PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE CONTEST

The Leoti FFA Chapter officers won the State Parliamentary Procedure Contest with Winfield--second, Columbus -- third, and Jewell--fourth. The awards were provided by the Feredal Land Bank of Wichita.

Some FFA members will be interested in the questions asked during the contest.

A motion has been brought before the house to postpone the question indefinitely. It is seconded.

Another member amends the motion to read:

that we postpone the question until our next regular meeting. What is the next step to be taken by the President?

President would say: You are out of order. The Answer:

motion to postpone definitely is not amendable.

When can a motion to take a recess be debated? Question:

Only when no other business is pending because it is then considered a main motion.

Judges for the State Parliamentary Procedure Contest were Vernon Geissler of the Kansas State University Placement Center, David Mugler of the Kansas State University College of Agriculture, and Larry Erpelding of the Kansas State University Ag Education staff.

CHAPTER AWARD PROGRAM REPORT

The Kansas Association has continued to use the State Gold Emblem, the Superior, and the Standard Chapter Awards in recognizing the merit of local FFA chapter no programs. aradeado

10. Ellinwood

The Kansas Gold Emblem chapters were selected from the chapters that ranked in the Superior Division of the National Chapter Awards Program. Only ten percent of the State's chapters can receive the Gold Emblem Award. Each chapter which receives the Superior Award for the first time will receive a plaque from the National FFA Foundation. A chapter receiving either the Standard or Superior Award will receive a smaller plastic classification plate for attachment to their plaques. The Gold Emblem chapters receive a State certificate. Each chapter which receives the Gold Emblem Award for the first time will receive a plaque from the Sears-Roebuck Foundation. A chapter receiving the Gold Emblem Award after receiving the award earlier will receive a spur to be attached to the original plaque.

There was a total of 84 chapters who submitted reports of their chapter programs during the 1967-68 FFA year. The results of these National Emblem Award reports are as follows:

SCRAPBOOK CONTEST

Eleven scrapbooks were displayed during the State FFA Convention. This contest not only increases interest among local chapter reporters to organize and display scrapbooks, but also provides other chapter members and advisors an opportunity to gain ideas for possible use in their chapters. Possibly this is the most important value of the contest.

Winning the Scrapbook Contest was the Council Grove and Oakley Reporters. These reporters received a leather briefcase from the High Plains Journal which was represented by Mr. Hal Wills.

The following is a summary of the programs of the State Foundation Award winners

Beef Production

Kenneth Conway has twenty high grade Angus cattle. He produced 11,300 pounds of beef last year with a one hundred percent calf crop. He used latest sprays for parasites and vaccinated all calves. He uses a selected registered Angus bull. He has built in the vocational agriculture shop a new loading chute, cutting pens, and other equipment.

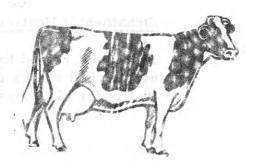

Crops Production

Harlan Davies had ninety-five acres of crops in 1967. This included twenty-eight acres of wheat, forty-two acres of milo, and twenty-five acres of beans. His wheat averaged thirty-three bushels per acre, his milo sixty-three bushels, and his beans thirty bushels. He uses approved practices in crop production and soil management. He has built and repaired crop equipment in shop.

Dairy Production

William Wagner has six Holstein cows in his dairy herd. Their average milk production for 1967 was 12,500 pounds and 430 pounds of butterfat. He uses artificial insemination and follows the best feeding practices for his herd. He is a member of D. H. I. A.

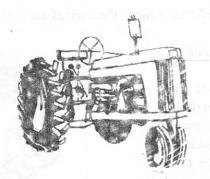

Farm Electrification

L. David Hubbell has wired his home, farm, and vocational agriculture shop. He has assisted neighbors in the use of electricity. He has had the responsibility of wiring his home, the barn, and the garage. He drew up the plans for each of these prior to the wiring. He has repaired two coffee pots, numerous toasters, an air compressor, three motors, two yard lights, numerous extension cords, and switches. He has completed work in the vocational agriculture department, one consisting of the wiring of several electric boards. One of the major jobs completed at school was to wire and set a fuse box. He has been of assistance to his neighbors in wiring their homes.

Farm Forestry

Larry Bailey started his forestry in his freshman year with 1500 Scotch and Colorado Blue Spruce from the University of Kansas. In his sophomore year he established a Pecan grove of 300 seedlings. In 1968, 125 apple trees of several varieties were planted. He has installed an irrigation system in his apple orchard. He plans to enter a forestry school next year and then become a State Forester.

Farm Mechanics

Jim Switzer owns a complete set of shop equipment including arc and gas welders. He has built and assisted building a barn, corrals, loading chutes, sorting pens, and other livestock equipment. He has displayed machinery at the fair and has won many awards in shop.

Home Improvement

Jerry Lewman helped build an addition to the family farm home. New fences we re constructed around the farmstead. A new picket fence around the yard as well as establishing a lawn was accomplished in 1967. The barn was painted and out buildings repaired and painted.

