MISS MABEL R. SMITH

In Appreciation

In appreciation of her faithfulness and deep devotion to the 4-H Club movement in the United States, we dedicate this, the sixteenth edition of WHO'S WHOOT, to Miss Mabel R. Smith.

As Assistant State Club Leader of Kansas for ten years, Miss Smith was a loyal, efficient, and cheerful 4-H Club booster. Her associations with 4-H Club members, leaders, Collegiate 4-H Club members, and others have won for her their genuine respect and inspired them to the higher ideals and the most conscientious effort.

Who's Who's Staff

... Staff Members of the 1942 WHO'S WHOOT take a stroll down a campus walk: Gordon West, Helen Woodard, Lucille Owen, and Freeman Biery.

Fifty Collegiate 4-H Club members comprised the general staff of the 1942 WHO'S WHOOT yearbook.

Each spring members of the Collegiate 4-H Club elect the editors and the assistants of the book. Then these four choose chairmen for the various staff committees, who in turn choose committee members.

Besides regular staff meetings, the WHO'S WHOOT staff has their annual "early morning picnic breakfast" at the end of the year after the book has been published. Members gather at some local park at sunrise for recreation and then eat a breakfast, prepared by a staff committee.

Under the direction of the business manager, groups of the staff make advertising trips to Kansas cities during the college year.

This book constitutes a most stimulating endeavor for the Collegiate 4-H Club. Its beneficial influence throughout the state with leaders, members, parents and friends, is most notable.

Collegiate 4-H Club

Members of the Collegiate 4-H Club at Kansas State College are especially proud of two facts about their organization. It is the largest campus club and one of the most active and influential ones. Membership for the past year was 511. This number topped any previous record of the club. Those college students who have been 4-H Club members or those who are interested in the 4-H movement are accepted for membership. Many of the Collegiate 4-H'ers have been outstanding in their local counties before entering college.

The club has two meetings each month, conducted on the college campus. A new feature of the procedure of the meeting this year was the addition of a half-hour recreation period preceding the business and program.

Heading the social calendar of the club is the annual Christmas dinner-dance and the spring semi-formal in April. Picnics and informal dances are major events, too.

A popular group of singers on the college campus is the Collegiate 4-H Club quartet who sing both at college and non-college functions. Try-outs are conducted by the Department of Music.

A major project of the Collegiate Club is the publishing of the WHO'S WHOOT, 4-H yearbook of Kansas. Gordon West, first semester Collegiate president, is the 1942 editor, and Helen Woodard, former secretary, is the business manager. A group of committees work with the editors and business managers in preparing the yearbook. Mr. M. H. Coe is faculty advisor. The club received national publicity this year when a national farm magazine published a feature article on the editing of the WHO'S WHOOT. Another national publication will soon publish a feature story on the Collegiate 4-H Club. Both articles will be accompanied by pictures.

Other major activities of the club include sponsoring the annual Kansas Rural Life Association Conference, maintaining a student loan fund, aiding with the annual 4-H Round-up on the college campus each June, and sponsoring a half-hour program over radio station KSAC each Saturday afternoon with a Collegiate member presiding. A club committee is in charge of planning these programs. The Collegiate Club maintains equipment in its office in the State 4-H Club Office which facilitates the work of the officers and yearbook staff members.

Officers of the club are elected each semester of the college year. Presidents this year were Gordon West and George Wreath, both seniors from Manhattan. Each summer a club delegate is sent to the American Youth Foundation Camp at Shelby, Michigan. Edward Buss, a junior from Holton, was the 1941 summer winner. The member to attend the 1942 camp will be chosen by a Collegiate 4-H Club Danforth Camp Committee who rate the candidates by a rate card. Alma Deane Fuller, a Danforth Camp attendant for several years, is chairman of the committee.

Senior members of the Collegiate 4-H Club who have been most outstanding in service are honored each year at the annual spring party. Announcement of the award of honor is made at the party and the names of the winners are engraved on a bronze plaque on the wall of the State 4-H Club Office.

RADIO

A busy group of Collegiate 4-H'ers is the club Radio Committee headed by Wayne Prichard and Helen Ramsour. These two members with other members of their committee plan and conduct the Collegiate 4-H Club half-hour radio program over station KSAC each Saturday at 1 p.m. Talent for the programs is chosen chiefly from the club members themselves. Others working on the Radio Committee this past year were Cecil Eyestone, Helen Stagg, and Marcile Norby.

The Saturday programs usually include vocal and instrumental selections; campus news broadcasts, supplemented by county and state 4-H news; readings and poetry; discussions or short skits. A model meeting was presented one Saturday by a group of the Collegiate 4-H'ers. This is an annual custom of the club.

Preceding the Collegiate broadcast is the half-hour program beginning at 12:30 p.m. sponsored by the State 4-H Club Office. Master of ceremonies is either Mr. M. H. Coe, state leader, or one of the other leaders from the state office. Extension specialists and other college professors give information concerning projects and problems connected with them are discussed. This program combined with the Collegiate half-hour offers a source of information, entertainment, and inspiration. An excellent opportunity is offered to 4-H Club members over the state to learn what other club members are doing. With this knowledge comes an inspiration for each club member to "make the best better!"

