Mrs. Edna Bender Lobenstein was made an honorary club member at the 4-H Club Round-up Banquet in 1931. For five years she served in a creditable manner as assistant state club leader and made hundreds of friends all over the state. The wish of every sincere 4-H Club girl and boy in Kansas to Mrs. Lobenstein (Miss Bender as we knew her) is that her joys may be as deep as the ocean and her sorrows as light as the foam.

The 4-H Round-Up

The event to which all earnest 4-H girls and boys look forward with great enthusiasm is the 4-H Club Round-Up held annually at Kansas State College during the early part of June.

In many respects the Round-Up of 1931 was the best of all. The one thing that raised the moral of the group noticeably over previous years was appearance of all in attendance in the official 4-H Club uniform. The girls wore green dresses trimmed in white; the boys wore white trousers, white shirts, and black ties, and all the adults were dressed in white.

Unquestionably, one main purpose of the Round-Up is to bring together in annual convention 4-H Club people who have an interest in common as a result of their work together.
The program of the Round-Up consisted of inspirational work presented by faculty members, and centered largely around the work of the various 4-H Club projects and related activities. The program of the forenoon was divided into three parts, namely for girls, boys, and leaders. At eleven each day a rally was held in the auditorium, then at one o'clock general assembly. The afternoons were given over to tours and sight seeing trips; the evening programs consisted of singing, movies, and stunts.

The following people outside the college who contributed much to the success of the Round-Up were: Margaret Streeter, who has had charge of music appreciation for five years; James Hartley, nationally known because of his ability on the harmonica; Julia Bourne, who assisted with publishing the Sunflower; and Frederick Carberry, who ably led the group singing.

The banquet, the crowning event of the week, was different in that no principal speaker was on the program. The Kansas Bankers' Association which contributes very generously toward giving prizes for various contests were represented at the banquet by Captain W. J. Watson, president; and Mr. Fred Bowman, secretary. Winners of various contests were announced and numbers by different 4-H Club members made up the program.

During the 1931 Round-Up, the combined orchestras of 4-H Clubs made their first appearance under the direction of Prof. Lyle Downey, college orchestra leader. The orchestras from Barton, Butler, Geary, and Morris Counties and the Sedgwick County band were combined into a new organization, the first Kansas 4-H Club orchestra.
Kansas 4-H Clubs are indebted to the extension division of Kansas State College for faithful supervision and encouragement. Seventy-eight of the extension workers are county agents, thirty-two are home demonstration agents, and two are county club agents.

Especial appreciation is extended to:
- Mr. M. H. Coe, State 4-H Club Leader.
- Miss Lora Hilyard, Assistant State Club Leader.
- Mr. A. J. Schoth, Assistant State Club Leader.
- Miss Mabel R. Smith, Assistant State Club Leader.

A great deal of the successful co-operation of the department with the club work is due to the forceful personality and willing endeavor of Dean H. Umbarger who has been in charge of the extension division for thirteen years.
The Round-Up banquet is a climax to one of the most interesting weeks which a club boy or girl can spend. Everyone who attends Round-Up is there, also visitors interested in club work, and fathers and mothers are present to hear the program, enjoy a banquet of good fellowship, and thrill to the cheering as county awards and individual prizes are given for the work of the week.

At the banquet for 1931, pennants with the county name placed county delegations at the respective tables. Streamers of green and white, the club colors, decorated the gymnasium, and daisies and other wild flowers were arranged to lend a festive air to the banquet hall.

Florence Melchert, winner of the Moses Leadership Trophy Award for 1930, acted as toastmistress. The program consisted of musical numbers, presentation of awards, and announcement of the Honorary Club Member, Mrs. Edna Bender Lobenstein.

The Kansas Collegiate 4-H Club, organized in 1927, is one of the “up-and-coming” organizations at Kansas State College. The members have a basic interest, their 4-H Club work. Added to this interest are congenial friends, good times, and a cause for working together and the Collegiate 4-H Club becomes a college activity that a 4-H Club member cannot afford to miss.

During its fifth year, the club boasts a total of 175 active members. The club publishes the Who's Whooot, maintains a loan fund, sponsors 4-H Club radio programs, and holds a Fall Banquet which has been an annual affair since 1929.

