CARTOON EDITORIAL

The editor, in order to bring a little hot weather relief to the readers, has drawn, rather than written, the editorial for this week's issue. With his drawing pen, the editor has attempted to show his conception of the situation in Washington with reference to the Frazier-Lemke legislation, and the fight that is being made by the Farmers Union (National Union and various state unions) to secure that legislation.

RESSETLEMENT

Under the administration's Recovery program came plans for resettlement of tenant farmers. The Bankhead Bill provides for the farm home corporation which would have at its disposal one billion dollars to purchase homes for tenant farmers.

Plans are, as yet, only tentative to make effective this program, but the Government has secured options on millions of acres of farm land and some of these options will soon expire.

I am in favor of doing something for tenant farmers. It is much better, and it is economy, to supervise at least to a certain extent, and give financial aid and keep these poor farmers on farms, than it is to sell them out, thus forcing them on relief rolls—which never is a good thing.

This program of resettlement is a part of the new social order and should meet with our support, if rightly directed.

To Balance Budget
The nation's national debt is staggering. On June 30, the United States Treasury made public the fact that the deficit for the last year amounted to $3,575,000,000.

Adjustment Necessary
Many of these farm exchanges took place during the war, prior to 1920, at extreme high prices.

Financial and Tax Systems
Our nation must begin to balance its budget or we will face wholesale repudiation of debt.

Spending for Highways
Of the $4,880,000,000 appropriated for work relief, $800,000,000 is for highways.

Some interesting figures are available, having been recently released by the Bureau of the Census at Washington.

In 1930, there were in Kansas 166,042 farms comprising 46,475,647 acres, valued at $2,281,101,631.00.

By 1935 our number of farms in Kansas had increased in number to 174,589 comprising of 48,033,581 acres valued at $1,479,029,708.00.

This report shows that we have 8,547 more farms in 1935 than we had in 1930. It also shows that even though we have more farms the total value of all farm lands, including buildings, in Kansas is $802,071,928.00 less in 1935 than in 1930.

In 1930 the value per acre was $48.55 and in 1935 the value per acre had shrunk to $30.79 per acre, or a shrinkage of 36 1/2 per cent.

Going back fifteen years, to 1920, we had 165,286 farms valued at $2,830,063,918.00. This was an excess of $548,962,287.00 above the 1930 valuation.

The value per acre, according to the U. S. census, in 1920 was $62.30, which is more than twice the value per acre at the present time.

At the close of the war our national debt was $25,000,000,000. At the beginning of the depression it had been reduced to $16,000,000,000.

The national debt now is $28,700,000,000. During 125 years of our existence from 1789 to 1913, our total expenditures of the Federal government was $24,000,000,000.

On the basis of the appropriations already made for this year, the cost of conducting the national government for the fiscal years of 1934 and 1935, will reach $24,000,000,000.

Through all these years we have studied the situation can see we are making some progress forward. This progress is attributable to the united work of farm organizations; and, by the way, the Farmers Union is always in the front ranks.

The progress made is small compared to the ground we must gain to save our farms and homes, but we are on the way.

Our nation must begin to balance its budget or we will face wholesale repudiation of debt.

SALES DEPT. SERVES MANY

"We have no kick coming," say the boys in the sales department. Working night and day is some indication of the busy times for this department of the Union. Farmers like the quality of merchandise handled and prices quoted.

Traders from all over the state each day back up to the dock at the back of the building located at 18 North Klein. There is always room for one more.—Oklahoma Union Farmer.

OIL COMPANIES PAY DUES

During the first half of June a number of Farmers Union Oil companies have paid the 1935 dues for patrons of the companies and have added a number of new members to the organization by making the $3.50 deduction for a member reminds us of a Farmers Holiday procession. They are down in bus loads and train loads.

CALLAHAN IMPROVES

Probably the question most frequently asked by Farmers Union members is "How is President Callahan?" and "When will he be able to visit our local again?"

CHAIN STORE TAX

The chain-store tax was passed and signed by the governor and at this writing the Standard Oil Co., etc., are at Des Moines, in what is called a Farmers Holiday procession. They are down in bus loads and train loads.

WHAT OF NATION'S YOUTH?

Through all these years we have urged our boys and girls to fit themselves to do some task well, and in most cases parents have skimped early on into to help them do this, and is this advice no longer sound—should we say to them instead, "There is no need to qualify yourselves for fine service, because our Nation already needs?"

