Duty of Rest.

There is a false idea prevalent about resting enough in a few weeks of the summer to last the year. However full of delight and peace the lazy hours in the country, however freighted with strength and rest the long days by the sea...

Liquid Manures.

Solid manures have generally been considered more valuable than the liquid; hence the greater pains taken to save and apply the one than the other. Of late, however, the saving and application of liquid manures has received considerable attention from our more progressive farmers...

A late writer in the Country Gentleman says that this mode of saving the liquid manure by tanks or cisterns, is not profitable or expedient for the ordinary farmer, since it takes too much time, and adds to the use of absorbents...

Pasture for Hogs. Pasture is necessary for the healthy development of swine, for a very important further reason than exercise, and that is that the hog is a grass-eating animal, and should be treated as such as much as the horse.

A Cordial Invitation. The enterprising proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery make a special request to all persons suffering with consumption, coughs, colds, as hma, bronchitis, hay fever, phthisis, quinsy, pain in the side or chest, night sweats, loss of voice, hoarseness, croup, tickling in the throat, or any chronic or lingering affection of the chest, or of the lungs, to call at Barber Bros. drug store and get a trial bottle free of cost, which will convince them what a regular dollar size bottle will do.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

It cures Spavins, Splints, Curbs, Ring-bones and all similar blemishes, and removes the bunch without blistering.

FROM COL. L. T. FOSTER. 'YONGSTOWN, Ohio, May, 10th, 1880. Dr. B. J. Kendall & Co. Gents— I had a very valuable Hambletonian colt which I prized very highly, he had a large bone spavin on one joint and a smaller one on the other which made him very lame; I had him under the charge of two Veterinary surgeons who failed to cure him.

FROM REV. P. N. GRANGER. Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District. St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880. Dr. B. J. Kendall & Co. Gents— In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with 'Kendall's Spavin Cure' has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a horse of yours, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by a spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks, when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ringbone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

FROM REV. P. N. GRANGER. Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District. St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880. Dr. B. J. Kendall & Co. Gents— I have used your 'Kendall's Spavin Cure' on a bone spavin and am pleased to report that it has taken the enlargement completely off. It took only one bottle to perform the cure. I am convinced it is properly used it will do all you claim for it.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

ON HUMAN FLESH it has been ascertained by repeated trials to be the very best liniment ever used for any deep seated pain of long standing, or of short duration. Also for Corns, Bunions, Frost-bites, or any bruise, cut or laceration.

WHAT IS GOOD FOR BEAST IS GOOD FOR MAN. Read of its effects on Human Flesh. Patten's Mills, Washington Co., N. Y., Feb. 21, 1878.

FROM A PROMINENT PHYSICIAN. Washingtonville, Ohio, June 17th, 1880. Dr. B. J. Kendall & Co. Gents— Reading your advertisement in Turf, Field and Farm, of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and having a valuable and speedy cure which had been lame from spavin for eighteen months, I sent you for a bottle by express, which in six weeks removed all lameness and enlargement and a large splint from another horse, and both horses are to-day as sound as colts. The one bottle was worth to me $100.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

Kendall's Spavin Cure is sure in its effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep seated pain, or to remove any bony growth, or any other enlargement if used for several days, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callous, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man, and for any purpose for which a liniment is used for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects. It is used full strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year.

It is strange that Liverpool, that great commercial city of England, should have been so long without a system of payment by check.

What Weeds Cost Us.

The utter waste of weeds is never more thoroughly exemplified than in a dry time. We often hear it said that one cannot afford to grow weeds; grown to about the same height. There seemed indeed but little difference in any respect except one had been carefully harrowed to keep down the weeds.

We never saw a better illustration of the injury of weeds. It is not only what they eat, but what they drink, that robs us of our due rewards; DEMOREST'S Monthly for July is certainly the finest number ever issued of this popular periodical. This interesting number commemorates the sixtieth birthday of the proprietor and senior editor, Mr. W. Jennings Demorest.

Definitions.

