious proximity of certain stinkers known as "protestants." Jim Richards and Joseph Patrick Murphy are the two best known Phi Kappas. Murphy expects to take the veil if anything gets back to Schenectady about his extra-curricular life, and Jim blushes and blesses himself every time somebody calls him Clark Gable. The rest of the Phi Kappas get in this editor's hair.

HERO
No. 1

This Big Burly Bozo, you've seen before.
This hulk of a brute, with muscles galore,
It's none other than Maxwell, our cocky boy wonder.
The only time known when the Lord made blunder.

History informs us of some queer combinations
Developed by time and a few generations.
They've sought the World over for the missing connection and tried to prove by biological Bisection.
That men came from monkeys, which we admit,
for from Ottawa, Man's, comes sure proof of it.

MEN

'Twas in the Summer of '32,
When Squaw man Robinson tried to woo,
An Indian gal named "No Can do"
Her father swore, if he caught this gent,
He'd nail Sid's scalp to the family Tent.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

BECAUSE the following, without whose constant aid this book would have been published with half the trouble, are ever with us, we are happy, oh, so happy, to dedicate this space to:

The zilch that wanted to wait until May for his picture to be taken because he was waiting for that Spring tan.

The zulch (coined word gents) house manager that sent an unreadable, incomplete and inaccurate list of bros. in and wondered why the hell
the proof of their page was wrong.

The unshaven stiff who wondered why there were shadows in his picture.

The copy writer that thought "we were just kidding" and held out until he wrote his lousy stuff one night. Then he said the stuff was lousy.
It was.

The business staff tryouttee who wondered why the Royal Purple wasn't out two weeks ahead of time so he could whip his issue into shape. Well, here it is.

To the bright person who finds the first mistake when the book appears.

To the bright person who finds the second.

DELTA DELTA DELTA

FROM theory to fact it's agreed . . . if worse goes to worst . . .
Tri Delta. Those self appointed keepers of the morals . . .
take an intense interest in psychopathic cases and have a passionate desire for social distinction. For identification purposes . . . they hide in that "more holier than thou" shell and clothe themselves in that "Oh Gawd what pain" expression.
They give afternoon tea dances . . . where the stag line is sobriectiously sedate and their phis-ed majors pose as fragile . . .
disgustingly healthy!!!

What the world needs are more good five-cent Tri Delts like the dramatic Pryor . . . with her flare for "ohs" and "ahs"
. . . who went in for Betas and peroxide; but they just wouldn't mix . . . the boy's early home training interfered . . . and made sorta saturated solution.

All cool and collected (wonder where some of them were collected) except that bubbling effervescent . . . Patrica Irwin
. . . who spends Sunday afternoons in the Rexall telling spicy little stories . . . naughty, naughty, but that gurgling girlish giggle . . . utterly fetching.

Achievement . . . oops, my dear! overwhelming Aggie Pop with their voluminous veils, choirish wails, hoopish haloes, and hallowed harps; initiation one hundred per cent strong . . .
and when Delta Delta Delta goes strengthly 100% . . . well it's just ducks today and feathers tomorrow, and you can't get around it, or them either.

And they have lots of things . . . they go motoring, they have two motors, they have Mary Meyers Elliott, they have a scrap book, they have Eleanor Otto (she sings and she dances), and they have a new house, and Spud Morgan.

Yes, that's all there is to it . . . if at first you don't succeed
. . . just Tri Delta.

THE PASSING SHOW

(or, reflections from a crockery eye)

HIGH Ho Te Dum! We're here tomorrow and gone today. Another year has swooshed by and many memorable things have come to pass. Some of those things have come to a hell of a pass. Some of us have grown another chin. Some of us have had our alcoholic content lessened by the Faculty Council. Some of us will go floundering into the world with a $12.00 sheepskin (Mark Kannal might say, "It's a cheapskin at any price!"), and others of us will merely go floundering into the world. Some of us have curvature of the spine from the constant packing of a slide rule, and others open books that squeak like new gates and gaze dully at familiar but unconquerable problems.

