

SPIRIT OF KANSAS

Journal of Home and Household

VOL. II.—NO. 10.

LAWRENCE, FOR THE WEEK ENDING MARCH 8, 1873.

WHOLE NO. 57.

LAWRENCE

ENTERPRISE NURSERIES,

3½ MILES SOUTH-EAST OF THE CITY.

A General Nursery Stock—Home Grown.

Evergreens and Flowering Shrubs a Specialty.

Address, for Price List,

JOHNSON & ALBERTSON,
LAWRENCE, KANSAS.

FARMERS OF KANSAS!

LOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS!

Turn Every Dollar to the Best Advantage!

Buy Goods Where You Can Buy Cheapest!

L. BULLENE & CO.,
NO. 89 MASSACHUSETTS STREET, LAWRENCE,

Pledge themselves to furnish you with every thing pertaining to the Dry Goods trade as near the cost of production as it is possible to place them in the hands of the consumer.

Superior Business Facilities which we possess enable us to do so.

WE BUY OUR GOODS FOR CASH.

WE BUY AT FIRST HANDS.

We buy in conjunction with one of

The Largest Dry Goods Houses in the West

Our two houses doing a business in the aggregate of nearly

A MILLION OF DOLLARS PER ANNUM!

Thereby realizing all the advantages in low prices and discounts obtained by the largest buyers.

WE SELL FOR CASH!

We conduct our business upon economical principles, and the proportion of our expenses to the magnitude of our business is small. For these reasons we

CAN AFFORD TO SELL LOWER

Than any other house in the city, and are unquestionably able to sell goods as low as it can be done on any known business principle.

WE ARE SATISFIED WITH SMALL PROFITS,

And believe that low prices and Square Dealing Will Command Trade.

L. BULLENE & CO.
LAWRENCE, February 14, 1873.

THE TRIBULATIONS OF CHANGE.
BY MRS. DOWNS.

There is a whisper abroad on this chill March air that there is to be a change in the order of things; that with the coming of the violet and the green leaf, the feminine form is to inaugurate a "new departure;" in other words, panier, full skirts, flowing draperies, &c., are to be discarded, and narrow, scant skirts, peaked coiffures with altitudinous hats, etc., will be the rage.

There will be one comfort out of all this tribulation of change, and that is, whereas ultra fashion prescribes thirty and forty yards for a dress, not long since, the same number will now make two or three dresses. There is no surer sign that the years are creeping on apace, than the growing indisposition in our minds to revolutions. Grandmother, from her corner, hears the flippant chatter about changes of style and trimmings, and sighs wearily, saying to herself, Dear! dear! Why can't things stay as they are? what is the use of all this change, and work, and disturbance? things are well enough now; do let them be!

The feeble hands stretch a little closer to the warm blaze of the open fire, the rheumatic limbs ache a little with the fresh draught of air rushing in at the door opened by some careless young new comer; and we, half way between the dear old Grandma who is tired of ruffles and flummery, and the chit of a girl who is studying the latest style of top-knot, bias and gore, we indeed, realize to us has already come that wears into the flesh, i. e., considering how last year's toggery shall be rendered subservient to this year's change in style and fit. We find ourselves fast drifting into that "lean and slippered" existence where comfort is the first law of nature, and the exactions of fashion and custom become tyrannical.

Nevertheless, no sooner does the edict go out into all the land that the hair shall be worn high, than our arms and shoulders begin to ache with sundry gyrations, holding aloft a flowing mass of hair and rolling it over a cushion to be worn directly above the seat of the brain, thus causing undue heat and excitement in that nervous centre, as if, in all conscience, a woman's nerves did not have enough to weigh upon them, without an extra burden atop of all!

But never mind if we are set on fire internally, up goes the hair when the law is laid down.

Grandma shakes her head resignedly as she looks at all of us, and peacefully soothes her silver locks over her brow, calmly thankful that for such as she top-knots are by-gones!

When I was in New York last summer, a belle on Thirty-Fourth St. in one of those palatial brown stone fronts, calmly assured me that the Boston Jubilee people nearly stared her out of countenance a day or two before, during a hasty grip to the Hub.

"Why so?" I inquired.

"Well," she replied, languidly, "I don't know, unless they had not been used to seeing people wear their hair in this style; a fashion gets pass in New York before they take it up in Boston." "And sometimes," I replied, "they never take it up at all." (In this instance, I was quite sure that I had not seen a single piquant Boston face wearing that look of semi-idocy superinduced by cutting off the front hair, leaving it an even length of about one inch and a half, brushed down smoothly over the forehead almost to the eyebrows. I thought of Anna Dickinson's famous subject for a lecture, "Idiots and Women.")