QUARTET

Among the most popular music groups on the college campus is the Collegiate 4-H Club male quartet. Members for the past year were Wayne Good, Crawford County, first tenor; Keith Yost, Lane County, second tenor; Leon Findley, Barber County, baritone; Joe Zollinger, Geary County, bass. Elaine Rohrer, Dickinson County, was accompanist again this year. This group is selected by the Department of Music from among Collegiate 4-H Club members.

Evidence of their popularity is the fact that this group is asked to sing at many, varied places. The quartet the past year sang for a Danforth Club sponsored assembly; Collegiate 4-H Club meetings and broadcasts; various meetings of many organizations in Manhattan and on the campus. They also made some recordings for use in the 4-H Club Mobilization Week.

Conferences

K. R. L. A.

Members of the Collegiate 4-H Club were hosts March 12 to 14 to fifty-one Kansas rural young people between the ages of 18 and 28 years on the college campus attending the eighth annual Kansas Rural Life Association Conference. Eleven counties sent delegates.

Dr. O. W. Warmingham, of Boston, Massachusetts, member of the staff of the American Youth Foundation, was the principal speaker.

A. C. L. A.

Twenty delegates from Kansas attended the American Country Life Association Conference conducted on the George Peabody College campus at Nashville, Tennessee, October 23 to 26. Marie Olson, Johnson County, was elected National Secretary. Tom Benton also of Johnson County was National President last year and presiding officer.

Problems that confront American youth are discussed each year at the conference. Panel discussions and classes serve to inspire delegates to return home to improve rural conditions. This year the youth section met separately from the adult group.

Collegiate 4-H Club delegates were Marjorie Simmons, Helen Woodard, Tom Benton, Keith Jones, Drusilla Norby, Alfred Koch, and Darrell Russel. Mr. M. H. Coe and Miss Mary Elsie Border accompanied the group.

Faculty members of the college also appeared on programs. The purpose of the conference each year is to consider problems confronting the youth of today.

New officers elected are: Orville Wessler, Rice County, president; Wilma Davis, Crawford County and Clarence Schlagel, Johnson County, vice presidents; Helen Stagg, Collegiate 4-H Club, secretary-treasurer.

DANFORTH FOUNDERS CLUB

"My own self, at my very best, all the time"—the motto of Camp Miniwanca—is the goal of former Miniwanca campers now attending Kansas State College. The college Danforth Club is now in its second successful year. It is a chapter of the American Youth Foundation Founder Fellowship.

New sponsors of the club are Prof. and Mrs. L. F. Payne. Alma Deane Fuller is retiring president and Jim Cunningham will succeed her.

The purpose of the Danforth Club is to encourage more people to attend camp, promote fellowship among former campers on the college campus, promote campus and state-wide interest in the American Youth Foundation, aid in the selection of campers, and instruct the new delegates about what is expected of them at camp.

A special activity this year was the sponsoring of the "Life Planning Week" event on the college campus in March.

KANSAS STATE COLLEGE

Kansas State College of Agriculture and Applied Science was established July 2, 1862. In February of 1863 the college was located at Manhattan, opening September 1, 1863.

The college has three purposes. One is to give to the young men and women of Kansas undergraduate and graduate instruction in agriculture, engineering and architecture, home economics, general science, and veterinary medicine, and to encourage sound thinking and good citizenship. Secondly, its purpose is to investigate scientifically the state's problems in agriculture and the industries. Lastly, the college serves, through the Division of College Extension, a highly organized system of agricultural education carried directly to the farm homes of the state.

Club Agents

Club Agents

We give due praise to these county club agents for the fine work performed by them during the past club year.

We are fortunate, indeed, to have as leaders and helpers in 4-H Club work, men such as these. Their leadership, foresight, and ambition have raised the high quality of 4-H Club work in their respective counties to a higher level. They assist in state-wide activities, promote various county activities, train judging and demonstration teams, and any activity which aids in developing better community and farm life.

Eight counties in Kansas employ club agents at the present time. It is hoped that the number may be increased this year.

These leaders work under the able supervision of the Kansas State College Extension Division in Manhattan and of the state leaders—M. H. Coe, Mary Elsie Border, Roger E. Regnier, J. Harold Johnson, and Glenn M. Busset, who is replacing Mr. Johnson while he is on sabbatical leave until June.

WASHINGTON TRIP

Kansas 4-H Club members who have won the 1941 state junior leadership awards are Marshall Kirk, Scott County; Betty Whitley, Sumner County; Constance Lofthouse, Ford County; Bernard Knowles, Saline County. These four young people have all shown remarkable traits of junior leadership in local, county, state, and national 4-H Club activities over a several-year period of work. All are new members of the Master 4-H Club, an honorary organization for state 4-H Club leadership winners. Because there will be no National Camp this year due to international war conditions, these four winners will receive trips to the American Youth Foundation Camp at Shelby, Michigan—a two week's camp of great inspiration and enjoyment.

Marshall Kirk has done most outstanding work in junior leadership and livestock projects. A member for six years, he has recently completed his freshman year in agriculture at Kansas State College. He has exhibited a grand champion beef at the Kansas State Fair and one year was first in showmanship at the National Western Livestock Show in Denver.