Enough of the front porch philosophy. We hope that the next school year sees the Hot Stove League swing into the social whirl pool with an open throttle. The H. S. L. (Bell and Lutz) is known for its every morning discussions of what is new in the social malestorm. It is composed of the Aggie-village graybeards, Carl Isaacson, Bell and Lutz, Harry Miller, basketballers, footballers, baseballers, laundry wagon drivers, pants pressers, and poor dressers. Who was drunk and what was drunk are popular topics after parties. Walter Bell, before his marriage, was famous for his renditions of Horatio. Swede Lutz, famous bouncing ball, is known and loved like a brother by all Aggieville hangers-out. His home-spun gymnastics on the ballroom floor will be remembered long after the nimbleness has been sapped from his bones.

Rummaging through some important looking papers here on the desk the name of Bob Spiker bobs up and we will always wonder why. He is, or was, the first of the would be directors of Layton's band to be called down in print. We admire Bob for accepting the hint when he could have done otherwise, and the columnist is even a bit sorry that Bob had to be used as an example. After that bit of publicity the dim-bulbs of every fraternity on the hill tried for the same publicity. Be an ass at any price was their motto. Pi Kappa Alpha was the worst offender. Ivan Maxwell and a hitherto quiet, lovable boy from K. C., Ken Harris, did very little for their fraternity by their unforgivable, unforgettable, demonstrations at the Wareham.

As the first semester drew to a close fate reared its ugly head and sentenced "Scrooge" Martin, Sig Alf and trophy of some long-gone successful rush week, to Texas to vend bananas. Scrooge had been around for so long that the citizens were beginning to point him out to visitors as an old landmark and many of the oldsters hated to see him go. Alumni ceased bouncing Junior on their knees and exclaimed, "What, Scrooge Martin graduated? No? Then he'll be back." We hope so.

Among other famous Sig Alfs to quit the institution was Arch Miller who had trouble keeping his cars out of electric fans and folding doors. There was a Sig Alf for you! He had all the characteristics. A heavenly smell and spool ears. Since we are remembering the old boys here, boys who made parties successes or flops, we might as well mention the Sigma Nu's "Brick" Garrison, Ward Colwell, Onaga's favorite son, and Tommies Kimball and Johnson, cream of the Beta crop, Joe Menzie and Phi Sig's Auker. All we have left now is Roscoe Pitts, and we will always wonder why the Betas broke his pledge.

PI BETA PHI

1-2-3-4-5-6-7---all the Pi Phis will go to heaven; even the holy few who piously turned thumbs down on a certain female situation . . . and shut forever in her face the doors of their incubator of purile snobbery.

Ack! but sufficient unto themselves . . . they bask in the dulcet tones of Morsel Merritt; and our utterly Modern Murdock, who with the greatest of expression can say "nerts" almost spontaneously . . . and lick pink ice cream cones just like a lady of culture should. Just a sweet quaint bunch . . . who call their coating of shellac, personality . . . and that look of continuous surprise . . . sophistication.

Rarely seen in the day time . . . like our little feathered friend, the owl . . . at night, ah, goodness me!!! there's that tire escape, those cellar windows, and that well trodden path in the rear of the vicarage. Serenaders have long ago given up their lofty endeavors . . . for there is no one to render appreciative applause except the house mother . . . the members have just gone out for a night of ribald revelry.

While others of more natural charm enjoy themselves with careless abandon, these . . . Arty Arrowers . . . practice the virtues of prospective candidates for the rites of marriage and the duties of motherhood. But they really are nice girls . . . the gentlemen always say "May I" and they will all go to heaven . . . unless the Cowdery sisters desert their petticoats for passions.

KAPPA SIGMA

THIS fraternity (Baird's Manual will prove it) has done more to promote a feeling of good will among the collegiate masses than any other Greek organization in existence. Their sterling motto (and many a bosom will bloat with pride as this is read) is "The sun never sets on a Kappa Sig." The chapter song is "We'll Raise Another Glass to the Biggest" and has something to do with the Betas. The pledges, from the start, mind you, are instructed to seek their rendition on the parlor harpsicord. Among the notable Kappa Sigs are the Hancks boys from Wamego. They startled the conservative element of the school by wearing bull-necked sweaters to formal parties. Two months afterward every fraternity man this side of Fourth Street had a duplicate of the Hancks boys' garment. But that still doesn't prove anything about Kappa Sigs. The boys lost their rushing privileges this year by concealing some Phi Sig and Sig Alf prospects in their basement, so they immediately put in a bin full of Johnathans and waited for the trouble to blow over. This saved half the male populace of Centralia from Kappa Sigmaism.