ARGENTINE BEEF COMING

Efforts being made to bring about the importation of South American beef in order to force prices down in this country, are giving American cattle growers and feeders much concern.

PERMITTED UNDER A SANITARY CONVENTION

Recently signed by the United States and Argentina. The convention will shortly go to the Senate for ratification. There has been an embargo on importation of Argentine meat into this country on account of hoof and mouth disease, but the new convention would alter existing tariff provisions so that shipments could come in from disease free sections.

PROFITS OF WAR

We know, twenty years removed from the anniversary of the beginnings of the World War, that we were drawn into it by scheming profiteers and for their sakes gave the lives of our citizens, the labor of our hands, the money from our pockets, considered for their sakes the manhood of other lands, whose citizens also yielded up the products of their labor to these same profiteers.

ALL TOGETHER GET RESULTS

When a leader of community singing at a luncheon club got to his feet and started to sing, he was singing almost alone at first. Then he shouted: "I do not want to sing a solo, come on now, everybody sing!"

CONGRESS CANNOT OBEY TWO MASTERS

Gen. Stewart Heinzelman, with a hundred years of military background was all that is implied in the "good soldier." One of the finest commencement addresses I ever heard, he gave last spring when he was in the burial of his wife at Arlington, and this week we placed him beside her.

THE CLOAK ROOM

W. P. Lambertson

July 13, 1935
Borah suits the Eastern Republicans on the Constitution and on International Relations. He suits the West on about everything but his age.

Don't you sun-blistered people out West worry about your humble servants here in Washington. We have a fine air-cooled Chamber at each end of the Capitol. If churches were air-cooled people would go there now to be comfortable.

Heinzelman's influence in the Army, is similar to the stamp Stamps Bates had left on the Federal Prison. They are on the level today. Personal politics hasn't anything more to do with the management of Federal Prisons now, than a canary has with a starling.

A quite unusual thing happened Thursday. Lucas, of Illinois, was speaking. Bill Lemke had enough Democrats standing in line to sign the famous petition, which would have forced a vote. The floor leader observing this interrupted the one speaking and moved that the House adjourn.

The speaker promptly put the question and declared it carried. Bill felt like the boy from the East who had been taken on a snipe hunt. He was left in the well of the House holding the sack.

Petitions to discharge a Committee must be signed by the speaker's desk with the House in session. The night gave the opposition time to reorganize. The Lemkeites are meeting at 10 this morning to plan future strategy.

When Mr. Brewster, of Maine, said that a brain-truster had threatened to withdraw a PWA project unless he voted for the "death sentence" it caused the House investigation of the President's lobby. The Senate to retaliate said they would investigate the utility lobby. Both started off Brewster rather blew up on the show down, and in the first day the Senate Committee uncovered over 300,000 dollars used to help cloister the capital punishment section. Did you ever hear of a boomerang?

Personally I never felt any improper influence from either side. If it is finally disclosed that the administration made important promises in exchange for votes I am going to ask for the Kiro Dam.

Many Democrats who had voted against the President's wishes in their desire to save the widows and orphans (who were gipped when they were sold their stock) surged back with tremendous force to the reservation to support the questionable and extravagant extension of the TVA.

TAKE TIME TO WRITE TO OLD GRANDPA GUS

Dear Juniors:
I know this weather is might hot, and that there are many things we'd rather do than work on a lesson to send in to Grandpa Gus or to the Farmers Union. But it isn't so hot but what you could spend a little time on a lesson—the July lesson—and you'll find when you start on the lesson that you really are learning something.

I have a few lessons which have been sent in on the Farmers Union Preamble, or what the Farmers Union stands for. But I haven't received nearly as many as I'd like to get. You can't make me believe that there aren't a lot of you who are interested enough in the Farmers Union and the Juvenile department to fix up a lesson and send it in.

Well, this guessing contest is still going. What does Grandpa Gus look like, and just what kind of a human is he, anyway? Answer in your own way. And, say—can't you youngsters draw? Only one person has drawn a picture showing how she thinks I look. That one was Ruth Dobson. She drew a dandy—nope, "dandy" is a mite pretty—but that doesn't mean it doesn't look like me. Each of you try your hand at drawing a picture of Grandpa Gus. If you see some other picture which you think might look something like me, copy it and send in your copy.

Now below are several letters which Aunt Patience sent to me, and which had been sent to her before she left. Some of them have been written quite a while, but they still are good letters. I'm glad to answer them. Here they go:

—Grandpa Gus.

JUVENILE LETTERS

Conway Springs, Kansas, May 3, 1935.