Betty Whitley has been especially active in the promotion of 4-H Club work in Sumner County. She has finished 24 projects over a club career of seven years. Betty has been a member of ten demonstration teams, and has entered 15 judging contests.

Constance Lofthouse, who has a ten year record of club work, was most interested in junior leadership and clothing projects. She has participated actively in state and county encampments and contests. Constance has served as president of her club, vice president of the county council, and has held many minor offices.

Bernard Knowles has completed 37 projects in his eight years of club work. He has been a member of state winning groups in chorus, model meetings, and dairy judging. Bernard won a purebred Guernsey bull one year in an essay contest sponsored by a Kansas farm magazine. He has coached demonstration teams and has acted as livestock and conservation project leader.

INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

Dorothy Simmons of Ashland, 18-year-old freshman at Kansas State College will return next fall with the aid of the Arthur Capper 4-H scholarship. She is the "Leader of Merit" of all Kansas 4-H Club girls.

She has completed 49 projects for a total income of $2,834.07 in six years of club work. Dorothy has given 21 demonstrations, worked on 23 judging teams, entered 8 style revues, and three health contests.

Her baby beef was champion in 1937 at her county fair. In 1940 she was a Chicago trip winner, and a blue-ribbon winner judging contestant on the state team.

With the profits from her projects she has purchased a violin, a clarinet, a typewriter, and financed her projects from year to year. Her family has lived on the same rented farm for 16 years, and through her home beautification project interested the landlord in improving the farm, she and her brother doing all the work. In six years she has missed only two club meetings. Such a record as the foregoing is an inspiration to all.

Merle Eyestone of Lansing, 19-year-old Leavenworth County 4-H Club member plans to attend Kansas State College next fall with the aid of the Arthur Capper scholarship. His outstanding work has won for him a "Leader of Merit" award for 1941.

He has been a member for seven years, completing 16 projects. Last year he attended the National 4-H Club Congress at Chicago as a county winner, and was a blue-ribbon winner in the state best-groomed boy contest at the State Fair at Hutchinson.

Merle was county potato champion for three years, has been county dairy champion, and in 1941 was county junior leadership, potato, and best-groomed boy champion. He has been on three county demonstration teams, and was a member of seven judging teams in three state contests. For five years he has been a member of his club play cast for county festivals.

Merle is now realizing a profit from his dairy projects and intends to build up a good Jersey herd. He has also been interested in conservation projects, working for three years on this. Merle has set a fine standard of achievement for all to strive to equal.

Chicago Trip

. . . Chicago Trip Winners and leaders pose for the cameraman en masse.

This group of 50 top 4-H Club members of Kansas made the annual trip to the National 4-H Club Congress November 28-December 6. Eight adult leaders accompanied the members. Nineteen were state champions, 12 Santa Fe trip winners, and 19 Rock Island and Kansas Bankers' Association winners.