ALPHA KAPPA LAMBDA

ALPHA KAPPA LAMBDA has had some good boys in its day, but don't press us for their names. These boys are proud of their frat and will step up and press your hand and say "I'm an A. K. L." with as much enthusiasm and gusto as any proud unshaven Beta. They realize that they haven't got much of a fraternity but are damned proud that they are not Pi K. A.'s. Most of the boys are either in or are trying out for the college band. They go in strong for intramurals and Alpha Xi Deltas. Alpha Kappa Lambda, we salute you with a well intended and resounding razzberry. Brrrrrrrrrrttt!

ZETA TAU ALPHA

ZETA TAU, like all boarding clubs, has the problem of whether eighteen unkissable untouchables are equal to three nuggets. You can take your choice, but the poor girls must have someone to pay the bills.

The sisters all say that they are sure irritated at the idea that they are thought to be stuck up, not too subtly conveying the impression that they ARE stuck up, which is a lie. They are worried, and who wouldn't be? With the present aggregation it looks like race suicide will be a very real thing in that sorority chapter. Since Muriel Fulton sold Bob Alexander what he thinks is the real article, there has been a change of opinion on the hill. Even a Zeta Tau is capable of being loved.

Their usual rush talk is that we take small classes of "Zeta Tau" caliber. This policy will probably mean the withdrawal of their charter in 1934.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

THINGS didn't look so good for the Sig Eps this year. There being not much to do the boys began digging up the lawn. After almost one semester the brothers had reached the ten yard mark, which isn't bad for a bunch of lugheads.

The boys have a hell of a time keeping up their reputation of being a bunch of athletes. But you have to give them credit for trying. All of the youths when they come in the house are taught how to swagger like a Pi Phi (or should we say stagger like the Kappas do on Saturday night.) and are urged to cultivate hair on their chest and face like an A. G. R. Then they are taken out on the lawn and shown the technique of yelling pitchemintere boy, pitchemintere boy, at the pitcher. The final result is that every Sig Ep that is turned out of the mill becomes the Eldorado High School boy's ideal of a college man. Any day now we expect to drive by the Sig Ep house and see all the cars painted with collegiate remarks. Phoo.

Most of their athletes were rather dumb last semester and some decided to rest up away from the campus for a time, but all the house hopes is that the Hill will not find out that the non athletes (DuMars, Daniels, and yes we can even take in Harter) are even dumber than the burly lads.

The Sig Ep motto is as follows: Du Mars was a big shot' and DuMars is a Sig Ep, therefore all the brothers are big shots.

Things still don't look so good for this gang for the next few years. They haven't a single thing to offer the frosh except the beer up in the attic, and that will leak out of those old barrels before rushing in the fall, with Harter and Bessler in town.

THESE boys crated away their last load of cantelopes to pay for their picture in the Royal Purple so we have to say something about them. Rumors have it that the boys haven't had a pledge in the last four years, but it doesn't seem to cramp their style any. They pass long winter evenings having a gatherin' in the living room at which time they spin yarns and exchange merry quips with each and one another. As you have probably guessed, we don't know too much about Theta Xi.

FARMERS National Grain Corporation is owned by twenty-six co-operative grain organizations, composed of farmers and farmer elevator associations. It is governed by a board of directors representing and responsible to these farmer organizations. It conforms to the requirements of all co-operative statutes, both in its set up and in its operations.

The Kansas stockholders of Farmers National Grain Corporation are the Equity Union Grain Company, the Farmers Co-operative Commission Company, the Farmers Union Jobbing Association and the Kansas Co-operative Wheat Marketing Association.

The Way Are Kansas

NATIONAL co-operative grain marketing puts the Kansas grain producer in touch with the best market for his commodity — wherever that market may be. DELTA SIGMA PHI

DUE to the loss of the old rifle range the R. O. T. C. is intending to change the object of its fire to the Delta Sig shack. Such use would make the mansion, hitherto of little value to the community, be of some significance. Their best class is that of '37. It is clearly superior, and contains less toads than most Delta Sig classes. In fact, there are absolutely no members of the class of '37 in the Delta Sig house.