Her panier was something fearful to behold; she could not without inconvenience sit on any ordinary chair. The skirt was a demi-train of heavy silk; the weight of the whole attire was oppressive, even in fancy to me, with the thermometer ranging anywhere between 100 and 110 degrees. Fashion had nearly slain her subject; she was a frail lily, white languid, drooping.

"I really must get Rose off into the country," said her sister "I think she will die if she stays two weeks longer in the city; she has not as much life as a sick bird."

But she had unmistakable style! (One does not need very much intellect if one has plenty of style.)

The Kansas City "Journal of Commerce," made me responsible not long since, for describing a toilet I saw in Atchison, as belonging to myself. I said "one stunning toilet consisted of, &c.," and those little witches that manipulate the type, made me to proclaim to all the metropolis, that "our stunning toilet consisted of a white satin trained skirt and blue velvet tunic, &c." I spoke of its sweeping longitude; they said scraping longitude! I spoke of the extravagance of white satin at six dollars a yard trailing in the dust, and altogether as they made it appear that I was describing my own toilet, the effect on my mind was somewhat as horribly startling as that upon the mind of the poet, who published a rhapsody to the lady of his love, dedicating it to her in full; and the first line which should have read

"Thou art my bud, my dove, my rose!"

was made to appear

"Thou art my butt, my door, my nose!"

The next day the "Journal" put a poultice on my lacerated heart by saying that "anybody with a grain of sense might know it was not her own toilet she was describing!"

Grain of sense? Indeed, as if white were not made to appear black in print every day. Ah! was not that a jolly onslaught that Gen. Butler gave to the newspaper men, the other day in Congress?

Newspapers make and unmake men now-a-days. Terrible is the power, and terribly they use it, to crush, and blacken, and destroy!

I dreaded to think how in the days of tribulation, whole cargoes of newspapers with columns of blasted reputations would find their way to a woman's aching eyes and heavy heart. Her creed must ever be, "Thou art all the world forsake thee, yet will not I!"

How many women who lead blameless and lovely lives are in a day shut out from the light of sunshine and heaven in their happy homes by the fierce message of the telegraph and the press, forever henceforth blurring to the four winds the scandal, the crime, the penalty, that has come about their quiet hearthstones.

Great black monsters that with hissing breath of steam and teeth of steel fasten upon a helpless victim and torture him to the death?

Speak ye always, Oh, tongues of steel! the words of truth and soberness. Wrath and bitterness break the heart and crush the soul. Talking about the tribulations of change, on the Kansas Legislature" will probably be dissolved "in the twinkling of an eye," very soon. Even now perhaps the words are said that will break up this formidable institution which has covered itself with glory as with a garment during these latter days.

For the rapid and persistent passage of resolutions, was there ever a body like unto this body?

I am interested to observe in the daily reports of what they did not do this winter, that a young and rising member of the lower House (when he is sitting down he rises continually.) Several times a day he rises and urges a motion that they go into committee of the whole on "unfinished business," and I find myself wishing that they would take him in hand first thing. He is all head and wings now, like the cherubs that Saxe describes, like new wine, he wants body.

One lamentable thing about the Kansas Legislature is that they don't know how to appreciate martyrs and heroes. They had the genuine thing this winter, and yet what a muddle they made of it, instead of a pure flame! and what a reputation they have made for our State? I had rather be a door keeper in some uninhabited cabin in the wilderness, than a dweller (a member) in the tents of the Kansas Legislature.

WYANDOTTE, March 4th.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in

STOVES. TINWARE
Wooden Ware & House Furnishing Goods.

Galvanized Cornices and Tin Roofing put on Buildings on Short Notice.

92 Massachusetts Street,
LAWRENCE, KANSAS.

W. E. SUTLIFF, J. B. SUTLIFF.
W. E. SUTLIFF & CO.,
MERCHANT TAILORS,
Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Cloths, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Trunks, and GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS,
43 No. 63 Massachusetts Street, Lawrence, Kas.

J. IRA BROWN,
CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER.

REEDY'S PATENT HOISTING MACHINES PUT UP.

