

THE SPIRIT OF KANSAS.

LAWRENCE, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1877.

We offer to any one who will obtain for THE SPIRIT OF KANSAS, prior to January 1, 1878, the largest list of cash subscribers...

CO-OPERATIVE LABOR.

Poverty is spoken of as a great evil. It is, and its ugly features are often delineated by the public press; but how seldom is the wealth of the rich brought into notice and portrayed as an evil of scarcely less magnitude.

We can see no permanent cure for these evils which exist in society but that which will result from a perfect organization of labor, a true co-operation, man with man, class with class, and interest with interest.

We bring forward this illustration of the practical working of co-operation in a single sphere because it is a living fact, obvious to all who are desirous of looking at it or testing its workings.

SOME GOOD READING.

A former secretary of the United States treasury embodied in his annual report the following just sentiments in regard to American labor and laborers.

This is the kind of co-operation which we advocate and which the Patrons have been trying to inaugurate.

The only reason why they have not attained a larger measure of success is because they have not presented a united front and a determined will; they have not worked as men should work when they have great interests at stake and a great good to attain.

The energetic American freeman can and does perform far more effective labor in a day than what is called by the restrictionists, the pauper labor of Europe; and, therefore, the employer here can pay more for a day's toil to our workmen.

EDITOR SPIRIT:—I see you have opened your columns for a free discussion on both sides of a question now before the people of this county that I think of grave importance, namely, shall we elect Mr. James E. Watson to the office of county treasurer after already holding that office for five years, or will he hold it that length of time when his present term expires, or had the people better make a change and have a full and final settlement with our treasurer so that we can all know the exact financial condition of our county?

WHAT COMMISSIONER DESKINES SAYS ABOUT IT. LAWRENCE, October 22, 1877. To Col. Johnson, Chairman of Republican Central Committee:—You are of the 15th inst. is before us as published in the Home Journal.

WHAT EX-COMMISSIONER CLARK SAYS OF IT. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 22, 1877. ION JOHN DESKINES—Dear Sir:—Your letter received. I cannot come up to-day; my family is sick.

GENERAL NEWS. THE public school building at Charleston, Iowa, was completely destroyed by fire on Tuesday night.

By Matthews, to amend the bankrupt act. By Ingalls, to fix the date of the meeting of the forty-fifth regular congress upon November 2.

parties interested, and desire to shirk to responsibility.

As regards the settlement of 1874 wherein "a four-thousand-dollar error" has been discovered, I have to say that, at the time the settlement was made, the treasurer's accounts and vouchers were carefully examined and the footings made by Mr. S. L. Clark.

JOHN DESKINES, Chairman of the Board, WHAT EX-COMMISSIONER CLARK SAYS OF IT.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 22, 1877. ION JOHN DESKINES—Dear Sir:—Your letter received. I cannot come up to-day; my family is sick.

I footed the figures of the settlement of county treasurer for the year 1874, and feel confident that the account balanced at the time, for the following reason: The first time I footed there was a difference of a few cents, and you said that that was near enough, but I replied that if there was a mistake in the footing of a few cents there might be a difference of a few dollars or a few thousand dollars, and I footed it again and found it balanced.

Yours, etc., S. L. CLARK. WHAT CAPTAIN MORSE SAYS ABOUT IT.

LAWRENCE, Kans., Oct. 22, 1877. CAPT. O. E. MORSE, Accountant, County Clerk's Office—Dear Sir:—As you have been employed on the books and accounts of ex-County Clerk T. B. Smith, will you please give me, for public information, the facts in relation to the discrepancy of $4,000 discovered by yourself in the county treasurer's report filed in the county clerk's office, July 29, 1874?

S. E. W. JOHNSON, Chairman Rep'n County Committee. REPLY.

COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE, } October 22, 1877. S. E. W. JOHNSON, Chairman Republican County Committee—Dear Sir:—In reply to your letter, I would say that I discovered the discrepancy of four thousand dollars in the statement made by Treasurer Watson and filed in this office July 29, 1874, some time in September or October, 1876.

The treasurer's books show a balancing or closing item, July 1874, of $54,192.73, the balance carried up to the new account is $50,192.73. The figure has been changed, and it is presumable that originally it was $54,192.73.

Now, Mr. Editor, as will be seen by the accompanying letters from two of the Reform commissioners and from Mr. Morse, the accountant appointed by the Reform board, there is something wrong in the treasurer's office, and we ask the voters of Douglas county if in their sober judgment it would not be for the best interest of the people to make a change in our treasurer.

The Household.

Maxims for Farmers' Boys. To be useful, be industrious. To be respected, be willing to do your duty in all situations.

RICE CAKES.—One cup cold boiled rice, one pint of flour, two eggs beaten light, salt, and milk to make a pretty thick batter.

FLANNEL CAKES.—One quart of milk, three tablespoonfuls yeast, and salt to taste. Flour to make a batter.

CHICKEN CELERY WITHOUT OIL.—Take two chickens; boil until tender; chop quite fine; take double the quantity of celery that you have of chicken, chopped fine, and mix; then take three eggs, beat well, and mix with a cup of vinegar; a large tablespoonful of melted butter; a small tablespoonful of mixed mustard; salt and pepper to taste; stir the whole together over a moderate fire until quite thick; when cold, mix with the chicken and celery.

TO COOK BEEFSTEAK.—Cut in thick slices and pound almost to fragments; put a small piece of butter into a frying pan, and carefully lay the meat, peppered and salted, into it; as it browns, add water every few minutes—a few teaspoonfuls at a time; turn often, but do not put a cover on it, and do not let it scorch; when done dredge with flour; turn it over and add a little sweet cream; thin with water until the gravy is of the proper consistency; strain over with parsley, and send to table very hot.

How to Cook Oatmeal.—Very often this nutritious article of diet is objectionable because not properly prepared. When it is to be made as food, select the coarse, recently ground meal.

WANTED.—To make a permanent engraving with a deryman having leisure, or a BRASS ENGRAVER, to introduce in Douglas county, the CELEBRATED NEW CENTENNIAL EDITION OF THE HOLY BIBLE.
