The prospects for a return to the good old times of confidence and plenty have been as dark as the present. No blessing the effects of which might be expected from the boundaries of this valuable new acquisition. It is in the interest of the country to have a prosperous commerce, a flourishing agriculture, a healthy population, and a sound currency. We agree with Rev. Dr. D. that conditions are bad, and we advise all of our readers to tone down their expectations, or tone down their standard of living, until things get better. On Friday, June 27th, Rev. C. D. McElhenny has been appointed to a fine open to a light spring in the year of next year, and we have pleasure in reporting him an excellent candidate for the office of justice of the peace in the county of Springfield. We have every reason to believe that Rev. C. D. McElhenny will make a good and faithful public servant.

City and Villages.

We have had this enough during the past weeks; but had a month. The crops are en-pointing; the store windows are filled with new goods; and, it is hoped, the prices will be reasonably low.

No new business is noticed at present.

A large parcel of bound books will soon arrive by train, if all goes well along.

Our readers are reminded that the first issue of the Independent is to be printed.

This evening's issue will contain a number of important articles.

This is the last week of October, and the time is coming when the schools will be closed for the winter.

TO THE PEOPLE OF LINDSEY COUNTY:

Preparation is being made in the Lawrence, North, Lawrence & Junction Railroad Company to open the road for the benefit of the people of the county. There are several hundred acres of land under cultivation, and it is expected that the railroad will greatly increase the value of the land.

THE GREAT DRY GOODS HOUSE:

L. BULLENE & CO.

Innumerable stocks of Dry Goods have recently been brought into market at Lawrence, and found ready to supply the wants of the community. The selection of goods is equal to anything seen in the best markets of the country. All goods are New York goods, and are of the best grade available. We have a large stock of goods, including a large stock of

than have been known for many years.

It is necessary to ship large shipments of goods to the West, and, in order to secure a large supply of the best goods, we have entered into a contract with the manufacturers of the kind of goods we desire. We have a large stock of goods, including a large stock of