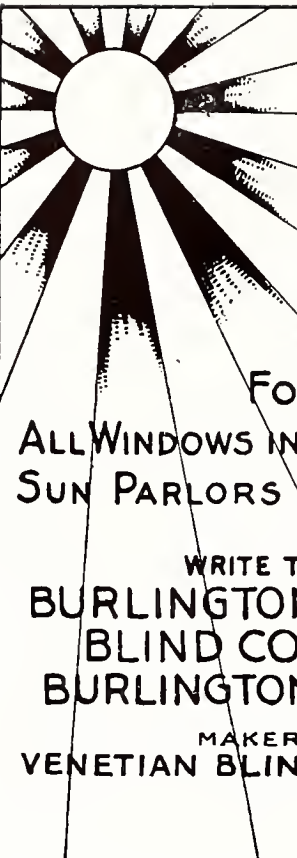

Some of these lads do find co-eds at the dormitory who will take their pin. This proves that they, too, have some of the things that most ordinary men take for granted, and that girls will marry them and maybe some day there will be legacies who will go Delta Sig just to make interesting news, and make their father feel badly.

PHI KAPPA TAU

THE expressions "Phi Kappa Tau" and "Pete Pocock" are synonymous on this campus, Pete being the Mousolini of the local chapter. With Pi Kappa Alpha, Alpha Gamma Rho, and the Epworth League, the organization has a good chance of making the honor roll of W. W. F. B. B. (World's Worst Fraternity Barring Beta), which shows the progress of the fraternity under the Pocock reign. Little can be said, in a surly way, about the boys however, possibly because little is known about their daily life and habits. The house and property, located on 17th and Fairchild, can be detected from the typical college atmosphere (see College Humor '13) surrounding the exterior of the place. The curb is cluttered with animated scrap-heaps which belong to the boys who came to school with the yearn to be Betas. The Pocock dray, a dung-colored Chevrolet, is kept well without the immediate vicinity of the chapter. Pete, we might sneeringly say, doesn't want everybody and his half-brother to know he is a member of what he stoutly declares is a fraternity.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON
"ONE in every home" was the cry last September when Sigma Alpha Epsilon launched its mammoth rush program. It is whispered that the chapter had to pledge practically everything that came out of Kansas to reach their quota, but the program proved successful and Kappa Sigma, as usual, suffered heavily. Some of the brighter pledge prospects have washed out on S. A. E. but at least, the monthly bills are paid, so what the hell. The essential characteristics and malformations of every true Sig Alf are, reading from left to right, spool-ears (shades of Arch Miller), buck teeth, and a bad smell. "The nose knows," said a S. A. E. to us when we asked him how it was that two strange brothers knew each other so readily. Some of the most smelly members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon are Bill Kaeser, Roy Wilkerson, the Repperts and their rackets, and Frank Prentup who would rather be right than a Beta and would rather date Ebling than be right.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

UNTIL recently this organization (or what is laughingly called "organization") was known as the "Yes, Mr. Fockele" Club. Max Fockele, Ottawa brush-ape and worry-wart, was patron saint, president, vice-president, secretary, house-man, and loud speaker for the fraternity. The alumni wield an uncanny control over the place. The president (in name) is a figure head and sits meekly in on the meetings. The typical Pi K. A. is blond, seedy, and comes from Parsons, Kansas. The colors are beer-stained garnet and dirty gold. The chapter song, coined by Gus Rayburn (if he had thought of it first), is "Fockele, Your Magic Smell is Everywhere." The chapter boasts of such members as Hayden Phillips, pot-gutted Salina play boy, Sid Robinson (known as Sid the Corny), and Gus Rayburn, notorious Newton no-good.

ALPHA XI DELTA

IN THIS modern world of speed, unrestraint, and innumerable parking spaces . . . the eyes of these pining spinsters gleam with the imagine longings of years of unfilled hope and unrequited love. Having clicked with the boys back home . . . it's hard to take the city slickers' air and spend the dragging hours of a dullish week end in a sanctuary of seclusion, thumbing the musty pages of "Is Sex Necessary" . . . and striving to put mind above matter.

These bold back slappers marked time in one of life's rudest ruts . . . until the advent of Vesecky's little sister . . . when the flag once more furled, doorbells were rung . . . and that most odd looking individual known as man . . . (excluding the plumber and the paper hanger) again entered into the house . . . and this time not by mistake. Pledges were no longer retired at eight with tears . . . but went out at nine for beers . . . all were happy in the deeply imbedded illusion that they were desired, adored, and demanded. The illusions remain . . . so do they . . . and life goes on just the same.