Natural Resources Development

Gilbert Loewen has an extensive program of raising wildlife and game birds. He has raised pet coyote, coons, and other wild animals. He has quail and pheasants for sale.

Ornamental Horticulture

John Back raised tomato plants. He established a rock garden and built a trellis for his roses.

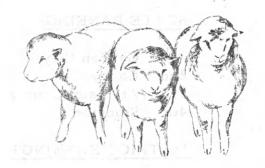

Poultry Production

Dan Oplotnik has six hundred Leghorn hens in his laying flock. His average production was seventy percent from September to January. He buys day old pullets and raises them to production age. The eggs are cleaned, graded, and sold locally to grocery stores, restaurants, and individuals.

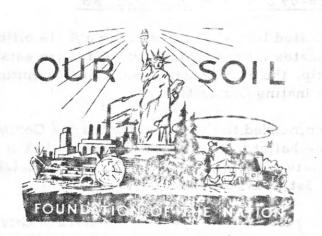

Sheep Production

Rodney Carsten is a junior at Stockton High. School and had a total of 153 sheep in 1967. He produced a total of nearly 5,000 pounds of lambs last year. He weaned a 130% lamb crop. He is very conscientious of feed efficiency and approved practices by weighing them at birth and at weaning, proper identification, figuring and mixing feed rations, and making the best use of antibiotics and vaccination to control disease and improper feed efficiency to control internal and external parasites. He shears his own sheep and markets the wool with the Midwest Wool Cooperative. He anticipates increasing his wool crop next year.

Soil Conservation

Jackie Rathbun has been actively involved in soil conservation for a number of years. He now operates a 160 acre farm which he subleases from his father. Prior to his taking over this farm, a soil conservation plan had not been made. Through his effort a complete plan has now been made with the cooperation of the Soil Conservation Service. Through proper grazing, spraying of bindweed, crop rotation, and proper fertilization, the yield has doubled. Additional terraces and waterways are planned for 1968. A complete plan for future needs has been made by Jackie.

Swine Production

Leonard Schaben had forty sows in his breeding herd and sold 784 hogs last year. He produced 74,800 pounds of pork. His average litter size was 9.8 pigs. The pigs are sold as feeder pigs. Leonard uses a high quality herd boar and has started selling breeding stock. He plans to build a forty crate farrowing barn and increase his herd to two hundred sows.

ANNOUNCEMENT

NEW OFFICERS TO START ACTIVITIES

It doesn't take long for new officers to become involved in their new responsibilities. These new officers will be very busy during the coming year and will have opportunity to meet many local FFA members.

Some of the most immediate responsibilities facing the new officers will be:

- 1. A trip to Washington, D. C., to the National FFA Conference for one State officer from each State. This conference will permit a new State officer to observe first-hand the operation of the Federal government and the National FFA organization.
- 2. Attendance at Camp Miniwanca in Michigan by two State officers.
 - 3. Attending the Sub-Regional Conference in Kansas City by all State officers.
 - 4. State Officer Meeting prior to the Sub-Regional Conference and FFA Camp.
 - 5. Supervising the State FFA Camp.

INVITATION TO CAMP

All local FFA chapter officers for the 1968-69 FFA year and advisors are invited to attend the Ninth State FFA Leadership Training Camp. The camp has been scheduled from 3:00 p.m., August 3, 1968, until 1:00 p.m., August 6, 1968. The camp will be held at Rock Springs Ranch which is located thirteen miles south of Junction City, Kansas.

This camp will help train, motivate, and inspire new chapter officers to carry out their duties and responsibilities. This activity will also assist candidates applying for State Farmer, American Farmer, State officer, and in Superior Chapter Awards. No other one activity can do as much in creating a group spirit in the local chapter officers. Leadership School in September will be patterned after activities at the summer camp.

The camp has also been used as a proving ground for activities at Leadership School. This has been particularly true in Parliamentary Procedure.

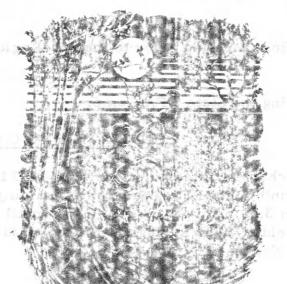

The local 1968-69 chapter officers with their advisor are eligible to attend and will be expected to enroll for the entire camp period. Late arrivals or early departures cannot be accepted. The total cost of the camp will be $13 per person.

This includes nine meals, camp insurance from local community and return, two official FFA Camp T-Shirts, and all facilities available at the camp. Each camper will furnish his own bedroll, towels, toilet articles, personal leadership material, and enthusiasm.

The Kansas Association of Bank Agricultural Representatives (KABAR) is again going to provide the awards for the camp. This group also plans to sponsor a session of the camp emphasizing the free enterprise system and citizenship. Mr. Harold Walker of Arkansas City is the coordinator of FFA and KABAR relations.

The following registration blank asks for a definite committment of chapters wishing to enroll. If more chapters enroll than the camp can accommodate, chapters will be enrolled on a "first-come, first-serve basis." The State office is in need of the number of campers in order to aid planning. The registration blank must be returned by June 15.