This last year the Collegiate 4-H Club held one business meeting and one social meeting each month; it adopted formal initiation of members and formal installation of officers. It also acquired a club room for meetings and for the first time held a spring party.
Kansas 4-H Club Radio Program

Through its radio program which is broadcast from Station KSAC, the 4-H Club sends out new lights and information to members in the state. The 4-H Club radio half-hour is familiar to thousands of boys and girls in Kansas as a time when they can “listen in” and feel intimately related to fellow members speaking and singing before the “mike”.

This half-hour period is scheduled for every Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday afternoons from 4:30 to 5:00 o’clock. This year, those in charge have been stressing programs of an educational and inspirational nature. On Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, the programs are devoted to music appreciation work which has been actively progressing throughout the state within the last few years. Music, readings, and educational lectures are featured on Monday and Friday afternoons.

The 4-H Club Radio programs are presented under the auspices of the Collegiate 4-H Club. This year Frank Parsons, a member of the Collegiate 4-H Club, has been in active charge of the program. He has proven himself a most capable manager.
The most popular quartet on the college campus was organized in 1929 by the following charter members: Hugh Bruner, John Hanna, Earl Regnier, and Leonard Rees. The present line-up is: Hanna, baritone; Regnier, second tenor; Rees, tenor; of the original team, Dale Edelblute, bass; and Miss Mable Russell, accompanist.

The quartet was organized to sing at the first annual 4-H banquet. The boys have sung at each annual 4-H banquet held since 1929, at three Farm and Home Week banquets, and at two National 4-H achievement broadcasts from station WREN at Lawrence. During the past season on a Go-to-College tour, the boys visited 19 towns, traveling approximately 1,000 miles.

Besides these larger programs, the quartet is constantly called upon to contribute to church and literary society programs, and many other functions. The club regrets that this is the last year for the seniors: Hanna, Regnier, and Rees.
BANQUET AND DINNER DANCE

The third annual Collegiate 4-H Club dinner dance was held at Thompson Hall, December 11, 1931. This most successful event was enjoyed by more than 170 Collegiate 4-H Club members and their guests.

The main feature on the banquet program was an inspirational talk on “Handling Your Handicaps,” by Dr. Claude W. Sprouse, pastor of the Grace and Holy Trinity Church, Kansas City, Missouri.

The remainder of the program consisted of a violin solo, Inez McMahan; numbers by the Collegiate 4-H quartet; xylophone solo, Harold Kugler; vocal solo, Opal Bowers; and an unannounced “chatter” by an old farmer (Earl Coulter in disguise) who pulled some fast ones on some of the “innocent” present. Earl Regnier acted as toastmaster and Florence Melchert as toast-mistress.

Last but not least was the dance which turned out to be a real mixer that all will remember as a good time together.

RECOGNITION
The Who's Who Club

With a present total membership of 630 members, the Who's Who 4-H Club is one of the strongest factors in promoting 4-H Club work throughout the state. This club, organized at the first round-up nine years ago, is elected from 4-H Club members representing the upper 10 per cent of the club members in each county. The new members are elected at the annual meeting of the Who's Who Club, held during round-up week. There were 76 new members initiated in 1931.

The officers elected for the current year are: President, George McColm, Lyon County; Vice President, Andrew Olson, Geary County; and Secretary-treasurer, Lucille Piper, Sherman County.

LEADERSHIP
The Master 4-H Club of Kansas, organized in Manhattan in June, 1929, is composed of all club members who have won national recognition in 4-H leadership.

The new members for 1931 were: Veva Crispin, Jewell County; Florence Melchert, Franklin County; Milton Kohrs, Dickinson County; George L. McColm, Lyon County; and Pius Hostetler, Harper County.

All members have been awarded trips to the National Encampment at Washington, D. C., with the exception of Pius Hostetler. In recognition for his work as a leader, he was chosen a delegate to the Leadership Training School at Springfield, Massachusetts.

The members, and the years in which they were delegates are as follows: 1927, Louise Lumb, Clay County; Mary Tilton, Mitchell County; Frank Parsons, Sherman County; and Frank Zitnik, Cherokee County. 1928, Lois Starbuck, Sherman County; Nola McCormick, Sedgwick County; Leonard Rees, Dickinson County; and Lloyd Davies, Lyon County. 1929, Ellen Blair, Franklin County; Mary Hellmer, Lyon County; Boyd Worthington, Harper County; and Ben Kohrs, Dickinson County. 1930, Jeanette Gamble, Montgomery County; Olga Larson, Lincoln County; Gaylord Munson, Geary County; and Albert Pease, Bourbon County.