CLOVIA

BANDED bits of nondescript humanity . . . earnestly united in a frantic furthering of mental cleanliness and the "Four H's" hayseed, hopscotch, halitosis, and horticulture. These kitchen kleansers are sublime in the serenity of their noble deeds well done. They embody the royal ritual of the lodge lovers in the Home Economics Department, health habits, and the Capper's Weekly. Farmers, to their mental hemispheres are the backbone of the nation . . . bread the staff of life . . . and figures are merely mathematical insignias.

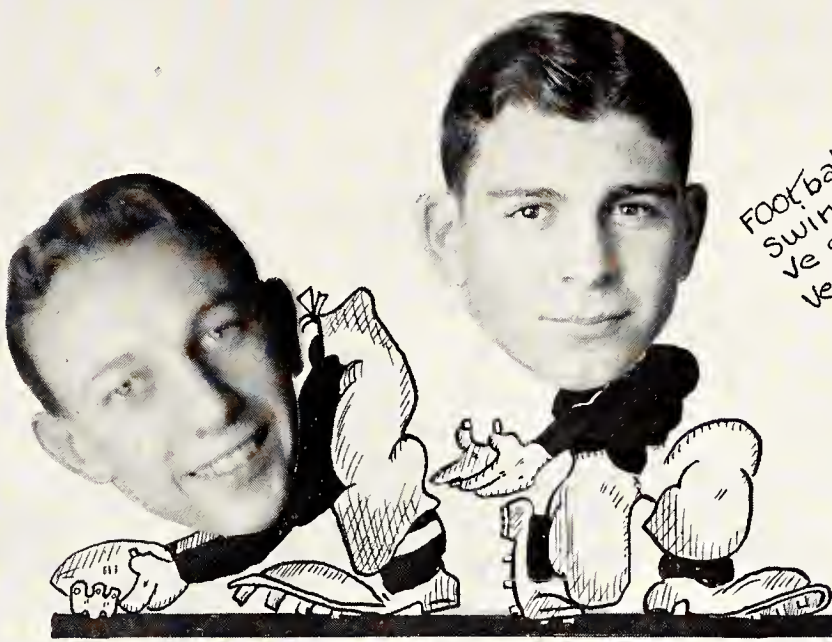

They are good girls who see their dentist twice a year, have souls instead of sables, and will grow up to be good women who have raised nothing in their lives but cabbages and children.

ALPHA GAMMA RHO

IN AN off-hand way we might scummily say that Alpha Gamma Rho does not possess the makings of a fraternity. However it would be folly to announce such a thought without knowing any more about an organization than we know about Alpha, Gamma, and Rho. After several years in the vicinity of Manhattan this editor is unable to tell you even where the local chapter house is located. A good game might be invented to liven up some dull evening by equipping your guests with forked peach branches with which to locate the house. The branch, grasped firmly by the horns, or forks, will turn down when the guest gets "warm" or within the vicinity of the house. If it is an extra sensitive peach branch it might even turn completely away but probably not unless the guest has imbued of several stout brandy-flips.

These boys are SMOOTH GENTS, like billiard balls, although not so useful. We suspect that after every date a girl has with one of these monkeys she retires into the secrecy of her boudoir and has a good cry over the unkindness of fate. The tribe is absolutely under the control of the Munsons and Coberleys which accounts for the fact that they pride themselves in being better than the Farm House boys. We ask you, is that a standard?

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

THE boys have lost all claim to fame now that Johnson is going to graduate, but they get out every Saturday whistling bravely, burnish the old sign, and look forward to taking next year's A. T. O. rushees . . . which is the funniest thing we can think of.

Actually what they take in and call pledges are a bunch of small town racing drivers. But they are under the illusion that the people they take in are human beings. They're happy in their own queer little way, so why take joy away from them?

CHI OMEGA

SPORTING blood in these Chi Omegas . . . receivers and part owners of the Hotel Wareham and the Spanish Village . . . whose purity rivals that of the waters of a sand pit in mid August.

Purcell and Haskell . . . retired to the city . . . "Yes-you-bet-Kahl," the Texas Longhorn, went into smug seclusion . . . leaving the organization nothing to apologize for . . . except a few pleasure-bent pledges, who came to the front; but nothing was quiet. The closer you watched the less you saw . . . and they really went in for iniquity instead of intellect.