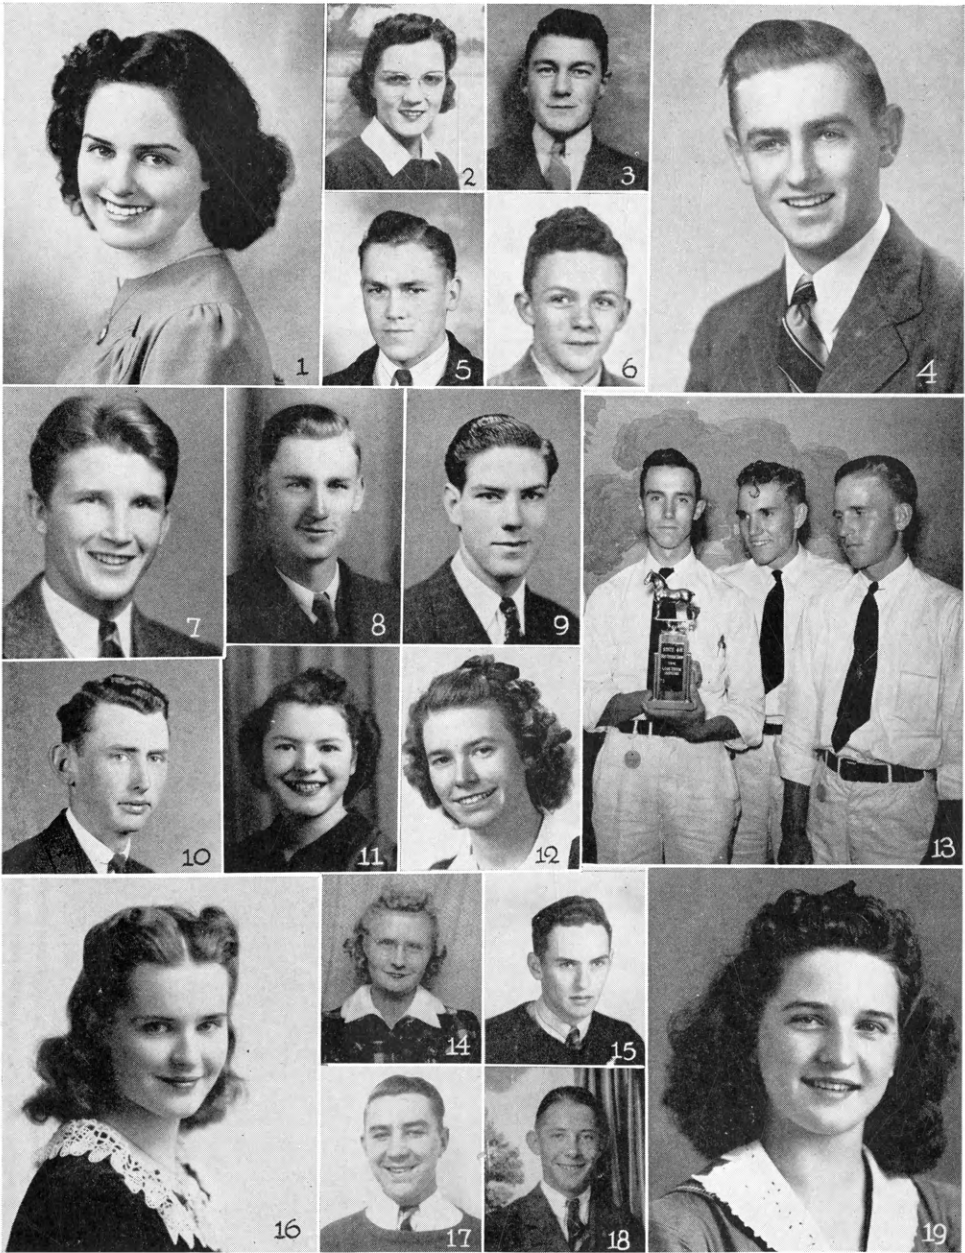

The week's visit in Chicago was a never ceasing panorama of sights and experiences. Points of interest were the International Livestock Exhibition and its array of livestock from all parts of the world; Field's Museum; the Chicago Art Institute, and many other industrial plants, museums, and art galleries. Top ranking stars in the fields of radio, music, stage, and sports were brought together for a week of entertainment of the 4-H members. Of great value were the many new acquaintances made with other young men and women from other states.

Kansas delegates who won notable honors are: Erma Scott, Morris County, $200 scholarship, National 4-H Girls' Record Contest; Dorcas Wilson, Jewell County, $200 scholarship, National 4-H Canning Contest; Richard Winger, Crawford County, $100 scholarship, Livestock Judging Contest.

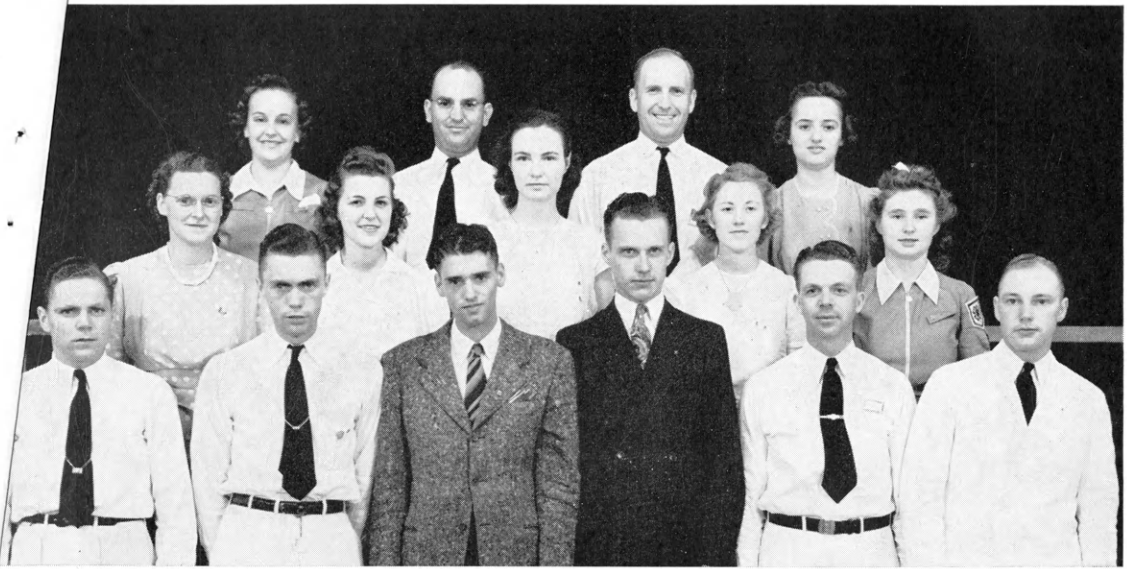

The following members were blue ribbon winners: Dale Watson, Sedgwick County, meat judging; Junior Carnahan and Bill Vogel, Labette County, poultry judging; Helen Hardy, Cowley County, style revue; Dorcas Wilson, canning; Richard Winger and Marine Cheney, Crawford County, livestock judging.

Highest honorary organization of 4-H Clubs in Kansas is the Master 4-H Club for those persons who have won the state leadership award of a trip to the National 4-H Club Camp at Washington, D.C. The club has been organized since 1927 and now has 60 members.

New members are initiated into the club each June at the annual state 4-H Club

Round-up. The four 1941 state leadership champions will be new members this year.