Door and Window Frames made to Order.
JOBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
Shop and Office at Kimball Bros., Pinkney St., Lawrence

GEORGE FORD, H. D. WHITMAN.
FORD & WHITMAN,
Wholesale and Retail
GROCERS,
No. 98 Massachusetts Street, corner of Henry,
LAWRENCE, KANSAS.

Full Stock of First Class Goods always on hand, and delivered in the City, free of charge

PLACE HOUSE,
Corner of New Hampshire and Warren Streets,
LAWRENCE, KANSAS.

This House is situated near the business part of the city. We have reduced the fare to 25 cents for single meals, and a night's lodging, with pleasant rooms and good beds, 25 cents.
BOARD $5 PER WEEK.

We claim that this is the best One Dollar per day House west of the Mississippi River. Persons in the habit of stopping at houses where two and three dollars per day are charged, are especially invited to give us a call.
1871
JOHN T. PLACE, Proprietor.

PROF. JAMES JOHNSON,
BARBERSHOP,
OPPOSITE ELDREDGE HOUSE.

In style and quality of workmanship we will not be excelled, and our prices shall be entirely satisfactory.

CALL AND SEE US.

LAWRENCE

BUSINESS COLLEGE,
CORNER MASSACHUSETTS AND WARREN STREETS.

Book-Keeping, Penmanship, Mathematics and General Commercial Branches.

OPEN TO LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.

Students Can Enter at Any Time.

For particulars, call at the school or send for circular.

H. W. MACAULAY, Principal.

REAL ESTATE AND LOAN AGENCY
OF
RIGGS & SINCLAIR,
Proprietors of
DOUGLAS COUNTY ABSTRACT BOOKS.

Loans Negotiated on Real Estate Security.
Abstracts of Title Furnished.
Conveyancers and Notaries Public.
No. 52 Massachusetts Street,
LAWRENCE, KANSAS.

THE LIGHT RUNNING HOWE!
EVERY LADY IS ESPECIALLY INVITED to call and examine the Howe

SEWING MACHINE,
AS NOW IMPROVED,
NO MATTER WHETHER SHE WISHES TO PURCHASE OR NOT.
Easy Monthly Payments Will Secure a Machine!

C. T. JENKINS,
SEWING MACHINE DEALER,
No. 125 Massachusetts Street, Between Henry and Warren,
LAWRENCE, KANSAS.

1858 1873
LAWRENCE FOUNDRY.

KIMBALL BROS.,
Corner Pinkney and Tennessee Streets, Lawrence, Kansas,
MANUFACTURERS OF
Portable and Stationary Engines,
Circular Saw Mills, Shafting, Pulleys, Well-Drilling Machinery,
Store Fronts, Iron Fences and Castings of all Kinds.
We make a SPECIALTY of the manufacture of Steam
Heating Works for Public Buildings, Boilers,
Heaters, Tanks and Jail Work.

WATCHES.
125 Massachusetts Street.
WATCHES, JEWELRY, AND CLOCKS,
The Largest Assortment in the State,
Wholesale & Retail.
Jewelry of every description, Solid Silver Ware, Silver
Plated Ware, etc., cheaper than the cheapest, at
PARSONS' JEWELRY STORE.
N. B.—Watches, Clocks and Jewelry, repaired and warranted, by
H. S. PARSONS.
125 Massachusetts Street.

F. DURRANT,
PRACTICAL MATTRESS MAKER.
ALL KINDS OF MATTRESSES MADE.
Hair and moss mattresses renovated and made equal to new.
Warehouse, Dixie's old stand, corner of Vermont and Winthrop streets, rear of Eldridge House.

NOTICE.

MARY A. McLANE and Rachel McLane, non-residents of the State of Kansas, will take notice that Henry Spitzer did on the 26th day of February, A. D. 1873, file his petition in the District Court, sitting in Douglas County, State of Kansas, against the said Mary A. McLane and Rachel McLane, setting forth that said Plaintiff, Henry Spitzer, is the owner in fee simple, and that he is now in quiet and peaceable possession of the following described Real Estate, to wit: the south east quarter of section No. eleven, (11) in township No. fourteen, (14) of range No. nineteen, (19) in Douglas County, Kansas, praying a judgment against the said Defendants, declaring the title to said Real Estate to be in the said Plaintiff, and the title of the said Defendants to be null and void. The Defendants are required to answer said petition on or before the 6th day of April, A. D. 1873, or said petition will be taken as true, and judgment rendered accordingly.