These little rascals are all the same . . . which would be a great thing if any of them were half way conscious . . . but as is . . . they are darned annoying and a downright nuisance. They bubble over with surface emotion and that Chi Omega sense of humor, Phoo! They play pig in the palace and post-office in the Park. Their sneak ran the gamut from distinction to distraction. Last year's social hi-light, Well Built Graham . . . a bundle of abundant animation . . . went in for trios and triangles . . . she just wouldn't say yes and she couldn't say no. Whizzer Jacks . . . the mastermind . . . with her four word sentences . . . took up kindergarten work and Joe Murphy, which reflects the intellect of the organization perfectly.

The last of their "Busts" was the Founder's Day Banquet in K. C. Ghastly sights: beringed orbs, shaking limbs, ghoulish glances, and sallow souls . . . when came the conclusion of the Flounder's Day Banquet and the introduction of the decimal beverages. But these little rascals have had lots of experience . . . and it in't for nothing that they know: that fire escapes have nothing to do with fires . . . Osborn is a sound sleeper . . . Phi Delts just will talk . . . and no one has more good clean fun than a Chi Omega. Phoo!

PI KAPPA CHI, notorious dancing organization, was rubbed out of existence this year for more reasons than three. The three greatest reasons were the ingredients, Pi Phi, Kappa, and Chi Omega but we've got our own special little hunch that the fourth reason was the "greatest-party-of-the-year" held at the country club early in the year. Praise be to Allah that parties like that are not once-a-monthers. On a bleak Friday evening in November, '32, the good people of Wamego assembled in their cupolas to discuss the great hue and cry which seemed to come from the city of Manhattan. Aproned matrons and village graybeards shook their heads in common misunderstanding. Little did the good people know that Pi Kappa Chi was throwing its annual rub at the country club. Aggieville's cloak and suit vendors supplied much of the entertainment and everybody had an evening of good, clean, wholesome fun, much to the chagrin of the management. Walter Bell, not to be outdone by the youngsters, worked the chill out of his bones on his Horatio number, and when Walt does Horatio you can bet your prize shoat that it is a good party.

The neatest trick of the year was the sudden turn of affairs in the Betty Co-ed election. Eugenia Ebling, very boney Pi Phi and Collegian columnist (you may hiss roundly), and former Betty Co-ed, hot-aired her views about the sappiness of such an election. Evidently this sob-sister (tsk! The jealousy of womanhood) didn't want any competition until she got out of school. Anyway, certain jokesters put her name up for the title and by Gad she won it! Eugenia crawfished. She thanked her public and still thinks she deserved the title. Well, we've all got a right to our own opinion.

The greatest exhibition of high-schoolery of the year was the moronic exhibition the engineers gave in trying to crash the Ag Barnwarmer. Soon after Luella Graham, Steve Vesesky's choice for the queenship, ascended to the throne (we still think it a nice bit of politics Steven V.), the row began. The agrarians disposed of the smaller fry by running them through a paddle line but all hell broke loose in due time and the engineers stormed the north door, the south door, and the clothes chutes. The ags gathered and massaged the skulls of the intruders. In fact they exchanged skull massage for skull massage for several minutes. Severed ears and front teeth were strewn on the floor. Connective tissues had to be scraped from the woodwork with putty knives. Aye, THERE was a tussle for you!

On April 7, 1933, beer returned to the border, 125 concrete miles to the east. The starting gun snapped and fifty Chi Omegas nearly strained their G-strings getting to the city for a quaff of the new ale. The younger generation, being used to bottles of thumbled Pale, thought the new brew was so much hog wash.

The last and worst of the year's parties was sponsored by the wearers of the coveted "beetle," namely the time famed Scarab organization. Even before the affair was oked by the organization, the Social Committee was arguing as to whether or not they should send three or five cops to the function. (They actually sent five but only three arrived).

The music was furnished by Lee Morgan's "Emporia Red Hats." The band, not being drunk, was the only redeeming feature of the evening, with their rendition of Harry Hasler's theme song, "Baa, Baa Black Goats Have You Any Wool? . . . Yes Sir, Yes Sir, Arm Pitts Full." The party closed with the rendition of Scarabs theme song "Pass Out Lightly." Twenty members and the alumni of the organization were hosts of the occasion, and they all found out later that a good time was had by all.