It is curious the love some people have of definitions. They are the delight of persons who think, but whose thinking has not gone a great way.

So many human ills can be traced directly to derangement of the liver and kidneys that if these organs could be kept in a healthy state, the sum total of suffering would be greatly reduced.

BITTEAU swings on Friday of this week.

SLATHER is now entirely free from the small pox.

THE Chicago Tribune says that Col. John D. Gillett, of Logan county, Ill., has sold to ex-Congressman Whiting, two car-loads of young Short-horn bulls, to be shipped to Mr. Whiting's ranch in Kansas.

CONGRESS has passed the bill to establish a bureau of animal industry and to prevent the exportation of diseased cattle and the spread of pleuropneumonia and other infectious or contagious diseases among domestic animals.

THE census of agriculture will show that there are 539,000,000 acres in farms and 287,000,000 acres of improved land. The value of the farms amounts to $10,197,161,000, or five times the national debt; value of farm animals, $1,500,000,000. There are 10,357,000 houses in the country, or one to every five human beings.

In the stone floor of a Court House vestibule in a large Eastern town is the word "Justice" in large letters. An old resident who had just lost a suit was walking sadly out of the building. Seeing the letters in the floor he halted, uncovered his head, and said: "Justice, I knew you were dead, but I didn't know where you were buried."

THE methods of Justice Lawrence of the Supreme Court, are direct as well as careful. The other day at Chambers a lawyer presented to him an order for the payment of money in the case of an insurance company which is in the hands of a receiver. The Judge put it aside and said: "I cannot sign the order without a more careful examination of the papers."

In replying to some questions of the Kansas City Journal, the Topeka Capital says:

If it will serve to ease the troubled soul of the Kansas City Journal, we don't mind saying, though it seems hardly necessary, that the Capital could support Judge Thacher for Governor very readily and very earnestly. He is a gentleman of character and ability, who would grace any position that the people of Kansas have in their gift.

That New Department.

Agriculture has taken care of itself in this country for the last hundred years. As a class the seven or eight millions of American farmers are the most independent, wealthy, prosperous, and intelligent class of like numbers that can be found on the globe.

Cedar Bridge Grange, 854, is the name of the last new Grange organized in New Brunswick.

Paper Furniture. We must not be surprised to hear of a paper furniture factory starting into existence before long. Paper can now be made of strong fibers and compressed into a substance so hard that only a diamond can scratch it.

The Jennette. Engineer Melville and party have discovered the bodies of Lieut. De Long's party. The eleven bodies were buried on the top of a high hill on the Lena delta and a wooden cross was erected over their mausoleum and inscribed with the record and names of the dead.

Aid to Railroads. The clerk of the House Committee on Public Lands is preparing a tabulated statement of all the grants and donations of lands by Congress to the States and Territories. This statement will show a grand total of 302,788,683 acres that have been donated for all purposes.

QUITEAU DOOMED. Justice Bradley, of the United States Supreme Court, has added his opinion to those of Judge Cox and the full bench of the District Court that Guiteau was lawfully tried in the District of Columbia. The only thing that can now save him from hanging is Executive clemency, of which even the condemned can hardly have any hope.

Take a Lesson from Experience. An old farmer in an exchange gives some valuable experience for the benefit of those who are willing to take it. He says:

"I am an old man, upward of three score years, during two scores of which I have been rich and have all I need, do not owe a dollar, have given my children a good education, and when I am called away shall leave them enough to keep the wolf from the door. My experience has taught me that— One acre of land well prepared and well tilled produces more than two which received only the same amount of labor used on one."

One cow, horse, mule, sheep or hog well fed is more profitable than two kept on the same amount necessary to keep one well.

The farmer who never reads the paper, sneers at improvements, always has a leaky roof, poor stock, broken down fences and complains of bad seasons.

The farmer who is above his business, and entrusts it to another to manage, soon has no business to attend to.

Mechanical Milkers.