JAMES M. BRIDY,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

SPIRIT OF KANSAS

Journal of Home and Household.

VOL. II.—NO. 10.

LAWRENCE, FOR THE WEEK ENDING MARCH 8, 1873.

WHOLE NO. 57.

LAWRENCE
ENTERPRISE NURSERIES,
34 MILES SOUTH-EAST OF THE CITY.
A General Nursery Stock—Home Grown.
Evergreens and Flowering Shrubs a Specialty.
Address, for Price List,
JOHNSON & ALBERTSON,
LAWRENCE, KANSAS.
FARMERS OF KANSAS!
LOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS!
Turn Every Dollar to the Best Advantage!
Buy Goods Where You Can Buy Cheapest!
L. BULLENE & CO.,
NO. 89 MASSACHUSETTS STREET, LAWRENCE,
Pledge themselves to furnish you with every thing pertaining to the Dry Goods trade as near the cost of production as it is possible to place them in the hands of the consumer.
Superior Business Facilities which we possess enable us to do so.
WE BUY OUR GOODS FOR CASH.
WE BUY AT FIRST HANDS.
We buy in conjunction with one of
The Largest Dry Goods Houses in the West
Our two houses doing a business in the aggregate of nearly
A MILLION OF DOLLARS PER ANNUM!
Thereby realizing all the advantages in low prices and discounts obtained by the largest buyers.
WE SELL FOR CASH!
We conduct our business upon economical principles, and the proportion of our expenses to the magnitude of our business is small. For these reasons we
CAN AFFORD TO SELL LOWER
Than any other house in the city, and are unquestionably able to sell goods as low as it can be done on any known business principle.
WE ARE SATISFIED WITH SMALL PROFITS,
And believe that low prices and Square Dealing Will Command Trade.
L. BULLENE & CO.
LAWRENCE, February 14, 1873.

NOTICE.
MARY A. McLANE and Rachael McLane, non-residents of the State of Kansas, will take notice that Henry Spitzer filed on the 20th day of February, A. D. 1873, his petition in the District Court, sitting in Douglas County, State of Kansas, against the said Mary A. McLane and Rachael McLane, setting forth that said Plaintiff, Henry Spitzer, is the owner in fee simple, and that said Defendants, Rachael McLane and Rachael McLane, are in possession of the following described Real Estate, to wit: the south-east quarter of section No. 10, township No. 14, range No. 10, in the 10th principal meridian, (11) in township No. 14, range No. 10, in the 10th principal meridian, and that the title to said Real Estate is in said Defendants, declaring the title to said Real Estate to be in said Plaintiff, and the title of the said Defendants to be null and void. The Defendants are required to answer said petition on or before the 6th day of April, A. D. 1873, or said petition will be taken as true, and judgment rendered accordingly.
JAMES M. HENDEY,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