A meeting of the Master 4-H Club is held at the Round-Up each year. These meetings serve as centers for discussion of leadership problems and activities as well as being social gatherings for the renewal of acquaintances.

Present officers are Gaylord Munson, president; Milton Kohrs, vice president; and Florence Melchert, secretary-treasurer.
National Encampment

Those people fortunate enough to achieve that objective of all earnest club workers—a trip to Washington, D. C., to the National Encampment—were Veva Crispin, Jewell County; Florence Melchert, Franklin County; George L. McColm, Lyon County; and Milton Kohrs, Dickinson County. Kansas representatives chosen for this camp win their honor through participation in leadership activities over a period of years.

As the camp was held June 17 to 23, the Kansas delegates left Kansas City June 14 via the Santa Fe to Chicago. In Chicago they visited the Aquarium, Board of Trade Building, and National Broadcasting Studio. Their next stop was at Harper’s Ferry and from there they traveled to Fredericksburg by bus. The group had dinner at the Francis Scott Key Hotel and then visited the battlefield at Gettysburg. In Washington the camp was held in the park just below the newly landscaped grounds in front of the Agricultural Building.

The program for the week consisted of tours, inspirational talks, conferences and assemblies. A part of each evening program was broadcast by the NBC chain.

Among the places of interest visited were the White House, Smithsonian Institute, Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Mt. Vernon, and Arlington National Cemetery.
Leader of Merit

Martha Lou Perkins is the girl who won the Folger Scholarship for 1931. This award of one hundred and fifty dollars is given annually by the Folger Coffee Company of Kansas City, Missouri, as a recognition of outstanding leadership.

Martha Lou began her club work in Leavenworth County, but since 1929 she has been a member and leader of the Sunflower Club in Douglas County. During her club career she has completed projects in six different lines of work and has taken part in thirty-seven public demonstrations.

The scholarship award has won trips to the Round-Up at Manhattan, to the National Club Congress at Chicago, and was one of the two Kansas girls to go to the leaders’ training school at Shelby, Michigan, in 1930.

Martha Lou’s leadership ability is demonstrated by the fact that her club carried twelve projects while she was leader, and won the State Model Club Meeting contest in 1930. She also organized a pre-4-H Club sewing club for little girls in her community and assisted in organizing a 4-H Club at Haskell. She is a member of the Who’s Who, 4-H Club of Kansas.
George McColm, a member of the Fremont 4-H Club in Lyon County, was awarded the 1931 Folger Scholarship for outstanding leadership service in 4-H Club work. The award of one hundred fifty dollars will be used in continuing work at Kansas State College where George is enrolled as a sophomore.

Since he joined the club in 1923, he has completed projects in swine, poultry, sheep, corn, canning, kafir and leadership work. Outstanding honors he has achieved are: a trip to the National Club Camp at Washington, D. C., and the Thomas A. Edison 4-H Club medal for outstanding club work in his county.

Since 1928, George has been a leader of his local club. He organized a local gardeners' association and a marketing association of which he was elected vice president. In 1930, a 4-H Club tour of the city of Emporia was arranged in order to give club members of Emporia and vicinity an opportunity to get acquainted with their home town. George was largely responsible for the planning and success of this tour.

CHICAGO TRIP WINNERS

The National Club Congress held annually in Chicago has proved to be a very stimulating, inspiring, and worthwhile event in the 4-H Club program of Kansas. At the Tenth National 4-H Club Congress on November 27 to December 5, the delegation from Kansas totaled 81 including both leaders and members. The Sedgwick County 4-H Club Band increased the attendance. The boys and girls who are fortunate enough to win a trip to the National Club Congress are given an opportunity to compare standards of 4-H Club practices and products, and to visit the educational, art, and business centers of Chicago.

AGRICULTURAL DEMONSTRATION TEAM

The demonstration team contests held one of the foremost places on the 4-H program at the state fair this year. The Ag Demonstration team of Lyon County won first at the Round-Up so was entitled to a free trip to the National Club Congress at Chicago and was declared state champion demonstration team. The team members were Vernal Roth and Antone Smith. They were coached by Carl L. Howard, County Agricultural Agent of Lyon County. These same boys competed at both Topeka and Hutchinson Fairs with a different demonstration and won second at each place.