Many mechanical milkers had been patented, but nothing has yet been invented which could be called a success. One of the devices was an imitation of the sucking of the calf, consisting of India rubber tubes, which were compressed by the action of the air. Metal tubes should never be used except where the cow is too sore to be milked properly by hand.

The rainy spring which has been so harmful to farms east of the Missouri river, is a blessing to the farmers and cattle men of Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, New Mexico, and Western Texas. Colorado papers are full of exultation at the prospect of good crops.

What is more precious than good health? You can enjoy it if you only try "Lindsay's Blood Searcher." It never fails.

The Meanest Man. "The meanest man in the world," says Dr. Ridpath, as the rain rattled and splashed against our windows at Greencastle, "the meanest man in this world is the man with the memorandum book. He carries it with him constantly; whenever a fellow man makes a slip or stumbles a little; whenever he falls into a fault; so often as he wanders out of the way, every time he goes wrong or does wrong, whatever blunder, whatever slip, whatever mistake or misdeed he commits, out comes the memorandum book and down goes the indelible circumstantial account of the offence. And years after, whenever the penitent tries to come back into society and asks the world to give him a chance, if all the rest of the world has forgiven or forgotten his offence, the man with the memorandum book has not. He whips out his memorandum book, cries to society, 'Hold on a minute; I'll tell you all about this fellow,' and then he finds the page and reads it off, date place and circumstance. There are mean men and villains in this world, but there is no reptile so slimy, society has no enemy so despicable as the man with the memorandum book."

Lippincott's Magazine. The contents of Lippincott's Magazine for July are of a light and lively kind suitable for summer reading. "Black-Bass-Fishing in Sunghaenuek," by Rowland E. Robinson, carries us to some of the least frequented streams of the Adirondacks, and is very agreeably written and finely illustrated. "An Afternoon in a French Hamlet," by Anna Bowman Blake, gives an animated description of peasant life amid the beautiful scenery of the forest of Fontainebleau.

Dr. Talmage says it is perfectly easy to know what people are going to do in the other world. He doesn't tell us how he found it out, but then Dr. Talmage makes a great many assertions which have a like obscure authority. He says that the mathematician will work away with his spiritual slate and pencil just the same as here; that the astronomer will study the stars, but without a telescope, as he can make personal excursions from one to the other, and that this rapid transit will probably keep him busy as long as he is interested in the subject; that the painter will have a good time examining the colors of the rainbow and watching the tints of the sunsets of different solar systems, while the musician will have a patent harp to play on and get up choruses to which that of the May festival was only a bagatelle.

Thinning the fruit, when it is quite small, on apple, peach or pear trees, will give better fruit and enough larger to afford as many bushels as can be had from small overcrowded trees. On heavily-loaded trees from two-thirds to three-fourths of the fruit may be taken off to great advantage. The thinning may be performed by cutting off the blossoms with a pair of sheep-shears; or after the fruit is set and is as large as small cherries, or still larger, so as to show defects or insect marks; leaving the largest and best.—Country Gentleman.

JUDGE NOT.

BY HELEN BARCOURT. "Judge ye not," oh, my Christian brother, 'Tis the rock o'er which we fall; Rather, "Love ye one another," Give a helping hand to all.

Correspondence to "The Household." In THE SPIRIT of June 6, the editor says we shall have at Bismarck a building in which he generously invites all his friends, and that he will also be at Topeka and will join heartily in any reunion of The Household department.

JOHN HARRISON, a negro, adjudged a vagrant by the Circuit Court of Jefferson county, Ky., was sold at public auction in Louisville last Wednesday by order of the court. In reality it was only his labor for one year which was sold, and the purchaser, who paid two dollars, was required to give a bond that he will properly care for the negro and keep him well fed and clothed.

FASHION changes in cheese as in everything else. It is not now seen on any table in England save the public ordinary. With the middle class it is handed round in little square pieces, and on the higher tables, it is omitted altogether, being replaced by paté, generally that of foie gras, which is devoured with the greatest gusto when the taste for it is once acquired, and gives rise to conversation on the cruelty practiced toward the ill-fated goose, whose swollen and diseased livers supply the treat.

