ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The researcher expresses appreciation to Professor Curtis Trent, Chairman of her graduate study committee, for his helpful assistance, wise counsel and sincere interest during her graduate study.

Appreciation is expressed to other members of the committee--- Professors Dorothy Harrison, Glenn Busset and Wilber Ringler for their interest and helpful suggestions.

The researcher is grateful to Sedgwick County Extension personnel--- County Director Donald W. Ingle for his consent to conduct the research in Sedgwick County; Mrs. Ruby Truax, County Extension Home Economist, for her time and effort in making arrangements for the meeting to collect the data; and to the women who participated in the study.

Appreciation is expressed to the College of Education and to the Department of Family and Child Development, Kansas State University, for the loan of the video tape equipment. The researcher especially wishes to recognize Mr. Phil Goodnow for his technical assistance in producing the video tape used in the study.

Gratitude is expressed to her husband, Gary, for his encouragement during the writing of this paper.

AUTOBIOGRAPHY

The researcher was born in Ft. Smith, Arkansas August 22, 1943. She attended elementary schools in New York, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Tennessee, and Kansas and in 1961 graduated from Clearwater High School, Clearwater, Kansas. She was active in 4-H Club work for 10 years and was named one of six national winners in the 4-H foods and nutrition program in 1961.

She graduated from Kansas State University in 1966 with a B. S. in Home Economics with emphasis in foods and nutrition. During the period 1966-68 she was a specialist in foods and nutrition for the Kansas Extension Service coordinating a special state-wide project on teenage nutrition.

Other professional experience includes a part-time position (while enrolled as a graduate student) as Administrative Assistant for the Manhattan Adult Basic Education program and a position coordinating a short-term research project for the Adult Education Division of the Kansas State Department of Education.

The researcher is now Food Service Manager of The Saint Mary Hospital, Manhattan, Kansas.

She married Gary R. Dierking in August, 1969.