THE TRIBULATIONS OF CHANGE.
BY MRS. DOWNS.
There is a whisper abroad on this chill March air that there is to be a change in the order of things; that with the coming of the violet and the green leaf, the feminine form is to inaugurate a "new departure;" in other words, panier, full skirts, flowing draperies, &c., are to be discarded, and narrow, scant skirts, peaked coiffures with altitudinous hats, etc., will be the rage.
There will be one comfort out of all this tribulation of change, and that is, whereas ultra fashion prescribes thirty and forty yards for a dress, not long since, the same number will now make two or three dresses. There is no surer sign that the years are creeping on apace, than the growing indisposition in our minds to revolutions. Grandmother, from her corner, hears the flippant chatter about changes of style and trimmings, and sighs wearily, saying to herself, Dear! dear! Why can't things stay as they are? what is the use of all this change, and work, and disturbance? things are well enough now; do let them be?
The feeble hands stretch a little closer to the warm blaze of the open fire, the rheumatic limbs ache a little with the fresh draught of air rushing in at the door opened by some careless young new comer; and we, half way between the dear old Grandma who, is tired of ruffles and flummery, and the chit of a girl who is studying the latest style of top-knot, bias and gore, see indeed, realize to us has already come that weariness unto the flesh, &c., considering how last year's toggery shall be rendered subservient to this year's change in style and fit. We find ourselves fast drifting into that "lean and slippered" existence where comfort is the first law of nature, and the exactions of fashion and custom become tyrannical.
Nevertheless, no sooner does the edict go out into all the land that the hair shall be worn high, than our arms and shoulders begin to ache with sundry gyrations, holding aloft a flowing mass of hair and rolling it over a cushion to be worn directly above the seat of the brain, thus causing undue heat and excitement in that nervous centre, as if, in all conscience, a woman's nerves did not have enough to weigh upon them, without an extra burden atop of all?
But never mind if we are set on fire internally, up goes the hair when the law is laid down.
Grandma shakes her head regretfully, as she looks at all of us, and peacefully soothes her silver locks over her brow, calmly thankful that for such as she top-knots are bygone.
When I was in New York last summer, a belle on Thirty-fourth St. in one of those palatial brown stone fronts, calmly assured me that the Boston Jubilee people nearly stared her out of countenance a day or two before, during a hasty trip to the Hub.
"Why so?" I inquired.
"Well," she replied, languidly, "I don't know, unless they had not been used to seeing people wear their hair in this style; a fashion gets passed in New York before they take it up in Boston." "And sometimes," I replied, "they never take it up at all." (In this instance, I was quite sure that I had not seen a single piquant Boston face wearing that look of semi-idiotic superinduced by cutting off the front hair, leaving it at an even length of about one inch and a half, brushed down smoothly over the forehead almost to the eyebrows. I thought of Anna Dickinson's famous subject for a lecture, "Idiotism and Woman.")
Her panier was something fearful to behold; she could not without inconvenience sit on any ordinary chair. The skirt was a demi-train of heavy silk; the weight of the whole attire was oppressive, even in fancy to me, with the thermometer ranging anywhere between 100 and 110 degrees. Fashion had nearly slain her subject; she was a frail, white languid, drooping.
"I really must get Rose off into the country," said her sister, "I think she will die if she stays two weeks longer in the city; she has not as much life as a sick bird."
But she had unmistakable style! (One does not need very much intellect if one has plenty of style.)
The Kansas City "Journal of Commerce," made me responsible not long since, for describing a toilet I saw in Atchison, as belonging to myself. I said "one stunning toilet consisted of, &c., and those little witches that manipulate the type, made me to proclaim to all the metropolises, that "our stunning toilet consisted of a white satin trained skirt and blue velvet tunic, &c." I spoke of its sweeping longitude; they said scrap-ling longitude! I spoke of the extravagance of white satin at six dollars a yard trailing in the dust, and altogether as they made it appear that I was describing my own toilet, the effect on my mind was somewhat as horribly startling as that upon the mind of the poet, who published a rhapsody to the lady of his love, dedicating it to her in full; and the first line which should have read
"Thou art my bud, my dove, my rose!"
was made to appear
"Thou art my butt, my door, my nose!"
The next day the "Journal" put a poultice on my lacerated heart by saying that "anybody with a grain of sense might know it was not her own toilet she was describing!"
Grain of sense! Indeed, as if white were not made to appear black in print every day. Ah! was n't that a jolly onslaught that Gen. Butler gave to the newspaper men, the other day in Congress?
Newspapers make, and unmake men now-a-days. Terrible is the power, and terribly they use it, to crush, and blacken, and destroy!
I dreaded to think how in the days of tribulation, whole cargoes of newspapers with columns of blasted reputations would find their way to a woman's aching eyes and heavy heart. Her creed must ever be, "Thy all the world forsake thee, yet will not I!"
How many women who lead blameless and lovely lives are in a day shut out from the light of sunshine and heaven by their happy homes by the fierce message of the telegraph and the press, forever henceforth blurring to the four winds the scandal, the crime, the penalty, that has come about their quiet hearthstones.
Great black monsters that with hissing breath of steam and teeth of steel fasten upon a helpless victim and torture him to the death?
Speak ye always, Oh, tongues of steel! the words of truth and sobriety. Wrath and bitterness break the heart and crush the soul. Talking about the tribulations of change, one is reminded that the astute body known as the "Kansas Legislature" will probably be dissolved "in the twinkling of an eye," very soon. Even now perhaps the words are said that have will break up this formidable institution which has covered itself with glory as with a garment during these latter days.
For the rapid and persistent passage of resolutions, was it there ever a body like unto this body?
I am interested to observe in the daily reports of what they did not do this winter, that a young and rising member of the lower House (when he is sitting down he rises continually.) Several times a day he rises and urges a motion that they go into committee of the whole on "unfinished business," and I find myself wishing that they would take him in hand first thing. He is all head and wings now, like the cherubs that Saxe describes, like new wine, he wants body.
One lamentable thing about the Kansas Legislature is that they do not know how to appreciate martyrs and heroes. They had the genuine thing this winter, and yet what a muddle they made of it, instead of a pure flame! I had rather be a door keeper in some uninhabited cabin in the wilderness, than a dweller (a member) in the tents of the Kansas Legislature.
WYANDOTTE, March 4th.
No. 2, white ..... 40
Flax ..... 28
Castor Beans ..... 35
Cattle, choice native ..... 60
fair native ..... 45
common Texas ..... 30
Hogs firm at ..... 25
Hay, per ton ..... $15