It is probable that before long the famous Mocha coffee will disappear from the markets of the world, though doubtless some inferior article will usurp its name. The imports have been declining for some time past, and a recent Italian consular report makes known that the once flourishing Mocha or Mokkah, as the writer calls it, is now reduced to a group of sixty poor huts, with about 300 inhabitants, who have hard work to keep body and soul together.

save one Italian, and he is engaged, not in exporting coffee, but in importing European wares for the Arabs.

THE death of a prominent business man of New Britain, Connecticut, has evoked a communication in the Hartford Courant from someone who evidently believes himself a fine example of Connecticut cleverness and thrift. The writer says he bought of the deceased merchant in 1829—he being then at school in New Britain—a two-bladed red bone handled pocket knife, for which he paid twenty-two cents. I was then," he says, "as I have ever been since, inclined to buy, sell, exchange, and try to get gain. My practice was to swap knives from two to ten times each day, always aiming to get a little boot money."

Home Hints.

China picture frames are anticipated. Wild meats will keep rats and mice out of your house. Flowers and shrubs should be excluded from a bed-chamber. Lime sprinkled in fire places during summer months is healthful. Oil paintings hung over the mantel-piece are liable to shrink with the heat.

In many country houses the primitive fashion of filling in a fire-place with branches of evergreens will be revived, as well as the equally old-fashioned custom of placing a great vase before a grate, freshly filled each week with common garden flowers.

Heavy lambrequins and cornices have made way for the simple curtain pole of brass or wood, and with the adoption of the pole comes shorter window draperies. Light materials embroidered in a continuous pattern are much in vogue for window draperies. For windows in country houses Madras muslin in varied tones of color will be employed, while chintz curtains in pretty patterns will be the order for bed-rooms.

Thus when all is said and done in the matter of ornaments for the fire-place, the Japanese umbrella, cut short at the handle, opened and placed in front of the bars, makes one of the most pretty devices conceivable. These exquisitely colored and designed pieces of mechanism come within the reach of almost any pocket, and it is doubtful whether, when turned to the purposes of a grate ornament, they can be exceeded for beauty and general effectiveness.

AMERICAN hard cheese has at length attracted the notice of the House of Commons, and perhaps will in its time absorb as much of the attention of Parliament as sanded cotton, ball-fat butter, and diseased hogs. If the British adulteration laws will only check the trade in this spurious stuff before it seriously injures the great and growing export of genuine American cheese, it will be fortunate for dealers in the latter.

THE case of the Rev. Dr. Lofton of St. Louis, who was thrashed while drunk in a railroad car for insulting a lady, begins to wear a better aspect, and it is probable that he will not lose his pastorate. It appears that he was in very poor health, and had been ordered by his physician to take a vacation; that he started while exceedingly feeble, and a small amount of whiskey, taken as a necessary stimulant, intoxicated him. The lady who created the commotion, by excitedly screaming for protection, now says that he took a seat by her side, talked incoherently, but not in the least indelicately, and put his hand on her shoulder, but whether inadvertently or with an intention of hugging her, she cannot tell. The man who assaulted the minister is a professional gambler. He saw nothing of the insult, but judged by the lady's outcry that it justified a knock-down blow.

The safest way. The safest and surest way to restore the youthful color of the hair is furnished by Parker's Hair Balsam, which is deservedly popular from its superior cleanliness.

THREE boys were shot at Newark the other day, and dangerously; and the calamity is variously ascribed to a toy cannon, which a man caused to be discharged in honor of his neighbor's marriage, and with a pistol with which a lad is said to have joined in at this commemoration. In either case the accident gives a foretaste of what may be expected from toy cannons and pistols on the coming Fourth of July.

It Seems to Satisfy. A family want, and I wonder how we got along without Parker's Ginger Tonic. It cured me of nervous prostration, and I have used it since for all sorts of complaints in our family.—Mrs. Jones, Albany.