Dear Aunt Patience: How are you? I am fine. My school was out April 23, 1935. I made a perfect attendance record this year. I only missed two words in spelling all year. I waited until school was out to take the measles. I had them light. Next year I will be in the fifth grade. I am now nine years old and will be ten on October 30, 1935. I attend the Farmers Union meetings with Pop and Mom. I attend the Farmers Union schools, too. Mrs. Orr is our teacher.

I have 14 pets: a pony, a banty hen, 6 lambs, and six cats, all black. The cats, I mean. My pony is shedding his first winter permanent. How many pets have you?

I am tired now so I will close. Junior Cooperator, Phillip Rice.

Dear Phillip: That's a fine letter. I know you are proud of your school records, and I'll bet your folks are proud, too. I'd be mighty proud if I could spell as well as you can.

How did you like the Farmers Union school? Any one in the Rice family at Conway Springs should already know a lot about Farmers Union, so the school must have been interesting to you. I've heard that Mrs. Orr is a good teacher.

Say—you have a whole flock of pets. When I lived on the farm, I used to have a lot, too; but we don't have much room for them in town. That's another good thing about living on the farm. Write again, and get in that guessing contest. Try drawing me a picture.—Grandpa Gus.

Glen Elder, Kansas, May 2, 1935.

Dear Aunt Patience: How are you? I am fine. I helped one of my uncles move yesterday. He did live 3 miles north of Glen Elder. He moved into a house in Glen Elder, and expects to move to another house in Glen Elder in about two or three weeks. It sprinkled here this morning.

My birthday was the 30th of April. I got a ring and a crest tie chain. I am like my birthday presents. I am ten years old. My school was out

With sleeves and without capelot it requires 5 1/4 yards. With shoulder cape and sleeves 5 1/2 yards plus the contrast. Price 15c.

8302. Adorable Frock. Designed in Sizes: 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. Size 10 requires 1 7/8 yard of 59 inch fabric with 2 1/2 yards of ribbon for sash. Price 15c.

April 26, and I will be in the fifth grade next year. I got a book and a handkerchief for the last day of school.

There were so many people and children sick that we just didn't have any last day of school. My teacher just dismissed school Friday, so we don't have to go to school till next year. (Letter not signed.)

Dear Juvenile who didn't sign your letter: Now, isn't that too bad. Here is a good letter, and no one knows who wrote it. It was an interesting letter, and if the Juvenile cooperator who wrote it will write me another letter and tell me he or she was the writer of this letter, it will clear up a big mystery for all of us. Speaking of mysteries, when you write the next time, it will be to Grandpa Gus, no doubt; and I want you to help try to solve the mystery about how I look and what I'm like.—Grandpa Gus.

Hays, Kansas, June 24, 1935.

Dear Aunt Patience: I want to join your club. I am eight years old. My birthday is November 25. For pets I have a kitten. Its name is Bobby. And I have a dog named Jack. He does all kinds of tricks and carries all our coal.

Please send me my pin—and thank you for it. Please help me find my twin.

My father and three uncles are Farmers Union members. Your Junior Cooperator, Mary Ann Joy.

Dear Mary Ann: It really is a "joy" to hear from you, and it seems your family is a "joy" to the Farmers Union. You have some fine pets. Jack is certainly a smart dog, and useful, too. Don't let him start carrying matches.

Your birthday is only three days before Thanksgiving this year. I hope we'll run across your twin soon. Your pin is being sent to you.—Grandpa Gus.

Hays, Kansas, June 8, 1935.

Dear Aunt Patience: How are you? I am fine. Have you had any rain? We had lots. Our school was out May 24. I am in the fourth grade next year. My birthday is February 2. I am nine years old. I have two brothers that want to join. One is Virgil, 7 years old. His birthday is January 5. My other brother, Wesley, is 4 years old. His birthday is March 6. Will I get a star? I am sending in my June lessons. My letter is getting long so I will close. Please send me a pin, as I lost mine. Your friend, Henrietta Hauschild.

Dear Henrietta: Glad to hear from you again. Yes, we have had lots of rain, but if this hot spell keeps on we'll need more soon. As soon as your brothers write letters to me, we'll make them members. That's what it takes to belong—a letter. Then you will be entitled to your opposite your name. I'm sorry about you losing your pin. That brings in another rule of the club: When a member loses a pin, it will be replaced at cost—25 cents. The club gives one pin to each member. Now write Grandpa Gus and get in that guessing contest.—Grandpa Gus.