LAWRENCE PRODUCE MARKET.
HOGS AND CATTLE.
Live hogs ..... 31c
Dressed hogs 200 pounds and over ..... 40c
Fat cows ..... 30c
Fair native steers ..... 33c
Prime native steers ..... 41c
GRAIN.
Corn ..... 18c
Oats ..... 18c
Buckwheat ..... 75c
SHEEPS.
Timothy ..... $4 00
Clover ..... 7 50
Blue Grass ..... 2 00
Hemp ..... 1 25
Flax ..... 2 50
Millet ..... 1 25
Hungarian ..... 1 25
Red Top ..... 2 50
PRODUCE.
Apples ..... $1 50 @ 2 00
Potatoes ..... 40c
Onions ..... 50c
Beets ..... $2 50
Carrots ..... 40c
Turnips ..... 20c
Rutabaga turnips ..... 20c
Cabbage ..... 20c
Butter, 1st quality ..... 30c @ 32c
2d ..... 25c
Eggs ..... 10c
Turkeys, dressed ..... 12c
live ..... 7c
Chickens, dressed ..... 8c
live, per doz. ..... $2 50
Coal oil ..... 40c
HAY.
Prairie ..... $5 00
Timothy ..... 8 00
WOOD.
S. B. hickory ..... $6 00
Dry oak ..... 5 50
Green oak ..... 5 00
Soft wood ..... 4 50
PROVISIONS AT RETAIL—FLOUR.
Strictly choice family, per sack ..... $5 75
Choice ..... 5 15
Second choice ..... 5 00
Third choice ..... 5 50
Nebraska spring wheat ..... 4 50
Corn meal per 100 pounds ..... 1 20
Buckwheat ..... 6 00
COFFEE.
Mocha, per pound ..... 60c
Java ..... 35c
Best Rio ..... 25c
Second ..... 20c
Laguaira ..... 27c
SUGAR.
A ..... 15c
Ex. C ..... 14c
XXX ..... 13c
Portorrique ..... 12c
MOLASSES.
Sugar House molasses ..... 75c
Golden Syrup ..... $1 00
Sugar loaf syrup ..... 1 25
New Orleans ..... 1 00
Borgum ..... 60

MRS. STARRETT'S MUSIC STORE
and
SEWING MACHINE EMPORIUM.
No. 153 Massachusetts Street,
LAWRENCE, KANSAS.
A Full and Splendid Stock of Pianos and Organs Constantly on Hand.
Also a Full Stock of
GUITARS, VIOLINS, ACCORDEONS, FLUTES & FIFES,
Of the best quality and bought directly from one of the Largest Importing Houses in the Country.
Mrs. Starrett is sole agent for the Pianos of
CHICKERING & SONS,
F. C. LIGHTE & CO., DECKER & BRO.,
And other first class Manufacturers; also for the
GEORGE PRINCE ORGANS,
WHITNEY & HOLMES ORGANS,
NEEDHAM SILVER TONGUE ORGANS.
Mrs. STARRETT brings to the music business an experience of fifteen years as teacher of music, and she will endeavor to prove to all who favor her with their patronage that her opinion of instruments is honest, intelligent and reliable. She keeps none but
FIRST CLASS INSTRUMENTS,
And has selected such as in her judgment and experience have points of superiority over all others.
MRS. STARRETT CALLS ESPECIAL ATTENTION TO THE CHICKERING UPRIGHT PIANO,
Which is acknowledged by all experts who have examined it to be the best Upright Piano in the world. It has the PATENT TRUSS FRAME, which is the only frame ever devised that will enable an Upright Piano to stand in tune. The tone is also surpassingly rich and mellow.
A Large and Complete Stock of
SHEET MUSIC & MUSIC BOOKS,
Just Opened; also
GUITAR AND VIOLIN STRINGS
Of the Best Quality.
Mrs. Starrett also offers for sale a variety of STANDARD SEWING MACHINES.
THE MANHATTAN SILENT SEWING MACHINE,
Making the "Elastic Lock Stitch."
THE BLES NOISELESS LOCK STITCH MACHINE,
and the
AMERICAN COMBINATION BUTTON HOLE MACHINE.
Also
THE LAMB KNITTING MACHINE
AND THE
FRANZ & POPE KNITTING MACHINE.
Letters or orders from any part of the State will receive prompt attention. Persons ordering instruments from a distance may rely upon receiving the very best.
For further information call on or address
Mrs. H. E. STARRETT,
153 Mass. St., LAWRENCE, KANSAS.
1873

Down Talk.