AMERICAN YOUTH FOUNDATION CAMP

On the following page are snapshots taken at Camp Miniwanca at Shelby, Michigan. Each year Kansas sends a group of delegates to this summer camp which provides a four fold training — mental, physical, social, and religious. Last summer 11 persons from Kansas attended.

Each year four boys and four girls of Kansas 4-H Clubs are selected to attend the camp. Two leaders and a Collegiate 4-H Club winner also go. The Girls' camp is during the first two weeks of August, followed by the boys' camp during the last two weeks of August.

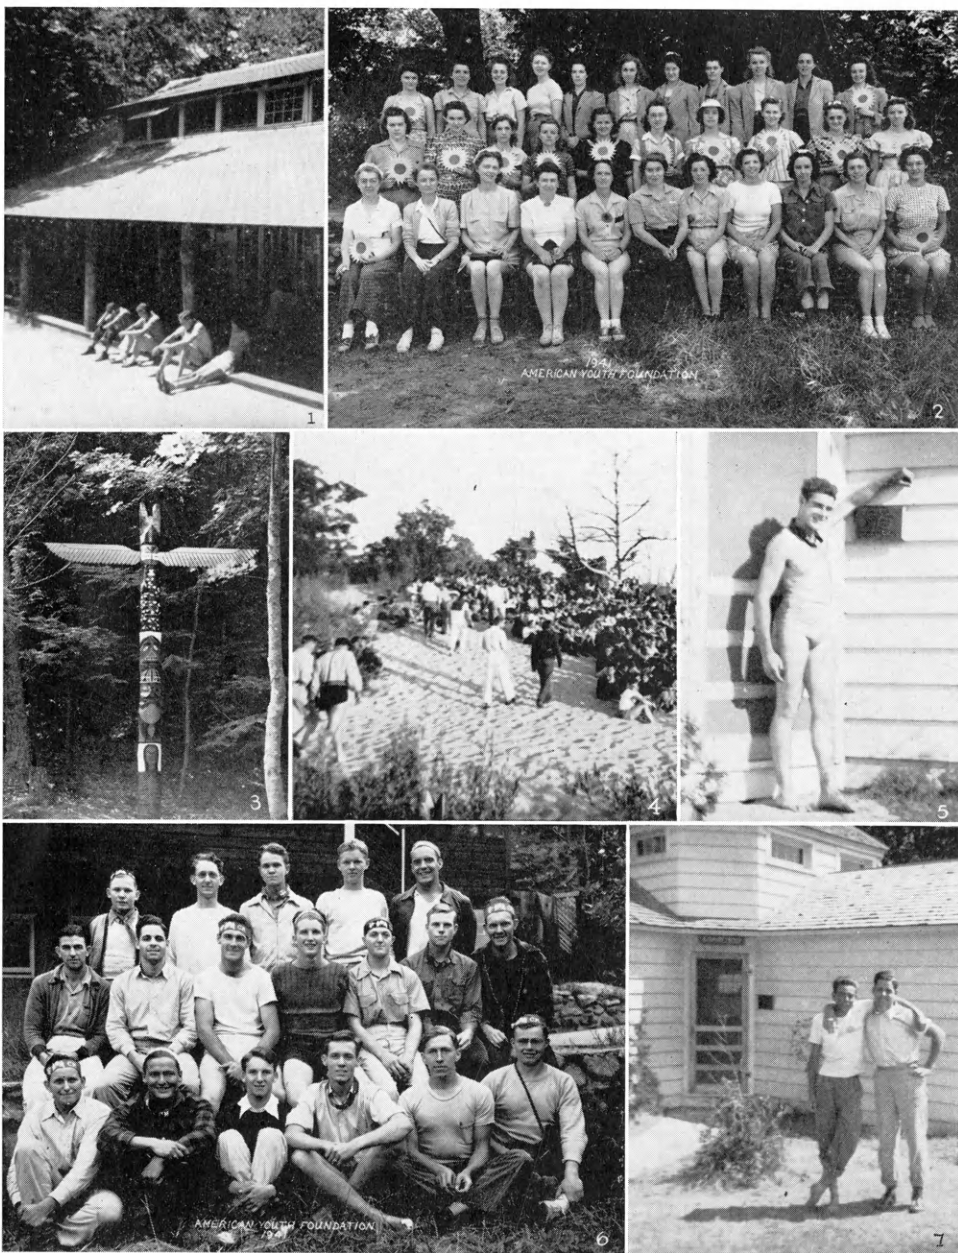

Danforth winners who attend Kansas State College have organized a Danforth Founders Club with Alma Deane Fuller, Republic

County, as president. The club, as does the summer camp, strives to help each member live a well-balanced life, and gives training in leadership.