Troy, Kansas, June 20, 1935.

Dear Aunt Patience: How are you? I am fine, and hope you are the same. I am sending you my lesson for June. I do hope you are not too late. I am in a hurry, so must close. I am 12 years old.—Violet May Gummig.

Dear Violet May: Grandpa Gus is glad to hear from you. You have a good lesson, and it shows you have studied hard—and have learned a lot. Now the next time you write, don't be in too big a hurry to tell Grandpa Gus what you think he looks like. Take time to draw him a picture, too.—Grandpa Gus.

Waverly, Kans, June 12, 1935.

Dear Aunt Patience: How are you? I am just fine. I am 13 years old. My birthday is January 17. I go to Sunflower school. I will be in the eighth grade next year. My teacher for next year will be Mr. McNish. I took the 7th grade county examinations for the rural schools April 20. I took 3 subjects: Geography, Health Habits, and Kansas History. I made all A's. I have one brother named Lyle and a sister named Elva. Please send me a pin.

For pets I have a big blue cat named Blue.

My father belongs to the Farmers Union.

Yours truly, Irene Cox.

Dear Irene: That's a fine letter, and I want to compliment you on your excellent writing, and on your good English. I can see why you got A's in your examinations. We are glad to have you with us in our club, and will be glad for you to wear the pin. Are you good at guessing and drawing? I'd like for you to get in that contest and guess on how I look and what sort of an old Grandpa I am.—Grandpa Gus.

WISE BUYER READS LABEL ON ALL CANNED PRODUCTS

Canned chicken is one of the handy packaged foods selected for summer picnics and meals out-of-doors, as well as for home meals when a minimum of work and cooking is desired. It is an excellent choice from the standpoint of convenience and flavor. But a wise buyer of home supplies, points out the Food and Drug Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture, makes a practice of reading labels on all packaged goods to be sure the family food money is well spent. She wants information as to the weight and purity of the contents. Canned chicken is no exception. In the case of chicken mixtures, she wants to know what else she is getting and how much of it. No one wants to pay chicken prices

MRS. ERNEST REIST SENDS LONG LIST OF JUNIORS, JUVENILES

Local Leader of Rock Local 929 in Nemaha County Says List of 25 Juniors and Four Juveniles is Not Complete

GOOD WORK DONE

Future of Farmers Union and Success of Organized Agriculture Assured if Many Others would Do as Well as Mrs. Reist

Twenty-five new Juvenile members and four new Junior members with more in sight, is a good report for any Junior Leader to send in. Such a report was received at state headquarters this week from Mrs. Ernest Reist, Junior Leader of Rock Local No. 929, near Seneca, Kansas. This report shows several things. It shows that Mrs. Reist is doing some mighty good work; and it shows that she has received good cooperation from others in her Local and in the county organization.

The future of the Farmers Union is pretty well assured when results like these can be obtained. The future success of organized agriculture has been made more secure by the work of Mrs. Reist and her associates. In her letter to the state leader, dated July 8 at Seneca, Mrs. Reist gives the following report:

Mrs. Reist's Report
In regard to our Junior work, you will probably think the Junior leader of Rock Local No. 929 has been asleep at the post, but perhaps we are going to awaken soon.

I have been talking to the parents and am sending you a list of Juniors and Juveniles that have consented to join. As yet we have not had any lesson material but will try to have that at our next meeting when our busy season of harvesting and threshing will be over.

Enclosed you will find $1 for four Junior applications for membership. The list will not be complete as we have more children eligible and will send them later when I have time to see them.

for canned noodles—in a chicken and noodle mixture.

"Boned chicken" or "boneless chicken" is meat, with or without a small amount of skin, sterilized in cans and jars. It generally is packed with a little salt, chicken fat, and sometimes a small quantity of chicken broth for moisture. This is the chicken for sandwiches and salads or for slicing as jelled chicken. Sometimes the amount of jelly in the tin is increased by the addition of gelatin or agar-agar. These do not injure flavor or food value, but the law requires their presence be stated on the label.

"Potted" or "dressed" chicken is a sandwich spread everyone likes. It is made of ground pieces of meat, often spiced. Canned products such as "chicken a la king" and "chicken chop suey" contain in addition to the meat, various quantities of vegetables, condiments, and flavoring materials. The names themselves suggest the nature of the products, with which the chicken is packed, but they must be truthful.