FEARFUL ACCIDENT.—This community was terribly shocked Tuesday morning about nine o'clock, as word hurriedly passed from mouth to mouth that two men had fallen from the roof of the new building of the First National Bank, corner of Massachusetts and Winthrop streets.

SHEPHERD LIVED IN AN UNCONSCIOUS STATE for about an hour, reviving only once, under the influence of stimulants, when he passed beyond his misery. His body was taken to his residence on the "Well's farm," about one and a half miles north of the city.

THE COUNTY JAIL.—A county jail, under the most favorable circumstances, is an unenviable place; but the jail of Douglas county, under the charge of Sheriff Carman and his deputy, Campbell, is in good condition.

MUSIC.—When three or four brass bands were organizing and practicing nightly in this city, the music in this particular sphere was anything but entertaining as contributing to the health, comfort and rest of the "early-to-bed" class of our people.

MUSIC.—When three or four brass bands were organizing and practicing nightly in this city, the music in this particular sphere was anything but entertaining as contributing to the health, comfort and rest of the "early-to-bed" class of our people.

MUSIC.—When three or four brass bands were organizing and practicing nightly in this city, the music in this particular sphere was anything but entertaining as contributing to the health, comfort and rest of the "early-to-bed" class of our people.

MUSIC.—When three or four brass bands were organizing and practicing nightly in this city, the music in this particular sphere was anything but entertaining as contributing to the health, comfort and rest of the "early-to-bed" class of our people.

MUSIC.—When three or four brass bands were organizing and practicing nightly in this city, the music in this particular sphere was anything but entertaining as contributing to the health, comfort and rest of the "early-to-bed" class of our people.

CITY COUNCIL.—The city council met in regular session Monday evening. The question that seemed to involve the most interest prior to the meeting, was that of the appointment of city assessor.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—Frame house on Ohio street, west side, between Hancock and Quincy, north house. Contains six rooms, good cellar, well, &c.

MUSICAL.—The Musical Soiree at the rooms of the Conservatory Thursday night passed off very pleasantly. We noticed a decided improvement in the performance of most of the pupils; they seemed to be less frightened by the audience than on former occasions.

THANKS.—At a meeting of the Order of Odd Fellows, at their Hall, after the funeral of brother John P. Clay, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we tender our thanks and commend the generosity of our expression, who furnished teams and their own services free of charge to convey us to the cemetery and return.

FUNERALS.—The funeral of Mr. Jno. P. Clay, took place Wednesday at two o'clock. Large delegations of Odd Fellows from the different lodges of the city met at Odd Fellows Hall at the appointed hour and in full regalia marched to the residence of the deceased, where Dr. Reed of the Baptist Church offered a prayer and very appropriate remarks.

NATIVE WINE.—The best wine that we have yet seen, made from Kansas grapes, is that manufactured by Mr. R. W. Ludington, of this city.

SASH FACTORY.—Mr. Lescher has the brick work of his sash and door factory, corner of Connecticut and Quincy street, nearly completed.

KEEP COOL.—During the winter months it has not puzzled the people of this latitude to keep cool, but the time is close at hand when it may.

ELECAMPANE.—Last week we published a remedy for hydrophobia, the principal ingredient being elecampane. A friend has since told us of other diseases that flesh is heir to, which it is good for, and among others is that troublesome affection, catarrh.

NEW ESTABLISHMENT.—Messrs. Smith & Watkins, well known to our citizens as painters and paper hangers, have re-fitted and fixed up the store-room at 122 Massachusetts street, and will next week open a new paint and paper store, when they will be prepared to receive and execute all orders promptly.

FIRE.—Two small tenement houses near the corner of Kentucky and Pinekey streets, were burned Thursday noon. They were occupied by colored families.