1941 summer camp winners were:

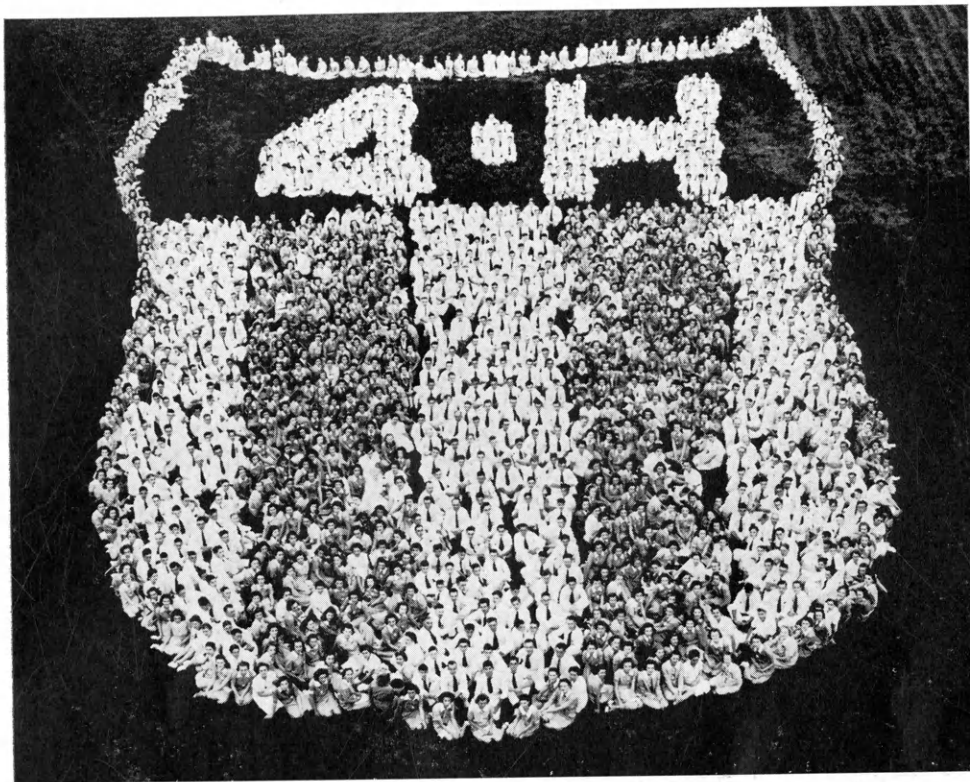

Elaine Rohrer, Dickinson County
Gladys Ochsner, Greeley County
Mary Alice Doll, Pawnee County
Betty Mae Wampler, Montgomery County
Ruth Hofsess, H.D.A., Montgomery County
Howard Borchardt, Leavenworth County

State 4-H Round-up

... Kansas 4-H clubbers and leaders form a living shield.

June of 1941 found 1,368 Kansas 4-H Club members and leaders attending the annual state 4-H Club Round-up on the campus of Kansas State College.

While attending Round-up, the members from the various counties have an opportunity to exchange ideas and learn the advantages of working and playing together. These things lead to more successful 4-H Clubs and in turn to the enrichment of rural and home life. Each delegate receives a copy of the official 4-H Club yearbook, the WHO'S WHOOT.

The opportunity to participate in fine group activities is available to all, all of which leads to an inspiration on the members' part to do even better next year in their 4-H Club work.

Who's Who 4-H Club

Who's Who club president Clair Parcel and secretary Merna Vincent listen to vice president Leslie Kohl as they discuss 1942 Round-up plans for the club.

Who's Who 4-H Club is a state honorary 4-H Club of Kansas. Club members deem it a high honor to be selected for membership from their local county. Eligibility rules state that a club member's work must be in the upper ten per cent of club work in his county, that he must be at least fifteen years old, and must have done outstanding work in his projects in his community.

The Who's Who 4-H Club chooses new members each June during the annual state Round-up when a committee of the club considers application for membership. Initiation services are conducted and individual pictures are taken for the WHO'S WHOOT. Last year there was a total of 224 new members.

New officers elected last June to serve until the 1942 Round-up were Clair Parcel, Comanche County, president; Leslie Kohl, Sedgwick County, vice president; Merna Vincent, Rice County, secretary-treasurer. Retiring officers were Wayne Good, Crawford County; Russell Cummings, Haskell County; Lourie Shoffner, Saline County.

An outstanding 4-H Club member of Kansas is selected each June to receive the club scholarship—the Who's Who 4-H Club $150 Scholarship. Louise Parcel was the 1941 winner. She has just finished her freshman year at Kansas State College, majoring in home economics. Other winners in recent years are Clair Parcel, Comanche County, who has finished his sophomore year at Kansas State; Theda Fayne Inslee, Pratt County, who has finished her junior year at Kansas State; Betty Hutchinson, Sedgwick County, who was graduated from Kansas State this year with a degree in home economics.

THOSE WHO COOPERATE

*A happy youth,
And their old age
Is beautiful and free.*

—W. M. WORDSWORTH.

A typical model club meeting group of Kansas 4-H Club members—the basis of Kansas 4-H Club work.

4-H Club work has been a big factor in bringing rural boys and girls in contact with the finer things of life, including better practices in agriculture, homemaking, and community service. These boys and girls are trained for leadership, and receive much benefit from a cultural and vocational standpoint.

Club work has spread to every county in Kansas. Since the rules specify each member must carry a project, each boy and girl has a personal interest in the success of his project. These boys and girls reap all the returns from these projects and thus build up a bank account. Most projects are successful if the right care is given to them. Some years there are failures caused by unpreventable happenings such as death, fire, drouth, hail, etc., but on the average the projects carried by Kansas boys and girls are money making undertakings. The bankers of Kansas know this and consider 4-H members as A-1 creditors because there will almost certainly be a successful project the following year.