ONION SOUP

French Onion Soup is a French dish, one you'll have to try to know how good it is. Pick to pieces several chunks of canned beef, add the broth from the can and a quart of hot water. Slice 4 large onions and add to the stock, also a pint of canned tomatoes. Season with salt, pepper, bay leaf, celery salt or seeds, and a dash of red pepper, if desired. Cook until the onions are tender. Serve with toast.

BARBECUED SPARE RIBS

1 1-2 pounds of spare ribs.
Sauce—
3 1-2 tablespoons of catsup
2 tablespoons of vinegar
1 1-2 teaspoons of salt
1-4 teaspoon of pepper
2 tablespoons of flour
1-2 small onion (diced)
Wash and trim ribs, cover with water and simmer until done. Add salt and pepper five minutes before done. Lift meat out of juice, place in baking pan large enough so that each section can lie flat. Pour three tablespoons of the liquor in which ribs were cooked over them. Mix vinegar catsup and enough sugar to taste. Sprinkle one-half of the flour over the meat. Add one-half of the vinegar sauce. Add other half of flour and sauce. Bake in hot oven until brown. Serve hot. This recipe will serve five persons.

SAUERKRAUT SALAD

Chill contents of one 15-ounce can sauerkraut, drain thoroughly and mix with two-thirds cup crisp shredded raw carrot. Moisten with one-third cup mayonnaise. Serves six.

RAISIN CAKE

This cake which is butterless, eggless and milkless, will prove a boon when the cupboard is bare and something must be made for luncheon or dinner. The name, raisin cake, is absolutely unrevealing and enlightens no one on the subject of the cake's economical ingredients.

Two cups seedless raisins, 1 cup brown sugar, 1 cup water, 1-3 cup lard or other shortening, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1-2 teaspoon cloves, 1-2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon soda, 1-2 teaspoon of baking powder, 2 cups of flour, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Put sugar, water, lard, raisins and salt in sauce pan and bring to the boiling point and boil three minutes. Cool. When cool add soda dissolved in 2 teaspoons hot water. Beat well and add flour mixed and sifted with spices and baking powder. Mix thoroughly and add water. Turn into a greased floured loaf cake pan and bake 40 minutes in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.)

APPLE STUFFING (For Goose).

One quart bread crumbs,
One-half cup butter,
One quart chopped apple,
One cup chopped celery,
One medium-sized onion
One and one-half teaspoon salt,
One-half teaspoon celery salt,
One teaspoon paprika,
One-fourth teaspoon pepper,
One-eighth teaspoon cloves,
One-fourth teaspoon cinnamon,
One cup boiling water.
The bread crumbs should be dry (toast may be used) and rather coarse. Mix them with the melted butter and the onion and coarsely chopped apple, celery and onion chopped and the seasonings. Moisten with boiling water.

OAT MEAL ROLLS

Pour two cups of boiling water over one cup of rolled oats. Add two tablespoons of melted butter and one tablespoon of lard, and let stand until mixture is lukewarm. Meanwhile, soak one-half cake of compressed yeast and one teaspoon of sugar in one-third cup of lukewarm water for from fifteen to twenty minutes. Put the oats are lukewarm and add two-thirds of a cup of brown sugar firmly packed in the cup, one and one-half teaspoons of salt and the yeast. Now add about five cups of flour, gradually beating hard with a wooden spoon. Add one-half cup of nut-meats, if you have them, and turn the mixture onto a well floured board. Knead well, adding gradually about one cup more flour. Put dough in a greased bowl and let rise twice, doubling its bulk both times and punching down after each rising. Knead down. Roll into sheets one-half inch in thickness. Cut with a small biscuit cutter. Put each round of dough in a greased muffin tin. Grease tops. Let rise until double in bulk. Bake for twenty to twenty-five minutes in a moderately hot oven.

Brown oatmeal rolls may also be baked as parkerhouse, cloverleaf or crescent rolls.

PEAS WITH ONIONS

Open a can of peas, pour into a saucepan and add 2 tablespoons minced onion (one small onion). Cook rapidly until ready to serve. Add 2 tablespoons of butter and salt and pepper to taste.

This Is One of the Busy Seasons on the Average Kansas Farm

It is easy to fall into the habit of neglecting to attend the meetings of our Farmers Union Local. Let us guard against such an evil habit.

Remember—

that without the Farmers Union, our farming operations would not be worth much. We need the Farmers Union to safeguard our interests as a class of citizens entitled to every advantage that is accorded any other class of people. What will it profit us if we produce and market without system—without cooperation—and thus give the results of our labor to some other, well organized, group?