OFF.—Hopkins, who for some time past had command of the forces engaged in active operations about the culinary department of the Eldridge house, has concluded to go to Chicago, and assume command of a larger force in a similar department.

TEMPERANCE.—A large and rather animated temperance mass meeting was held at Liberty Hall Thursday evening. D. C. Haskell, Esq., presided, and speeches were made by Rev. W. K. Marshall, Gov. Robinson, Maj. Redington, and others.

MR. HOWARD SHEPPARD was buried Thursday at one o'clock. A large number of sympathizing friends attended and followed the remains to Maple Grove Cemetery.

HORSE HURT.—Yesterday morning as the driver on one of the street cars was reversing the car on the turntable at the street railway depot, one of the horses caught its foot and fell, breaking its leg near the stifle joint.

P. L. C.—These are the initials of a new order which, we hear, has been instituted in Lawrence. We leave our readers to cypher out the explanation of these mysterious letters.

SOLD.—The Ottawa "Journal" has been sold to satisfy a chattel mortgage.

PUBLICATION NOTICE.—District Court, Douglas county, Kansas. Florence Perry, Plaintiff, against Franklin Perry, Defendant. To the said Defendant: You are hereby notified that you have been sued by Florence Perry in said Court, and that she filed her petition for a divorce and alimony therein against you in said Court on the 6th day of March, A. D. 1878, and that you are required to answer her petition filed therein against you, on or before the 18th day of April, A. D. 1878, or the petition will be taken as true, and judgment, the nature of which will be that the said plaintiff may be divorced from the said defendant, upon the grounds of abandonment for more than one year last past, and that she may have the sole guardianship of her minor child, Samuel Franklin Perry, and for alimony will be rendered accordingly.

Market Reports.

LIVESTOCK MARKETS.

CHICAGO MARKET. CHICAGO, March 7.

The receipts have been much lighter since our last report than for the week previous, while with a fair demand for butchers' and stock cattle, prices have remained steady on those grades. There has not been a prime drove of cattle on the market since our last report, and from the general advices from western shippers there appears to be only a few prime lots of cattle in the country to go forward this spring, and there is such a vast difference made in price between a medium drove of cattle and a good drove, we cannot see why feeders do not keep their cattle until they are fat; for while corn is so plentiful and so cheap, it is much more profitable to continue feeding, even to grass.

Texas cattle are going forward in fair receipts, but there being a good butchering demand prices have not receded any since our last report. We quote the market for this class of stock steady as follows: Good, fat, heavy smooth, $4.50@5.00; medium, $4.00@4.25; fair, $3.75@4.00; common, $3.00@3.25.

KANSAS CITY MARKET. KANSAS CITY, March 7.

Hogs.—Our last quotations have not been sustained, a weak feeling having prevailed and a gradual decline having been made. Since Tuesday the majority of Eastern packers have stopped cutting, and consequently prices have gradually declined. We quote the market weak at prices ranging from $4.00@4.25.

Freights per Atlantic & Pacific R. R.

Table with columns: Freight type (Cattle cars, Hog cars, Grain cars, etc.), From Lawrence to St. Louis, N. Y., and Denver, via K. P. R. R.

LAWRENCE, KANSAS, March 6, 1878.

Lawrence Produce Market. HOGS AND CATTLE. Live hogs, Dressed hogs, Fat cows, etc. GRAIN. Corn, Oats, Buckwheat, etc. SEEDS. Timothy, Clover, Blue Grass, etc. PRODUCE. Potatoes, Onions, Beans, etc. WOOD. S. B. Hickory, Dry oak, etc. COFFEE. Mocha, Java, etc. SUGAR. Sugar House molasses, Golden Syrup, etc.

NEW GOODS AT LOW PRICES.

WM. M. WARNE, Dealer in

QUEENSWARE, CHINA, GLASSWARE, ETC.

Hotel and House-Furnishing Goods.

WOODEN AND WILLOW-WARE.

PLATED WARE, KNIVES, FORKS, SPOONS, WAITERS, LAMPS.

LAMP CHIMNIES, LAMP TRIMMINGS, WALNUT BRACKETS, BIRD CAGES, &c.

BEST ASSORTMENT OF GOODS.

LOWEST CASH PRICE.

MRS. STARRETT'S MUSIC STORE and SEWING MACHINE EMPORIUM.

Advertisement for Mrs. Starrett's Music Store and Sewing Machine Emporium, listing various musical instruments and sewing machines.