There is a large variety of projects from which a 4-H member can choose. In fact, there are over 50 possible projects and the only limits as to the number a member can carry are his time, ability and finances.

Sixty per cent of the strictly farm youngsters of Kansas are taking part in 4-H Club work. Of this number many attend college and return to the farm after receiving a college education.

As college students Kansas 4-H boys and girls rank higher in initiative, leadership ability, grades, and participation in worth while activities than do the non 4-H Club members. The fact that 52.5 per cent of the boys enrolled are former 4-H Club members further proves that 4-H boys are outstanding.

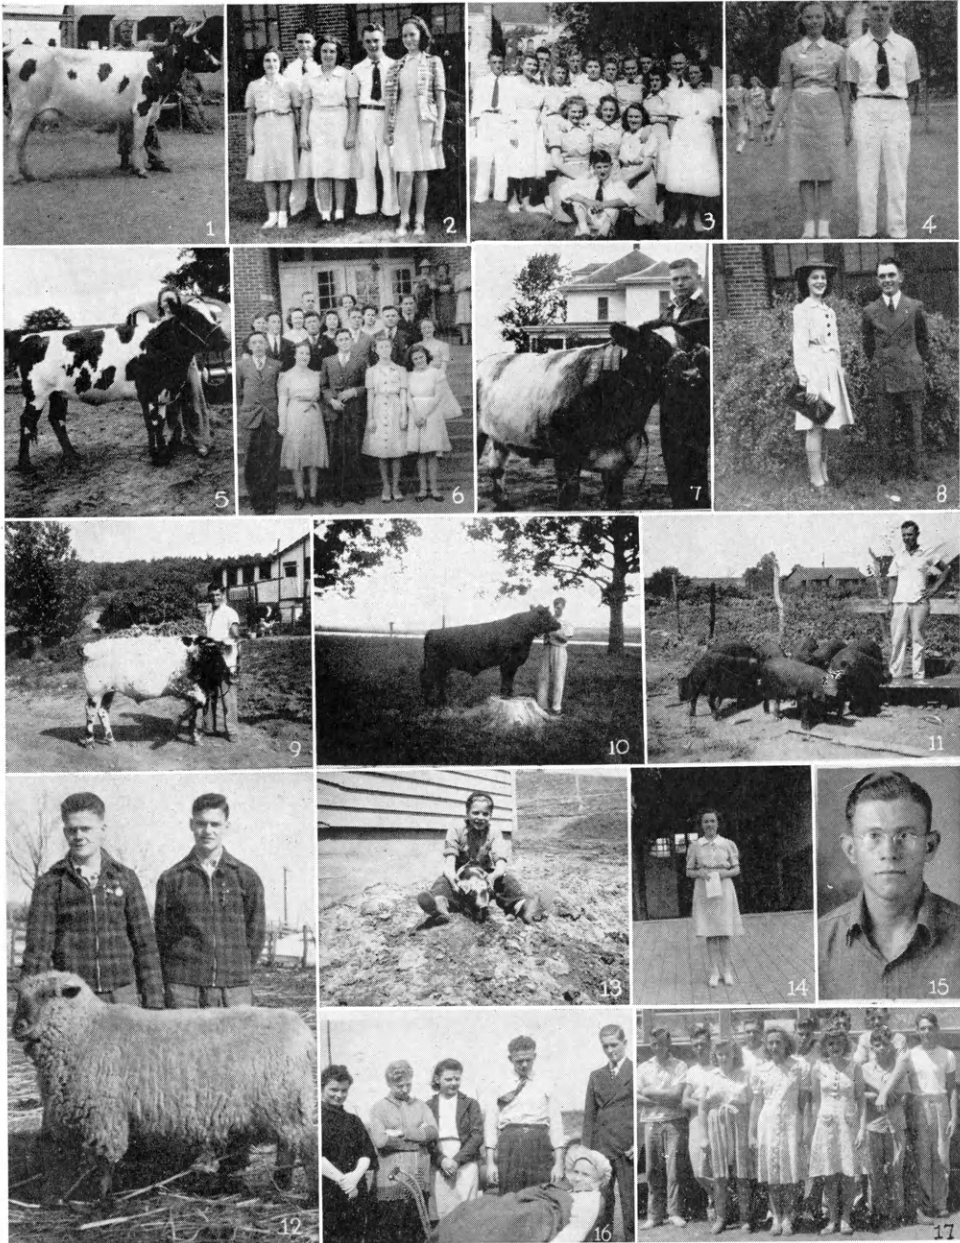

4-H Club work has expanded in Kansas until in 1941 there were 22,451 boys and girls enrolled in 1120 community clubs in all 105 counties in the state. This year 83.5 per cent of all the projects undertaken in the state were completed. Kearny county was the only county that had 100 per cent completion but 48 counties had a completion of over 85 per cent.

4-H Clubs are found in every state in the Union and in Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico. Internationally, 4-H Clubs are found in Europe, Asia, Africa, South America, Cuba, Australia, and New Zealand.

An Italian having a fruit stand at an important junction of a street car line was bothered with people picking up his fruit, pinching it and returning it to the stand where it would often turn soft and spoil as the result of their examinations. Exasperated beyond endurance, the Italian posted this warning:

“If you must pincha de fruit, pincha de cocoanut.”