Remember This. If you are sick Hop Bitters will surely aid Nature in making you well when all else fails. If you are caustic or dyspeptic, or are suffering from any other of the numerous diseases of the stomach or bowels, it is your own fault if you remain ill, for Hop Bitters are a sovereign remedy in all such complaints.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a receipt that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. Joseph T. Inman, Station D., New York City.

Crops in Republic County.

This is as productive a portion of God's footstool as man need desire to live upon.

Small grains of all kinds bid fair to be good crops. Corn in general was planted early; some seed did not germinate, and some was cut down by the frost about May 1.

We have been having favorable weather for planting hedge and sowing grass seed. Rather cool for corn until this month. Rains have been plenty.

Some emigrants are dropping in, obtaining cheap and desirable farms.

The native grass is growing well, and stock of all kinds doing well and free from disease. Tame grasses have done well here as far as tried.

Hogs are selling at $7 per 100 pounds live weight.

The prospect for the peach crop is good.

Grapes were badly damaged by frost the 21st of May.

We have but few apple trees in bearing.

The potato crop looks better than I ever saw it here.

Chinch bugs have done no damage here yet.

Work seems to be plenty and hands scarce.

"UNCLE SAM'S SEED STORE."

Mr. P. T. Quinn has written a letter in which he declares that the department of Agriculture, familiarly known as "Uncle Sam's Seed Store," has not been worth supporting. He admits that Hon. George B. Loring has not had control of the department long enough to make it evident whether his administration will be successful, but it is Mr. Quinn's opinion that unless the department is made more useful than it has been heretofore it should be abolished.

There is no disease with which sheep are afflicted more to be dreaded than this, none more erratic in its attacks, and none where we know so little of the causes that induce it.

Unless a great change unannounced within ten days, the prospect of the grape crop in France are all that could be desired wherever the phylloxera has spared the vines.

there has not been a finer promise within the memory of man, and the owners of the vineyards are congratulating themselves upon a true comet year.

Fast Walking Contests. The leading agricultural societies of the country could not do a better thing for the horse-breeding interests of the United States than to offer large prizes for fast-walking horses.

Who has not felt disgusted with the horse that will trot along at a good rate of speed, but when you come to a piece of road where the trot is out of the question, and the walk has to be resorted to, will only creep along at a snail's pace?

Mr. Thomas Lewis, 62 Butler street, informs us that for seven years he was afflicted with that deadly malady, Sciatitis, and being induced to try St. Jacobs Oil, found almost immediate relief therefrom, and is now perfectly cured.

Abortions in Cattle. The causes which produce "spontaneous" abortions are very numerous; they may act directly or indirectly, and may be ranged as external or internal. Our best authors are of the opinion that, of external causes, atmospheric influences play an important part.

Liver, Kidney, and Bright's Disease. A medicine that destroys the germ or cause of Bright's disease, diabetes, kidneys, and liver complaints, and has power to root them out of the system, is above all price.

About Bees. ALL colonies which have been hived in empty frames should be examined frequently to see that they are building the combs straight in the frames.

Why Welcome? What makes Floreston Cologne welcome on every lady's toilet table is its rich and lasting fragrance.

Bare-Foot Horses. "No shoe, no horse," runs the old saw, but I say "nay, that is not true." Not a nail has been driven in any hoof in my stable since February, 1881.

Becklen's Anker Salve. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, toiler, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all kinds of skin eruptions.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM. This elegant dressing is preferred by those who have used it, to any similar article, on account of its superior cleanliness and purity.

PARKER'S GINGER TONIC. A Superlative Health and Strength Restorer. If you are a mechanic or farmer, worn out with overwork, or a mother run down by family or household duties try PARKER'S GINGER TONIC.

FLORESTON. Its rich and lasting fragrance has made this delightful perfume exceedingly popular. There is nothing like it.

KIDNEY WORT. HAS BEEN PROVED THE SUREST CURE FOR KIDNEY DISEASES. Does a lame back or disordered urine indicate that you are a victim? WHEN DO NOT DESIST!