DAIRY JUDGING TEAM

This team competed at Hutchinson State Fair and won first. It was entitled to a free trip to the National Dairy Exposition at St. Louis where it placed third in competition with 24 other state teams. Team members were: Claude Bell, Clarence Bell, and Roy Jackson of Rawlins County. The team was coached by James Linn, Extension Dairyman, and R. W. Stumbo, County Agricultural Agent of Rawlins County.

LIVESTOCK JUDGING TEAM

Judging is a distinct part of the club program and is a phase of 4-H Club work that is attracting more interest each year. The team from Saline County placed first in Livestock Judging in the state. The members were Howard Moreen, Arnold Carlson, Lester Zerbe, and Jack Carlin, alternate. They were coached by J. B. Taylor, County Club Agent.

The record of the Livestock Judging team is as follows:

First, State Round-Up at Manhattan, Kansas Free Fair, and Kansas State Fair.

Second, American Royal and Hays 4-H Round-Up.

The team competed at the International at Chicago.

The Fremont 4-H Club was organized in 1925 with sixteen charter members. This organization has been outstanding in group activities, and individual project work. The junior leadership with adult advisory has been well demonstrated by seven years of successful group endeavor.

The Fremont club has been represented at the Chicago Club Congress by a State or County trip winner each year since its organization. Fifteen members have won project trips to the American Royal, and two members have represented Kansas at the National 4-H Club Camp at Washington. This club has been honored by eleven state Who's Who club members; and seven members of the Lyon County Wowitan Club, the Lyon county super-club.

Ruth rode in my new cycle car
In the seat in back of me;
I took a bump at fifty-five,
And rode on ruthlessly.

During an intense love scene in the movies, when the hero was doing his stuff, Emma Louise Manchester said to Bill Myers.
Why is it that you never make love to me like that?
Say, do you know the salary that guy gets for doing that?

Jones bought a radio, and was informed by the salesman that he could use his bed springs as an aerial. A few days later Jones wrote a letter to the radio company and said: “I finally managed to drag the bed springs up on the roof, but my wife objects to sleeping up there this bad weather.”

SUCCESSFUL PRODUCTION
Is a highly constructive training stressed in 4-H Club work.

SUCCESSFUL MARKETING
Is extremely essential in order to get the best financial results.

The OPEN COMPETITIVE MARKET, with its nation wide demand, insures the highest possible success in marketing.

The KANSAS CITY STOCK YARDS is the place where open active competition is available for all.

NO SHIPMENT TOO LARGE—NO SHIPMENT TOO SMALL—
To be handled with care and to receive the attention of the many buyers.

The Kansas City Stock Yards Company and
The American Royal Live Stock Show
Congratulate 4-H CLUB MEMBERS
On their high standard of production and their proper methods of marketing.

   Mr. Coe: What did my little girl learn in school today?
   Marion Louise: Oh, Daddy, I don't have to educate you all over again, do I?

   Frank Parsons and Merle Crispin were at the theater for the first time.
   Frank noticed the word "Asbestos" printed on the curtain.
   "Merle, what does Asbestos on the curtain mean?"
   "Be still, Frank, don't show your ignorance. That is Latin for 'Welcome'."

   When Earl Johnson was asked to speak at a 4-H meeting,
   He felt in all his pockets
   For his speech extempore,
   Then sadly said, I don't know where
   That darned old speech can be,
   I know that it began, "This is
   A great surprise to me."
We have always highly approved the purpose and work that is being carried on by the 4-H Club. It is a pleasure as well as a privilege to co-operate and assist in every way possible this praise-worthy cause and to extend a hearty invitation to all those who make up this splendid body of young folks and who comprise its membership, the use of the facilities our organization have to offer that will be of benefit in the showing and disposition of their exhibits.

HINTS ON ETIQUETTE

The best calling cards are four aces. When spreading your hat for a lady to sit upon, always remember to first take it off.

It is possible to be a gentleman at all times—even in a Ford Coupe.

The splendid accomplishments of the past and the work now being done by the 4-H Club mean much to the future of this country.

We offer our congratulations and wish to assure the 4-H boys and girls of our continued interest and co-operation.