“Helen,” inquired the lady of the house, suspiciously, “did you wash this fish before you baked it?”

And Helen Woodard replied, “What’s the use of washing a fish that has been in the water all his life?”

VITAMIN LOVE

I must admit to feeling queer
Whenever, mister, you are near;
My heart begins to race, I know,
I have a touch of vertigo—
But once when things were so awry
The doctor simply said that I
Had definite deficiency
Of vitamins from A to D—
So maybe this is love, but, chum,
It could be lack of calcium.

—Alyce Hamilton.

MY NEIGHBOR

The dawn, to him,
Meant time to feed the cows.
With prudent hands
He forked the fodder down.
The blossom-bordered lane
That passed his house
Was just a rutted trail
That led to town.
The town was noise and dirt—
A place to trade.
The men he met were customers—
That's all.
He never watched
The sunset colors fade,
But lay upon his couch
Facing the wall.

Hence, though our acres joined,
We lived apart.
I wrote my verses,
And he plowed his land.
Then came a day
When my grief-stricken heart
Learned all the comfort
Of his calloused hand.

This is an old joke---but the meaning is still good!

This is a picture of an angel sitting on a snow bank, drinking a glass of milk, with white clouds and doves in the background.

Who can prove it isn't so?

There are a good many other things we could claim are in these pictures and just because they can't be seen no one can prove they aren't there. It's the same in business—any concern can claim almost anything in its advertising and no one can prove those things aren't actually there—neither can any one be sure they really are there. So why is it that some companies' statements are always questioned while other companies' statements are always accepted at full "face value"?

The answer is confidence — confidence in the company name — confidence that comes from many years of satisfactory business experience. 4-H Club members have traded—with confidence—at Sears ever since the club was founded. Long before that their parents and even their grandparents learned they could depend on Sears.

So when you read statements about Sears quality, Sears values, Sears savings and Sears guarantee, you know they are really "there" and not just an angel on a snow bank or a negro in a coal mine.

INDIVIDUALITY

In an age when the spontaneity and initiative of individuals are being sacrificed to harmony and efficiency, we need to hear again that sturdy voice of Thoreau from Walden Pond: "I will breathe after my own fashion." It is not what my neighbors think; it is what I think that matters. It is not what my neighbors do with their leisure; it is what I do with my leisure that is important. It is not the standards that my neighbors have; it is my standards that govern me. Their automobiles, their clothes, their beliefs, their ideas of right and wrong—these are for them; they do not belong to me.

4-H Clubs of Kansas Can Help "Fuel-up" FOR VICTORY

Our powerful machines of war demand vast reservoirs of fuel and ammunition to keep on rolling. In these same offensive movements our soldiers, sailors and pilots must have tons and tons of healthful, energy-producing foods. They, too, must "fuel-up" for victory.

In this stupendous "all-out" effort Kansas and its 4-H Club Members will play an important part in producing America's quota of food products. Every patriotic farm worker should be geared to the emergency requirements of our nation. This task will be simplified for the thousands of readers who study every issue of Capper's Farmer, Kansas Farmer or Missouri Ruralist.

Week after week these dependable publications will show young farmers how they can perform invaluable service in this memorial struggle for freedom. Indeed! 4-H'ers will help "fuel-up" for VICTORY!

HUSKY, DEPENDABLE PARTNERS For the Big Jobs Ahead!

● When you're up against a tough production schedule and you need real help on the big jobs . . . dependable, experienced help day in and day out—look to Massey-Harris for the right equipment for your farm. Modern Massey-Harris tractors, straight-thru "Clipper" Combines, Self-propelled Combines and a host of other quality-built tools and machines are paying their own keep, on thousands of farms, in faster, better work—lower maintenance costs—more years of smooth performance.

MASSEY-HARRIS 3-POINT "CLIPPER" COMBINE

The "Clipper" is the only 3-point, full width, straight-thru combine with four years actual experience in over 110 crops. Grasses, clovers, sorghums, flax, beans, etc., or any of the common bread and butter crops—the "Clipper" handles them all. Full 6-foot cut; heavy 5-foot Rasp-bar Cylinder; Full width, straight-thru separation—these and many other patented Massey-Harris features mean bigger harvest paydays for the "Clipper" Combine owner.

"101-SUPER" TRACTOR

There's a quietness and ease of handling about this big 6-cylinder tractor that takes the grind out of your work. You finish the day fresher and, thanks to the fast-working speeds, you have more time to relax. Superfinished engine parts maintain better compression for more years. The "101-Super" handles 3 bottoms', Twin-Power control releases 15 per cent extra power for belt work. Self-starter, belt-pulley and fenders are standard equipment.

No. 21 SELF-PROPELLED COMBINE

Available in 12- or 14-foot cut, the new No. 21 Self-propelled Combine is a real boon to the large medium acreage farmer—particularly in years like these when outside help is hard to find. One man operates the grain tank Model 21! No tractor is required, thus real savings on fuel and maintenance. You save grain ordinarily lost on the opening cut; and because there's no tractor ahead of the combine you can cut out the ripe sections of your field; leaving green grain for a later cutting.
